

Congressman Paul Cook Has Betrayed the Middle Class

Your Republican Congressman Paul Cook isn't looking out for you. On November 16, Cook voted to raise taxes on 3.7 million working and middle class Californians to pay for a tax cut for millionaires. Cook's vote hurts hardworking families who are just trying to create a better life.

Cook's Vote Hurts the Middle Class By...

- ✓ Forcing working Californians to pay $12.1 billion more in taxes by 2027
- ✓ Cutting Medicare by $400 billion over the next ten years
- ✓ Cancelling a program that creates 20,000 affordable homes a year in California
- ✓ Eliminating tax deductions on medical expenses and student loans
- ✓ Eliminating the tax deduction for property lost to wildfires or earthquakes

Cook's Vote Helps the Rich By...

- ✓ Cutting taxes for giant corporations almost in half
- ✓ Giving the richest 1% most of the benefits

The middle class pays more so the rich can pay less.
Those are Congressman Paul Cook's values. Are they yours?

Congressman Paul Cook's Tax Scam Bad News for California

Los Angeles Times

11/16/17

A tax bill no responsible California lawmaker should support

“It would ultimately raise Californians’ personal income taxes, which is a perverse twist that none of the state’s representatives, Democrat or Republican, should support.”

San Diego Union Tribune

11/16/17

This tax ‘reform’ would harm California

“[It] would make California’s most pressing problem — its high cost of housing — even worse.”

The New York Times

11/16/17

A Tax-Cut Bill to Make Scrooge McDuck Proud

“It still boggles the mind that any lawmaker could support a proposal that would do so much damage to working people and the fiscal health of the government.”

Huge tax cuts for the richest 1%.
Nothing for the rest of us.
