

Father Jose Maria Arizmendiarieta lived and taught a gospel-based economics in the Basque Countries near Spain. He lives on through the Mondragon Cooperative. On November 29, all around the world people will celebrate his contribution and his ongoing inspiration.

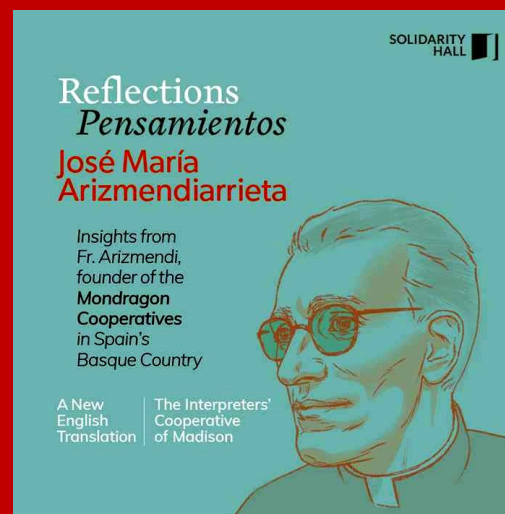

At 9 pm AEST April 22 we will be holding a planning zoom to begin to organise for November

Please join us for the meeting on April 22. Register at:
www.earthworkercooperative.com.au/arizmendi

As part of the April gathering and in the lead up to November we will be promoting various meetings, forums and information sessions concerning Arizmendi's life and activities from around the world. The first of these will be a meeting called by Solidarity Hall in North America. A new book published by Solidarity Hall is soon to be released: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/book-launchreading-reflections-by-fr-josemaria-arizmendiarieta-tickets-148461176375>

Celebrate Arizmendi!

-  Antifascist defender of the Spanish Republic
-  Priest
-  Practitioner & Teacher of Distributism
-  Founder of Mondragon Cooperative
-  Major inspiration for Earthworker Cooperative

EARTH
WORKER
COOPERATIVE

