Hemswell Cliff Parish Council Scheme of Delegation

Background

In many circumstances a local authority may arrange to delegate or have its functions carried out by a committee, joint committee, another local authority or an officer (Local Government Act 1972, s101). A committee can in turn arrange for functions to be carried out by a sub-committee.

Parish councils delegate powers to committees to provide more efficient, less time consuming and more satisfactory decision making. All decisions to discharge the functions of a parish council must be taken at a meeting of the council. Functions can also be delegated to a clerk which should reflect the duties they undertake and be made clear in their job description and written statement. Clerks commonly have delegated functions relating to office administration, for instance, managing correspondence and purchasing consumables.

Council Functions

Certain functions cannot be delegated and are therefore reserved to the full Council, although an appropriate committee may make recommendations thereon for the Council's consideration:

- Regulation of Council finances – includes setting the precept and approval of the Council's budget.
- Approval of the Annual Accounts, completion of the Annual Return (including the Governance Statement).
- The making, amending or revoking of Standing Orders, Financial Regulations and Terms of Reference.
- Adoption or revision of the Council's Code of Conduct.
- Confirmation (by resolution) that the Council has satisfied the statutory criteria to exercise the General Power of Competence.
- Matters of principle or policy.
- Nomination or appointment of representatives of the Council to outside bodies.
- Nomination or appointment of representatives of the Council at any inquiry on matters affecting the Parish, excluding those matters specific to a committee.
- The making, amending or revoking of bye-laws.
- Agreement to write off bad debts.
- Approval of purchase, acquisition by other means, sale, lease or disposal of tangible moveable property.
- Approval of purchase, acquisition by other means, lease, sale or disposal of real property (interests in land).

- Fixing the number of Committees, and the names and number of Members appointed to each Committee determining the functions and terms of reference of Committees and Sub- Committees.
- All other matters which must, by law, be reserved to the Full Council.

Delegations to the Proper Officer (Clerk)

The Clerk to the Council shall be the Proper Officer and carry out the functions of the Proper Officer set out in the Local Government Act 1972, other legislation, the job description and written statement. Delegations to Committees

The matters listed below are delegated to the Council's committees or sub-committees. They must be exercised in accordance with the law, the Council's Standing Orders and Financial Regulations. The Council's committees are for the most part delegated to fact finding, quote gathering, investigating options and making recommendations to the Parish Council. No committee is able to control or regulate Council finances.

All Committees are authorised to:

- Elect a chairman from within the membership of that Committee.
- Approve the Minutes of the last meeting of the Committee.
- Undertake the work described in their Terms of Reference.
- Make recommendations to the Council.
- Make recommendations on the budget requirement for the Committee for the coming Financial Year.
