

Hearst Elementary

We are learning about perseverance. Perseverance means to never give up and keep trying to do your best. Our class did a chilly challenge. We had to try to get a penny out of an ice cube by melting it. We used our breath. We rubbed it in our hands. It was hard because the ice cube was cold. We set it down and kept trying to melt it. Finally we got the penny out. It was so cool!

— Ms. Boyle's first-grade class