

Floreciente Community Meeting Summary Notes October 4th, 2018

1. Introductions and Floreciente Association Board Updates

- Thank you to everyone that participated in the East Moline Hispanic Heritage Parade including the Floreciente Association and Palomares.
- Congratulations to Habitat for Humanity and new Floreciente neighbors on the groundbreaking of their newest home. The newest home will be the 114th home in the Quad Cities, the 17th home in the City of Moline and the 9th home in Floreciente Neighborhood.

2. Community Highlight

- Every month, Floreciente celebrates one individual or business in the community with Neighbor of the Month. For the month of October, Lidia Guzman, received this month's certificate and gift.
- If you would like to nominate the next Neighbor of the Month or are interested in joining the FA board, contact Co-chairs Irma Cruz 309.972.0122 and Josie Lopez 309.779.8880.

3. City of Moline – Parks and Rec Department Presentation - Rodd Schick, Municipal Services General Manager

- Starting on Monday, October 15, residents from Moline will receive new recycle bins. The new bins are 95 gallons to allow more room including glass and aspect containers. If residents feel that bins are too big for their household, please make a request to the City of Moline Parks and Rec Department for an old bin.
  - Friendly reminder to wash all containers and remove caps prior to recycling.
