TO END HOMELESSNESS

2019 Funders Forum

Building the Will to End Unsheltered Homelessness

February 20, 2019 | San Diego

in conjunction with the 2019 Solutions for Individual Homeless Adults National Conference

Time is running out! If you've been thinking about attending the 2019 Funders Forum, now is the time to register. There are just three weeks left before we meet in San Diego on February 20.

If you've experienced tension within your community around building more shelters, knowing that affordable housing is what will really end homelessness, register to come discuss solutions to this with other funders and experts. We'll be joined by our keynote speaker, Dr. Tiffany Manuel, who will talk about how narrative change plays an important role in ending homelessness. We'll also hear about what's happening in communities around the country from experts like Ann Olivia, CSH; Matthew Doherty, USICH; Mo George, Picture the Homeless; and San Diego resident, philanthropist, and advocate, Michael McConnell.

We hope you'll join us for this incredibly important conversation. Space is limited, so sign up today!

Looking for ways you can invest in creating dynamic spaces for funders to engage with, learn from, and network with one another? Consider sponsoring the Funders Forum and other Funders Together networking and learning opportunities! Contact Lauren Bennett for more information.

Webinar Recording: Engaging Law Enforcement as Key Partners In Ending Homelessness

On December 6, 2018, Funders Together to End Homelessness held a webinar on collaborations between law enforcement and homelessness service systems. During this webinar, we examined promising practices among law enforcement and homeless service sector partners discussed at the Convening on Law Enforcement and Homeless Services Partnerships in Ending Homelessness, highlighted four distinct roles law enforcement has in promoting public safety at the intersection of homelessness, and addressed challenges that exist in strengthening and maintaining effective partnerships.
