

Megan Johnson
for
Clinton Town Council

Megan Johnson is a licensed clinical social worker who is the Executive Director of the Hunterdon Drug Awareness Program, a Flemington-based nonprofit organization, which provides substance abuse and mental health education, prevention and treatment services. Prior to her position in Flemington Megan was a clinical consultant to the State of New Jersey Department of Children and Families. Prior to her work with the State of New Jersey, Megan was the Vice President of Behavioral Health for a statewide non-profit working with developmentally disabled adults and children.

Megan was born and raised in New Jersey and has been a resident of Hunterdon County for the past seventeen years. She currently resides in the Town of Clinton with her husband and daughters.

Megan is a Councilwoman for the Town of Clinton. Megan has served in the Recreation Commission helping bring community together and adding fun activities to the town. Megan is currently spearheading the revitalization of the town playground, looking to bring interactive inclusive activities to the park.

Megan is a solution oriented leader, who is focused on engaging in civic outreach, community building, and creating positive outcomes. Megan brings leadership and management skills, past budget management and responsibility, and has strong connections within the community, with a passion to make the county safe for its residents.

Megan has a master's degree in social work from Rutgers University after receiving a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from the University of Delaware.