

Learning more about Racial Justice - Resources for FOK network

Org/Individual	Background info	Fees/availability	Votes
Moms Against Racism	Fee-based, topical group workshops on anti-racism: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How to Raise an Anti-Racist Child (typically presented to PACs; suitable for individuals at different stages in their awareness journey)</li> <li>• Strategies to Engage with Indigenous Communities and to Bring Indigenous Learnings to the Classroom</li> </ul> plus others - and they can do specific training Introductory video:  https://www.momsgainstracism.ca/mar-learns	Can provide the How to Raise an Anti-Racist Child in late Sept./Oct. to FOK teams and network, for $300 - FOK will cover the cost. Includes an extensive Q&amp;A session. Would be good as a common first step for the network. MAR is also interested in working with FOK to adapt the Strategies to Engage with Indigenous Communities workshop specifically for environmental justice issues.
SURJ Toronto	Have led free (by donation) online courses on the role of white people in racial justice. Some videos on their website:  https://surjtoronto.com/blog/how-white-folks-can-take-anti-racist-action-in-covid-19 and  https://surjtoronto.com/education-resources	Lella has reached out about a workshop or course for FOK; no response to date.
Future Ground Network	Offers anti-racism workshops for members	Has anyone taken these? Info would be helpful
Diverse Nature Collective	New initiative: a BIPOC led organization dedicated to creating space for conservation-minded folks to help empower and mobilize diverse voices	Not sure if they lead workshops but their website has a contact for speaking engagements; Lella has emailed them
Inclusive Canada	Based in Alberta, provides free events as well as fee-based group training.	Their 2-hour Group Session focuses on anti-racism in an organizational setting

	They are hosting a live anti-racism Zoom Community Discussion for Rocky Mountain House community on July 27th	(e.g. workplace). The starting rate is $500
Monique Melton	American anti-racism content creator. She offers online, self-paced courses as well as fee-based live sessions.	Her next event is coming up on July 28th. The topic is Teaching Anti-Racism to Kids. It's pay what you can, with tickets starting at $20.  Anti-Racism Starter Bundle (self-paced) - cost is $380  21-Day Challenge Workbook $32
Myisha T - Check Your Privilege	American mental health activist and speaker. She offers live online multi-week courses. She also offers on-demand training	Her 5-week program is starting August 13th. It's $300.
Rachel Ricketts	Canadian/American anti-racism content creator and author. She adds a spiritual (secular) element to her anti-racism teachings. She offers a couple of self-paced, online anti-racism courses	Fee range is $111-$30, depending on how you identify.
Indigenous Canada  University of Alberta, online through Coursera	Online multi-week course From an Indigenous perspective, this course explores key issues facing Indigenous peoples today from a historical and critical perspective highlighting national and local Indigenous-settler relations. Topics for the 12 lessons include the fur trade and other exchange relationships, land claims and environmental impacts, legal systems and rights, political conflicts and alliances, Indigenous political activism, and contemporary Indigenous life, art and its expressions.	Free Individual course but we could set up a study/discussion/action group for individuals taking the course	Have enjoyed taking this - Kate P4C
Anti-Racism 1  University of Colorado,	An introduction to the topic of race and racism in the United States. The primary audience for this course is anyone who is interested in learning about race/racism in the US who has never taken a course in critical race or ethnic	Free

online through Coursera	studies or affiliated fields (indeed, who may not know what the fields of critical race studies or ethnic studies are), who has never read a book about race/racism, or attended any race equity or diversity trainings on the topic of race/racism.
Anti-Racism 2 University of Colorado, online through Coursera	Anti-Racism II is an intermediate course between Anti-Racism I and Anti-Racism III, focusing on the topic of race, racism, and strategies regarding how to be an anti-racist. Anti-Racism II is for anyone who has previously taken Anti-Racism I, or who has basic knowledge of the racial issues plaguing the United States, and globally. Anti-Racism I focused upon how to have open dialogue and conversations about race and racism. Anti-Racism II takes on the vital role assisting students in guiding their own conversations regarding race, and additionally gender and sexuality. Anti-Racism II will expand your knowledge and critically engage your inquiry, centering upon short interviews with leading scholars and activists in the field. Coupled with supplementary video and reading material, these interviews will further demonstrate the power of open dialogue and self-narration, directing you towards being an anti-racist ally. The centrality of the course interviews will culminate in a final project where students will construct and carry out their own personalized interview. The final project will test dialogic skills while asserting the importance of intimate conversations about race, gender, and sexuality.	Free
Designing and Building Institutional Antiracist Spaces Wesleyan University, through Coursera	A course whose mission is to teach tenets of equity, anti-racism, and cultural justice and how to apply these ideas to achieve social change. The course is aimed at educators and administrators in educational spaces, lawyers and advocates in spaces that touch civil rights, equity, and whose Institutional mission it is to achieve greater cultural equity. The course involves creative approaches to social justice, racial justice, and advocacy while remaining open to anyone from any background	Free

	who shares the same vision of the world, as social change entrepreneurs.
--	---	--	--

Climate Justice Organizing Hub	Based in Quebec. The Climate Justice Organizing HUB is a support structure designed around the needs of grassroots social movement organizers in so-called Canada that respects organizers' knowledge regarding their own challenges and priorities. Through responsive troubleshooting, skills and strategy sharing, and other capacity-building activities, its mission is to help organizers find their way to building a critical mass of engaged people who are working towards a just transition	Free
---	---	------	--