

Q: What are the three biggest challenges faced by your district?

Grant: Education, economic development and justice inequality

Q: What are the three biggest opportunities in your district?

Grant: Collaboration with Shorewood and Milwaukee residents, business development

Q: What are the best short- and long-term policies to improve Wisconsin's economic outlook?

Grant: "Shovel ready" jobs, tax reform and designed education to prepare for new industry such as the fresh water industry.

Q: Do you favor an increase in the minimum wage and/or establishing a living wage for public sector workers and contractors in Wisconsin?

Y Grant: es

Q: Do you favor expansion of the school choice program in Wisconsin?

Grant: No

Q: What is your position on gun control versus the right to gun ownership?

Grant: I believe that any law abiding citizen should have the right to purchase a fire arm pending they receive specialized training and pass a background check.

Q: What is your position on requiring voters to show a photo ID?

Grant: Voting is a right not a privilege.

Q: What is your position on abortion and birth control?

Grant: These options should be available and accessible to those in need.

Q: What actions should the governor, attorney general, and legislature take on gay marriage and other LGBT rights in response to recent court decisions?

Grant: I believe in equal rights for all. The legislature should grant the right for gay marriage.

Q: What changes, if any, would you advocate regarding mental health, suicide prevention, and nonviolent crime?

Grant: Person-centered, trauma-informed and cultural sensitivity training needs to be provided for all first responders to properly assess situations and identify best resources.

Q: What is your position on Act 10 (prohibition of collective bargaining by public-sector unions)?

Grant: Repel

Q: What tax reform, if any, would you advocate?

Grant: I believe looking at the probability of the decreasing the income tax and increasing the sales tax.

Q: Do you support retaining the county executive governance model for Milwaukee County or should the county be allowed to move to a county administrator model?

I believe that we should retain the county executive governance model for Milwaukee.

Q: Should Wisconsin accept federal funding for Medicaid/Badgercare?

Grant: Yes

Q: What policies, if any, would you advocate to address the rate of incarceration in the state, particularly among African American males?

Grant: Decriminalize marijuana