

July 1, 2016

Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to be among the many conservatives who are supporting Grant Starrett for the United States House of Representatives for Tennessee's 4th Congressional District.

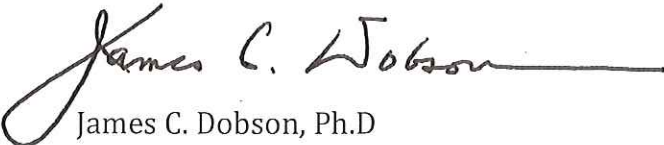

I became acquainted with Grant through his conservative activism and his commitment to family values. His dedication is evident, from having founded the Conservative Society at Stanford to working for Senator Jim DeMint (R-SC).

For years, I've prayed for leaders who will help America return to its Judeo-Christian foundation. Grant is a key part of the next generation of conservative leaders who will protect life from conception and uphold our values.

Simply put: in the 4th Congressional District of Tennessee, Grant is the best man for the job. In fact National Review has called his opponent, Scott DesJarlais, "America's Worst Congressman."

Speaking as a private individual and not on behalf of the organization I represent, I am pleased to endorse Grant Starrett for U.S. Congress.

Yours truly,

James C. Dobson, Ph.D