

Dickson Survey - Conversation Guide v.6

INTRO: Hello, my name's _____ and I'm a volunteer with GetUp. How's it going today?

I'm volunteering tonight to try and find out what issues people are most concerned about in their local area.

(1) Would you mind me asking which issue concerns you most, either in your local community or the country as a whole?

(FAQs) Who is GetUp? We're a national community group which campaigns against corruption and corporate control of society as well as climate change and human rights

How did you get my number? We purchased access to numbers from a commercial database so we could speak to people in your electorate.

[If they have further concerns]: If you have further questions or concerns, you can email us at privacy@getup.org.au

(they won't answer):

OK, that's fine, all the best, thanks for your time. (record not interested)

(they answer):

2. Health care
3. Infrastructure
4. Education
5. Cost of living
6. Climate change
7. Reducing immigration
8. Corporate tax
9. Other

(If they're having difficulty answering, you can prompt with the above)

Great thanks, (listen, reflect back, build rapport)

(2) Other people have been mentioning these issues to us - can I ask which one of these matters to you the most?

2. Corporate tax-dodging
3. Big donations in politics
4. Pressures of unemployment or underemployment
5. Underfunded schools and education
6. Underfunded healthcare system
7. None

What change would you like to see on this issue?

3. No
4. Unsure
5. Didn't vote
6. Can't vote

(4) Can I ask how likely are you to change your vote next time?

2. Very likely
3. Likely
4. Unsure
5. Unlikely
6. Very unlikely

(5) I know it's a personal question, so no worries if you'd prefer not to answer, but I'm interested in finding out who you voted for at the last federal election?

2. Labor Party
3. Liberal National Party
4. The Greens
5. Liberal Democrats
6. Independent
7. One Nation
8. Other
