

HISTORY SLAM

HISTORY WEEK 2018

Presented by Museums Victoria, Professional
Historians Association (Victoria)
and History Council of Victoria.
With special guest speaker and MC,
Mama Alto.

SUNDAY 14 OCTOBER
3.00-4.30PM
MELBOURNE MUSEUM
MUSEUM THEATRE

Join Mama Alto in the CONTESTED HISTORIES SLAM.

Mama Alto is a gender transcendent diva, cabaret artiste, jazz singer and community activist. She is a non-binary trans femme person of colour who works with the radical potential of storytelling, strength in softness and power in vulnerability. And she's bringing all this to our History Slam.

Slammers are invited to present complex, uncomfortable, exhilarating provocations in three minutes or less.

This is one event you want to be part of.

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST FROM SLAMMERS ARE NOW INVITED.

Who can take part?

Affiliated members of PHA (Vic), HCV and Museum Victoria who are historians, storytellers and history keepers.

How are presenters selected?

Potential Slammers are asked to submit a short description of their proposed topic. From the submissions, we'll ask a shortlist to tell us more about their slam idea. We are looking for people to demonstrate a great story, passion for their subject and an engaging style.

How do you get involved?

Start by sending an expression of interest: including your name; email; mobile; description of your proposed topic.

Submissions due by 31 July 2018.
