NOTE: Oregon election law requires occupational information for each individual contributor. Occupation is the nature of the individual's primary job or business. Indicate "Not-Employed" for individuals such as students, retired people, and volunteers. If the individual is self-employed, indicate "Self-Employed." The occupation must indicate the type of business (e.g., real estate broker, cosmetics salesperson). Titles, industry names, or other generic descriptors (e.g., owner or business owner) that do not convey the nature of the business or work performed are not sufficient.
