

Fees & Partnerships

Funders Together to End Homelessness (FTEH) is dedicated to creating a community of funders who are committed to examining the complex link between employment and housing and acting together. FTEH is working to create a diverse community by seeking philanthropic organizations that range in size, focus, expertise, and geographic location. If you are passionate about the connection between housing and employment, take a look at the Foundations for Employment and Housing membership options below to decide which is best for your organization.

Foundational Partner | $20,000

The Foundational Partner of Foundations for Employment and Housing will provide general support for the community, enable us to invite on-demand content experts to convenings, and allow a diverse array of philanthropic organizations to join the Community. If your foundation becomes a Foundational Partner, your support will include:

- Membership to the two-year Community of Practice for up to two staff members
- One scholarship to help offset costs for a foundation that otherwise may not be able to participate
- Priority consideration for site visit dates that work for you
- Co-Branding on all Foundations for Employment and Housing materials and signage

Diversity Partner | $10,000

Diversity Partners are key to the development of a rich, active, and dynamic Community of Practice. To ensure a diverse community, FTEH will provide scholarships to foundations that might not otherwise be able to participate. If your foundation becomes a Diversity Partner, your gift will include:

- Membership to the two-year Community of Practice for up to two staff members
- One scholarship to help offset the costs for a foundation that otherwise may not be able to join

Regular Fees (Non-FULL Member) | $5,000

Membership to the Foundations for Employment and Housing for Foundations and United Ways is full price for all BASIC Funders Together to End Homelessness members and non-members. Community of Practice fees include membership to the two-year Community of Practice for up to two staff members.

Regular Fees (FULL Member) | $3,500

Membership to the Foundations for Employment and Housing for Foundations and United Ways is discounted for FULL Funders Together to End Homelessness Members. Community of Practice fees include membership to the two-year Community of Practice for up to two staff members.

Scholarship Membership

If you have questions or your organization would like to join the Foundations for Employment and Housing Community of Practice, please contact Jennifer Olney at jennifer@funderstogether.org.

If you are interested in becoming a partner or have any questions about your FTEH membership status, please contact Katie McGonagle at katie@funderstogether.org.

