March 20, 2018

Agenda Item #1: Upcoming Events

March 29: Happy Hour at Midnight Sun and Visibility for Rafael Mandleman. Mobilization from 5-6pm and drinking afterwards.

March 31: Mark Leno mobilization at the old Pottery Barn at Castro and Market, beginning at 10am.

April 21: Mobilization for Jane Kim. Details TBD.

May 5: GOTV Weekend.

Agenda Item #2: Harvey Milk Terminal at SFO, by Carolyn Goossen.

The issue will be heard at the Budget Committee on Thursday March 22 at Room 250 at 10:30 am. Members should come, speak, and show support prior to it going to the full Board of Supervisors. Unfortunately, the Airport Commission has been against the proposal.

Agenda Item #3: PAC Report

Saturday's PAC endorsement meeting was successful. Tom Temprano discussed today's endorsement ballot. Voting will remain open until 9pm, and the results will be announced sometime tonight.

Agenda Item #4: New Business

There will be a symposium at La Pena in Berkeley for TPS (temporary protected status) on Shattuck, near the Ashby BART.

The Women's Building is hiring for a community organizing position against sexual assault.

Show your support for the 6th Street hotel conversion at City Hall on Thursday, prior to the hearing on the Milk Terminal naming.

There are concerns with Equality California's endorsement of Mark Leno and a potential IE that could attack one of our other endorsed candidates, specifically Jane Kim. Carolina Morales said she and Honey are already reaching out to them. Tom Temprano will add to the PAC agenda an update club on this conversation with Equality California.

Salsa Event at El Rio on March 25 from 3pm to 8pm will serve as a fundraiser for the Elder LGBTQ Conference.

Next Wednesday will be a GLBT History Museum event, 7-9pm.
