

Harris County Republican Party

Internship Application

JOB DESCRIPTION

Do you want to get your start in politics? Do you want to work for the party organization and gain valuable skills to help your resume and your future in the political world?

No experience is necessary. An interest in politics, a good work ethic, dedication and willingness to listen and learn and work hard are important for the success of each intern. Each internship per semester is a total of 100 hours. We will work to accommodate schedules around work and school. Gain valuable experience in campaign strategy, block walking, phone banking, social media, and more.
