

PHYSICAL THERAPIST - MOTION ANALYSIS CENTER

Shriners Hospitals for Children Northern California

Help create a brighter, stronger future for the children we serve at Shriners Hospitals for Children Northern California. Recognized by US News and World Report as a top pediatric hospital in the country, we are a family-centered, academic, pediatric medical center located in Sacramento, and the region's foremost provider of specialized treatment for pediatric orthopaedics, spinal cord injuries, burns and other pediatric subspecialties.

Shriners Hospitals for Children Northern California, is seeking a Physical Therapist to work part-time in our Motion Analysis Center (MAC).

This position is responsible for collecting, evaluating and interpreting MAC data for clinical documentation and surgical decision making; supporting clinical and research studies in the realm of pediatrics, orthopaedics, and/or physical therapy; and providing internal and external in-services regarding the use of motion analysis and electromyography in the clinical decision making process.

Requires current Physical Therapist License or eligible for licensure, and CPR. Certification in Kinesiological Wire EMG Testing or fulfillment of all requirements for certification in kinesiological electromyography within 18 months of hiring and successful completion of the certification examination when offered by the Physical Therapy Examining Committee.

SHCNC offers a competitive salary and benefit package, including continuing education and professional development opportunities. Other considerations include free parking, team-approached interdisciplinary care, friendly environment and the satisfaction that our patients are receiving the best care available.

Submit resume to Human Resources, 2425 Stockton Blvd, Sacramento, CA 95817, fax to 916-453-2388, or email ncal.jobs@shrinenet.org. To learn more about our hospital, visit our website at www.shrinerschildrens.org. EOE/Drug Free Workplace