

Candidate Scott Hayes Ward Sipiwiyniwak

Value 1: workplace mental health

A. Mental health programs in the workplace are a must. Yes, I'd be happy to sit down with the GEA to discuss the administrative report to ensure that it is at its best.

B. I think the Canadian national standard for safety in the workplace has already set some great practices. They can be adopted and implemented quickly.

Value 2: The path to shared prosperity

A. Yes I would be happy to review any educational program to ensure that Edmonton's are receiving the best education possible.

B. Equality in our communities is something we should all be striving for. Helping everybody to understand the equality equals more.

Value 3: truth and reconciliation

A. Yes I'd be happy to sit down with the truth and reconciliation research/action team to discuss A positive way integrating positive calls to action into our communities

Value 4: A just transition for workers

A. Providing much needed assistance. And workforce increased education or reeducation for an entirely new industry.

B. I would be happy to have a meeting with the GEA. To help come up with solutions to help keep jobs in Edmonton for Edmontonians.

Value 5: Community mental health

A. Community mental health awareness needs to be brought into our communities in a way that helps everyone.

B. Yes I'd be willing to review any mental health awareness programs. That could be easily implemented and understood.

Sincerely
Scott Hayes
Candidate for city Council

780-904-7003
scott\_hayes@me.com

