

STRETCH YOUR BRAIN!

This optical illusion was first created in 1861. Look at the two thick vertical lines. Do they look straight or curved to you? Hold a ruler up to the screen and you will see that they are indeed straight.

Let's do something different. Look at the picture below. As a family, make up a story that this picture could support. Let everyone in your family be a part of the storytelling!

