Introduction

The People's Guide gives practical information about how to get food, money, housing, health care and other help from government programs and community services if you live in Los Angeles County and need help in hard times. You do not have to read the entire book, just find the topic you need in the table of contents. However, people who are eligible for one kind of help often qualify for other programs as well, so read the entire booklet.

The People's Guide also gives advice on what to do if you are treated unfairly or do not receive what you are entitled to by law.

Lately, massive government budget cuts have meant less help for low income families, seniors, and homeless people. There are other problems with obtaining assistance: rumors and false information that discourage eligible people from even trying to get help their family desperately needs, people not knowing what the application steps are, language barriers, people being made to feel embarrassed for asking for needed help.

The People's Guide is dedicated to helping all people overcome barriers when they try to get help. Every person has the right to enough food, housing, and health care. You help when you share this information with other people who need help.

There is another important way to help. In Sacramento, Washington DC and in County and local governments, the programs and services described in the People's Guide are always being debated. Politicians often want to use money for other things than health, welfare and social services. But when the rich get too much richer and the poor get too much poorer, the gap has very bad effects on the whole society.

You can help close that gap. You don’t have to be an expert. Simply let those in authority know how a budget cut affects you or your neighbors.

Hunger Action Los Angeles and our members struggle for policies that save and improve the safety net.

In 2018, the President and Congress are discussing even more huge budget cuts that would greatly reduce cash and food assistance, our rights to health care, workers' rights, immigrant rights, and our right to a clean environment.

Your voices are needed in those debates. Tell politicians how the programs help or don't help and what your problems are. Government officials need to be reminded of the tragic crises and pain that happen in people's lives when they can't get food, housing, or health care.

CalWORKs (California Work, Opportunity and Responsibility to Kids) is California’s welfare program for people who have children under 19 years old. It provides monthly financial assistance for low income families. Most adults can only get CalWORKs for 48 months in a lifetime, and, unless exempt, will be required to work or go to training in order to receive the cash assistance. If you get CalWORKs you may also be eligible to Medi-Cal for health care and CalFresh to help you buy food.

Children age 18 and under and the adult relatives who care for them can get cash aid. Both one-parent and two-parent families can get cash aid. In two-parent families, one of the parents must be disabled or have worked less than 100 hours in the last four weeks before applying for cash aid.

How Do I Apply?

You apply for CalWORKs at the nearest DPSS (Department of Public Social Services) office. (see page 70 Welfare Offices.)

You can also apply online through YourBenefitsNow! website at: www.dpssbenefits.lacounty.gov

YourBenefitsNow! is a website for Los Angeles County residents to apply for and to view their benefits online. If you have an emergency, do not apply online.

When you apply, you have a right to be treated with courtesy and without discrimination for any reason. The DPSS workers will try to get you all the cash aid, food aid and other benefits for which you are eligible.

At times, eligible people who urgently need the aid don’t get correct information, or don’t understand or get discouraged. If that is happening to you, be strong. Insist on talking to a supervisor, or the supervisor’s manager. Seek out the help of someone who will advocate for you. Insist on speaking to someone fluent in your language (DPSS must provide a free interpreter) or call a Legal Aid office. (see page 65 Hearings and Complaints.)

How Do I Qualify?

To qualify to get CalWORKs, your monthly income must be under the amount shown on the table for your family size. Once you begin getting cash aid, you can make more money and may still get cash assistance from CalWORKs.

Over 10 Add $26 for each extra person.

Money you make from working and unemployment counts as income. SSI payments, most student loans, tax refunds and Earned Income Credit don’t count. If your child is under age 19, your child’s income may not count if the student exemption rules are met. Loans from friends may be counted if there is no repayment agreement on file.

To be qualified your resources must be less than $2,250. But if someone in the family on aid is disabled or 60 years or older, the limit is $3,500. Cash on hand, savings, some cars, and most other property count as resources. A home you live in, personal items like furniture and a computer, tools, and some retirement accounts don’t count.

While on cash aid, you can have a written agreement with DPSS to have a special “restricted” savings account for education, training, starting a business or buying a house, and it will not count. You can have as much as you want in this “restricted” account but you have to make a written agreement with DPSS on a form, and give them the bank account information.

“Transfer of Assets.”

If you give away or sell a property or resource for less than its fair market value while you are on cash aid, you might lose cash aid for one or more months. If you and the DPSS disagree about this, you need to consult with an attorney or legal services office. (pg 68 Good Advice.)

What To Bring When You Apply

When applying for CalWORKs, bring the following documents listed below with you. If you lack some of them, go ahead and apply, and get a list of documents to be brought in later. If you aren’t able to get the verification that is requested, ask the worker to help you.

- Identification with your name and current address on it. This can be a birth certificate, driver’s license, California ID card
- Social Security Number or Card (or proof of application for the cards)
- Proof of income (like check stubs, a W2, or copy of your tax return) and resources (like a bank statement)
- Proof that you live in the county (a document that has your name and an address on it) for each person on the application
- If you lack ID, you can also fill out a form called “PA 853 Affidavit” and swear that you are who you say you are
- Proof of citizenship, alien or immigration status for each person on the application
- Proof of your housing situation (rent receipts, lease agreement, etc.)
- Auto payment papers and registration
- Letters from a doctor if anyone in the household is pregnant, disabled, has a special medical need or has a special diet
- Any papers having to do with marriage, divorce, child support, or other circumstances that apply to your family.

How Do I Qualify?
Rules about Cars

If you're applying for CalWORKs or getting it, you can own cars that are worth under $9,500. That's the "equity value"—the difference between what the car is worth and what you might still owe on it. A car you live in, a car used to go to work, a car used to make money like a gardener's truck, or a car used to transport a physically disabled person in your home doesn't count. Any vehicle for which ownership has been transferred to you as a gift, donation or family transfer, as defined by Department of Motor Vehicles, won't count against your family's maximum resource limit, but you must show the paperwork to prove it. For other cars, anything over the $9,500 will count toward your $2,250 resource limit.

What Can I Get?

CalWORKs divides people who get cash aid into "exempt" and "non exempt" recipients. You are considered "exempt" if you are getting disability payments such as In-Home Supportive Services, SSI, SSP, State Disability Insurance, SSDI, Temporary Workers'Comp and Temporary Disability Indemnity.

The chart below shows the "Maximum Aid Payment" for these two groups. This maximum grant is cut dollar for dollar by income based on a disability is not counted money. Earned income, wages from work, or (like on a bank account), or unemployment social security survivor's benefits, interest maximum grant is cut dollar for dollar by a medical condition. Breast-feeding you must have less than $100 to get Homeless Assistance program. You can get up to $600 each time if you have an eviction notice and appliances because of a fire, disaster, theft or other event beyond your control. You can also get this money for shelter if your home is so damaged or unlivable you can’t stay there and you are not eligible for the Homeless Assistance program. You must have less than $100 to get this money. Non-Recurring Special Needs: You can get up to $600 each time if you have to replace clothing, household items, or utilities, license fees, or childcare expenses. Instead of receiving monthly cash aid you can get a large amount of money called a “diversion payment” to help you get or keep a job. To get it, you must be apparently eligible for CalWORKs, have a job or immediate job opportunity, and have an unexpected one-time need. For example, you could pay for car repairs or insurance, work tools or clothing, rent or utilities, license fees, or childcare expenses. If you get a diversion payment you may also get Medi-Cal, Cal-Fresh and

1. Think About Time Limits Before You Take Cash Aid

You may not want to get cash aid if you have other income. Any month you get cash aid counts against the adult's 48-month time limit, even if you are entitled only to a few dollars a month. You can get Medi-Cal, Cal-Fresh and child care money even when you do not get cash aid. Is the cash aid you will get worth “using up” a month of eligibility? Should you “save” the month in case you need it more at a later time in your life? Call legal services to discuss your options. Remember, children do not have a 48 month time limit.

2. What Else Is Available?

When you are eligible for CalWORKs, you may also qualify for these programs:

- Medi-Cal to pay for health care
- CalFresh (food stamps) in most cases
- Immediate Need: an advance of up to $200 of your CalWORKs grant, which is provided 24 hours from the date of the request, or your whole CalWORKs grant within 3 days if you have an eviction notice
- Homeless and Housing Assistance including eviction prevention, temporary shelter, move-in costs, rent subsidy, and help with cost of moving (see pages 12 and 13 for several programs offered.)
- Non-Recurring Special Needs: You can get up to $600 each time if you have to replace clothing, household items, and appliances because of a fire, disaster, theft or other event beyond your control. You can also get this money for shelter if your home is so damaged or unlivable you can’t stay there and you are not eligible for the Homeless Assistance program. You must have less than $100 to get this money.
- Special Needs: You can get an extra $9 to $15 if you have special needs such as higher food costs because of a necessary special diet, or higher transportation or utility costs due to a medical condition. Breast-feeding mothers can add $15 to their grant to help with their dietary needs. Tell your worker if you have these special needs.

- Child Support: You can get $50 extra each month if the other parent pays at least $50 of child support to the County's Department of Child Support Services on time. The Department should give you a list that shows when the other parent paid (an “accounting”). Check it to make sure you got $50 extra cash aid for every month the other parent paid on time. To get an accounting call (866) 901-3212.

3. Money for Pregnant Women

If you are pregnant, aged 19 or over, and have no other children on CalWORKs, you may get a grant for one person after reaching the beginning of the second trimester of pregnancy plus an additional $47 (Pregnant Special Need.) You get this money from the time your pregnancy is verified until the baby is born. Here are some other rules for the $47:

- Pregnant teens 18 or younger, who have graduated from high school or equivalent and with no other children can get cash aid from the date of application with proof of pregnancy, but must participate in Welfare to work, (or in the Cal Learn Program if they have not graduated from high school.)
- If there are no other children, the father cannot get CalWORKs until the child is born, but he can get General Relief for himself, if eligible (see pg 27).
- If you are undocumented, or receive SSI, and have no other children on CalWORKs, you must wait until the child is born to get benefits for the baby. Bring in proof of the baby’s birth such as hospital records or birth certificate.

4. Diversion Payments

Instead of receiving monthly cash aid you can apply for a large amount of money called a “diversion payment” to help you get or keep a job. To get it, you must be apparently eligible for CalWORKs, have a job or immediate job opportunity, and have an unexpected one-time need. For example, you could pay for car repairs or insurance, work tools or clothing, rent or utilities, license fees, or childcare expenses. If you get a diversion payment you may also get Medi-Cal, Cal-Fresh and

The People’s Guide 2018
supportive services. (see page 9 ‘Services To Help You.’)

The usual payment is up to the grant amount for your family size for three months or $2,000, whichever is larger. For a “compelling need,” you can get up to $4,000 or the maximum grant amount for 6 months, whichever is greater. The diversion payment counts as months of cash against the 48 month life-time limit (amount of payment divided by monthly grant=months used up) After you get a diversion payment, you can still get cash aid if you need it. But if you reapply for CalWORKs within the time period that the Diversion covers, the DPSS must recollect the payment by either counting the diversion months against your 48 month life time limit, or decreasing your monthly payment by 10%.

Diversion payments must be paid to you within 5 days after the application for a non-urgent need, or 3 days in an emergency. Starting a new job the next day is an example of an emergency.

5. Foster Care
(Someone Else’s Children)

If you are caring for someone else’s children, the child or children may qualify for Foster Care or Approved Relative Caregiver payments even if you are related to the children. Foster Care and Approved Relative Caregiver payments are higher than CalWORKs cash aid. (see page 22 Foster Care.) If a relative’s children live with you but do not get Foster Care or Approved Relative Caregiver payments, you should be able to get cash aid for them.

6. Domestic Violence

If you are a victim of domestic violence, or suffering effects of past domestic violence tell the worker right away, because there are specially trained workers available to assist you with the problems you or your children may have. Also, you may be excused from GAIN or have other eligibility rules waived.

Let DPSS know if you need emergency or homeless assistance. DPSS staff must act quickly to help you.

7. Special Help for the Disabled

If you have a physical or mental disability that makes it hard for you to go through the regular application process, DPSS must give you special help. This might include:

8. Fingerprints

As of July 1, 2018, fingerprints are no longer required in order to receive CalWORKs benefits. Already, no fingerprints are required for non-needy caretaker relatives caring for related foster children placed by Department of Children and Family Services and completing forms CW 2218 and 2219.

9. Next Steps

Keep in touch with your DPSS eligibility worker and write down his or her name, phone number, and phone hours. If you are asked to mail additional papers to the DPSS, ask the worker for a stamped envelope addressed to him or her.

If you take in papers, get a receipt. Keep your own copy of all the paperwork. If you need help and your worker is not available, the duty worker or supervisor must help you. You can also call the Help Line for your DPSS office. (see page 70)

Within 45 days of when you turn in your application, you must either receive your first check, or a notice that you have been denied aid. If the DPSS denies your aid, they must send you a letter explaining the reason. Do not sign a “withdrawal” of your application unless you understand and agree with the written reason you are given.

10. Electronic Benefits Transfer “EBT” Card

DPSS will give you an EBT “electronic benefits transfer card” (Golden State ADVANTAGE) to use at banks, ATM machines and stores. If you are also getting CalFresh (food stamps), those benefits are accessed using the same card.

For CalWORKs, if the last digit of your case number is 1 to 3, the money goes on your card the first day of the month; 4 to 7, the second day of the month; and 8 to 0, the third day of the month. There is no charge for the first four “swipes” of the card each month, after that there is a $0.85 charge for each use. Some ATM machines will charge a fee of $1 or more to use the card.

MoneyPass locations do not charge a fee. Ask your worker for a list of banks and ATMs near you that will not charge you a fee or go to http://ebtnearme.org or www.moneypass.com for a list of surcharge free ATMs near you. You can also go to www.ebt.ca.gov for locations of ATMs.

GAIN participants may choose to have their payments for transportation issued through their EBT card or through a mailed check.

Call (877) 328-9677 right away if the card is stolen, lost, or destroyed. You will not be charged for stolen aid after reporting the loss.

What Are The Requirements?

1. Reporting Every Six Months

Every six months you must report changes in income, property or the number of people in your household. You will also report once a year on a Semi-Annual Eligibility Income Report (SAR 7). It says “Eligibility Status Report” on the top of the form. Also once a year, you will fill out what is called a “redetermination.” DPSS will mail you a SAR 7 report form. The form also asks you to report any changes you expect in the next six months.

You must turn in the SAR-7 even if there is no change to report. If you don’t get the SAR-7 in the mail go to DPSS to get another form and fill it out.

The completed, signed form is due back to DPSS on the fifth day of the last month of the six month period.

There are some things that need to be reported to the county before your next income report is due. This is called “mandatory mid-period reporting.” You must report these things within 10 days:

• Address changes
• Fleeing felons
• Parole or probation violations,
• and if your income goes over the “Income Reporting Threshold (“IRT”).”

The IRT is the amount of income that would reduce your aid or make your household ineligible for aid. DPSS will give you a form telling you your IRT limit. DPSS counts the family’s earned and unearned income to see if you are at this limit. For example a family of three (non-exempt) has an IRT of $1,654.00 per month. The family doesn’t have to report any change in income until the next report is due, unless it adds up to more than $1,654.00.
You can either drop your SAR-7 off at the DPSS office, and get a dated receipt to prove that you turned it in on time; or you can mail it in the postage-paid envelope. You can also safely submit your SAR 7 online through YourBenefitsNow! You can upload copies of pay stubs, bills, and receipts, and get a receipt right after you submit your report online.

If you mail in your SAR-7, be sure to attach copies of pay stubs, bills and receipts to prove your information. It is wise to keep a copy of every piece of paper you give to DPSS. If the SAR-7 you turn in is incomplete, DPSS treats it as if it was not turned in at all.

If you do not turn in a SAR-7 report by the eleventh day of the reporting month, you will get a notice that your cash aid will stop. DPSS must also try to phone you to let you know they don’t have the SAR-7.

If you get a notice that you are being terminated (your aid stopped) for not filling out a SAR-7, call your worker, go to the DPSS immediately, and fill out a new SAR-7 (or take in your receipt if you already submitted the SAR-7).

If you submit a complete SAR-7 within the month following the discontinuance, you will not have to reapply but your eligibility and benefits will be determined by the date you turn in a complete SAR-7 unless you had a good reason (good cause).

If you can show “good cause” your cash benefits will be restored back to the beginning of the month. Good cause for turning the SAR-7 in late includes:
- errors by DPSS,
- a physical or mental condition that prevented you from being on time,
- or not being able to provide all the necessary information.

If you haven’t been able to work it out or haven’t heard from your worker, be sure to file for a fair hearing before the date your check is supposed to stop. This way you will not lose your cash aid (see pg. 65).

When you first apply, the amount of cash aid you get depends on how much your other income is at that time. What you report on your application will be used to determine what you get the next few months until your first SAR-7 is turned in. If your income goes down, report it right away, so your cash aid will go up. You can do this by calling your worker. DPSS may ask you for proof that it has dropped.

You won’t get aid if you’re in jail or out of the state for 30 days, but you should still report it, or they will charge you with an overpayment.

2. Rules for Families In Which Only Children Get Money

In some CalWORKs families, the children are receiving money but the adults are not. These are called “child only cases.” If this is the case, you don’t have to complete any written mid-period/mid-year reports, such as the SAR 7. You will still have to fill a written redetermination once a year. You may still have to complete reports every six months for CalFresh (food stamps.)

The following are CalWORKs cases that are considered “child only” cases:
- All adults that have reached the CalWORKs 48-month time limit;
- The adult(s) is not eligible because of a fleeing felon status, or has been found by a court to be in violation of probation or parole;
- The adult(s) is not eligible for CalWORKs due to immigration status;
- The adult(s) is not eligible because of failure to provide a Social Security Number;
- The adult(s) is a CalWORKs non-needy relative (did not request CalWORKs assistance);
- The adult(s) is receiving Supplemental Security Income; or
- The adult(s) is CalWORKs sanctioned due to refusal to assign child/spousal support rights.

If there is no adult receiving money because he/she chooses not to participate in welfare-to-work requirements, the case is not a “child only” case.

There are some things that need to be reported to the county for child only cases:
- When income exceeds the Income Reporting Threshold (IRT)
- Address changes
- Fleeing felon status
- Violation of conditions of parole
- Changes in family composition

3. Report All Your Income And Gifts

You should be careful to report all income you get or changes in your family. DPSS will check bank, employer, and tax records to check your income, and accepts tips of suspected “welfare fraud” from the public.

There are serious penalties for individuals who either are convicted of fraud in court or found to have committed fraud at an administrative hearing. You may have to pay penalties and be disqualified from CalWORKs for six months, twelve months, or longer, depending on the seriousness of the fraud. You can also be arrested and face jail time.

4. Cooperate with Child Support Collection

Unless it could put you or your children in danger to do so, parents on cash aid must help (“cooperate with”) the Child Support Agency (“CSA”) to collect child support from any absent parent. You must provide information you have about the other parent such as name, an address or social security number, and/or place of employment.

The County keeps most of the child support it collects, up to the amount of the family’s cash aid. You will get your CalWORKs grant plus an extra $50 per month for every month the other parent pays on time. Every quarter the CSA should give you an accounting of the child support they collected. Call (866) 901-3212 to ask for this information. Parents will lose their share of cash aid if they refuse to sign over the child support to the county.

If you sign over your child support, but the Child Support Agency says you are not cooperating with them, your family’s aid can be cut 25%.

Many people have good cause for not cooperating. Good cause includes:
- You don’t know where the absent parent is, or have no other information about the other parent
- You are afraid of the absent parent, you or your children may be in danger, or you are a victim of domestic violence.
- Rape or incest has occurred
- You are planning to place the child for adoption.

If your worker at DPSS agrees that you have good cause, you will not have your cash aid cut. If you get a notice in writing that you are “not cooperating” and you think you have a good reason not to, and cannot resolve the issue by talking with your worker, ask for a fair hearing. (See Page 65 Hearings And Complaints.)
5. Get Immunizations ("Shots") For Your Children

When you apply for CalWORKs or at your annual redetermination, you must show proof that your children under age 6 have had their shots. You have 30 days from the approval of your Medi-Cal, if applying for CalWORKs and Medi-Cal; or 45 days from the approval of CalWORKs and already receiving Medi-Cal benefits. If you do not prove your children are immunized and do not have good cause (for example, lack of access, you are a victim of domestic abuse, or a sworn statement that immunization is against your religious or other beliefs), all cash aid to adults will be cut off until you provide the proof. You can call 211 to find free shots.

6. Children Age 16 to 19 Must Attend School or Participate in Welfare-to-Work

If your child is over 16 and not attending school (reported as “chronic truant” by the School Attendance Review Board), or is not participating in welfare to work activities without good cause, only that child’s cash aid will be cut. The cash grant will be restored when proof is provided to DPSS that the child is attending school regularly or has good cause.

Work Requirements

As a CalWORKs recipient, you are required to participate in "Welfare-to-Work" (WtW) activities in order to stay on cash aid. Participation in WtW is mandatory for all CalWORKs participants unless you are exempt or have a “good cause” for non-participation.

- Exemptions and “good cause” require documentation, verification, and approval of the WtW case manager.
- Exempt participants may volunteer to participate in WtW activities.

The WtW programs in Los Angeles County are called GAIN (“Greater Avenues for Independence”) and REP (Refugee Employment Program). If you have been in the U.S. less than 5 years and have legal immigrant status as a refugee or granted asylum, you are assigned to the Refugee Employment Program (“REP”).

1. Weekly Participation Hours

Currently, the hours of participation are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th># of Adults in Family</th>
<th>Average Weekly Hours of Participation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Single-adult with a child under 6 years old</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Single-adult with no children under 6 years old</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two-parent families (hours may be combined between both parents)</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

2. Getting Excused from GAIN (“Exempt” or “Good Cause”)

You may be eligible to be exempt from GAIN or REP if you are:
- A youth under 16 years old
- A youth from 16 to 18 in school full time
- Caring for a first child under 12 months old, or any later child under 6 months old
- Pregnant, and have medical verification that being pregnant harms your ability to participate or work
- Pregnant, and DPSS decides that work or training is not the right thing to do based on the medical verification
- A full time volunteer in the Volunteer in Service to America (VISTA) program.

Any months exempted for the following reasons do not count against the 48 month CalWORKs time clock:

- Disabled due to a physical or mental reason for 30 days or more
- 60 years or older
- Taking care of an ill or disabled household member, only if DPSS agrees that this prevents you from participating in the program or working.
- Non-parent relative, or caretaker of a child who is a dependent, or a ward of the court, or at risk of being placed in foster care. DPSS must agree that this harms your ability to participate or work.
- One time only, you can use the exemption of caring for a child from newborn to 24 months old.

If you do not qualify for an exemption, you may have good cause that excuses you from doing something GAIN asks you to do. The 48-month time limit is not stopped by good cause (see section on next page on domestic violence for exceptions).
Good cause includes:
- Not getting supportive services you need (such as child care and transportation) to work or go to a GAIN or REP activity
- Child sick at home from school
- No transportation (for example your car broke down)
- You are homeless

Domestic Violence Waiver:
DPSS can waive some of the CalWORKs rules for victims of domestic violence. For example they can stop the 48 month time clock, excuse you from going to GAIN, or stop child support collections. The domestic violence incident can be something that happened in the past or in the present.

Exempt people can volunteer and get help. You do not have to participate in GAIN or REP if you are excused or exempt. But you may volunteer to participate. As an exempt volunteer, you do not have to do the full 20 hours each week, but you are subject to other requirements of GAIN participants. You can do as many or as few hours as you are able. DPSS must also pay you for services, like child care and money for transportation, tools, and books.

3. Learning Disabilities

All GAIN participants must be offered a learning disability (LD) screening. You can say you do not want the LD screening, but if you choose to go, you can ask for LD screening and evaluation anytime. If the evaluation shows you have a learning disability, your welfare-to-work plan must have activities that help you deal with your learning disability, such as tutoring or extra study time. DPSS must decide whether job search will be useful for you, or if your time limits should be extended.

If you have already been to assessment, went through GAIN or REP and failed to make satisfactory progress, you may have the clock stopped on your time limits and changes must be made in your plan with special help offered to you.

Services To Help You

In addition to cash aid you get from CalWORKs, if you participate in GAIN or REP, you can get help with transportation and work-related expenses both before and after you reach the CalWORKs 48-month time limit. If you are excused from participating in GAIN but wish to volunteer or are currently attending school, you might be eligible to get work-related and transportation services.

Services you may be eligible for are:
- Child care (see pg. 20)
- Transportation: includes bus fare, mileage payment, and payment for alternative methods of transportation such as shuttle, vanpool, carpool, MetroLink, and taxi.

How transportation funds are determined:
To find out the right mode of transportation, your GAIN/REP worker must determine the lowest cost to the county, while finding the best combination of transportation modes that will keep the round trip travel time less than two hours using public transportation. If it takes you more than two hours round trip by public transportation to travel from your home to your WtW activity, including walking time, then DPSS can pay you mileage. The current rate is $.51 per mile for the first 500 miles per month, and 15¢ per mile for mileage over 500 miles per month. The mileage rate, however, can change from time to time. Parking expenses can be reimbursed when the parking expense is necessary to allow you to attend a WtW activity and/or employment.

Transportation for Children:
Transportation for children under 13 years of age is provided when it is necessary and will help the participant continue in their WtW activity, and/or obtain or retain employment even if they are not being aided but remain in the household.

A child over 13 years of age is eligible when:
- The parents are receiving specialized supportive services (mental health, domestic violence, substance use disorder)
- A child is not able to provide self-care.

Ancillary Supportive Services include help to pay for tools, books, supplies, fees, clothing, uniforms, car seat/booster, tattoo removal services, and other necessary costs specifically required to participate in an approved WtW activity or to accept a job or keep a job.

In addition, Ancillary Supportive Services are extended to participants who need reasonable accommodations due to a disability which limits their ability to participate in his/her approved WtW activity and/or employment.

Tuition and school fees in the nature of tuition are not considered ancillary expenses.

To request Ancillary/Work-Related Expenses you must provide written verification from your provider or employer. If written verification is not available, your worker can assist by contacting the provider/employer, with your authorization, to obtain verification.

You must provide receipts within 10 days from the date the payment was issued.

Domestic Violence Counseling and Protection:
Survivors of domestic violence can get special help through programs including emergency housing and safety planning, counseling, parenting classes, and legal services that provide help with restraining orders and divorces. You do not need a police report or other documents. Everything you tell the DPSS eligibility worker or GAIN worker will be kept secret to the extent of the law.

Mental Health Services:
You should receive a mental health screening during orientation.

Also, a DPSS worker can suggest to you that you go to a mental health evaluation if they think you have a mental health barrier to finding or keeping a job. You can also ask for a mental health evaluation anytime by calling your eligibility worker or GAIN worker.

After the evaluation, you can be referred to a mental health provider for treatment. The GAIN worker must develop your welfare-to-work plan based on what your treatment provider recommends.

You have the right to refuse any mental health treatment, but if you do, you can’t use mental health problems as a reason to not work or not participate in GAIN or REP.

Substance Use Disorder Services:
You can ask for help with substance use disorder treatment at any time by calling your eligibility worker or GAIN worker. If you find it difficult to obtain or keep a job because of problems with alcohol or drugs, the DPSS worker can refer you to a substance use disorder clinical assessment. You may receive help through residential or day treatment: individual, group or family counseling; rehabilitation services: and health care information and referrals. You can continue getting these services as part of your Welfare-to-Work requirements while receiving cash aid.
You can go to a substance use disorder program as the welfare to work activity. You have the right to refuse any substance use disorder treatment program as the welfare-to-work activity; however, if you do not go to a treatment program, you cannot use substance use disorder as a reason to not work or not participate in GAIN or REP.

Homeless Assistance, Moving Assistance, Rental Assistance, and Housing Relocation: see pages 12 and 13.

GAIN and REP Activities

1. Appraisal

Soon after you apply for CalWORKs, you will receive an appointment letter to go to an Appraisal appointment. This will most likely take longer than one hour. The Online CalWORKs appraisal tool (OCAT) will also be conducted at this time if it has never been completed. You will meet with your GAIN or REP worker in a one-on-one meeting where you will talk to your worker about your work and educational history and what kind of services you need to get back to work. If you have problems due to mental health, substance abuse, or domestic violence, tell your worker at this time so that you can get services immediately.

Tell your worker if you are already enrolled in an education or training program. It might qualify as what they call a Self-Initiated Program. This will let you do the education and training as your welfare-to-work activity instead of going through Job Club and the rest of the GAIN process.

2. Job Club & Job Search

The first day of Job Club is called Orientation. You will get an overview of the GAIN program and help in recognizing the skills you have that will help you get a job.

The first four weeks of GAIN are spent in Job Club and Job Search. Everyone will participate in Job Club unless the welfare department determines that you need to first be referred for help with mental health, substance use disorder, domestic violence, high school diploma, or if for another reason you are exempt from Job Search. You are also exempt if you completed Job Club/Job Search in the last 12 months. You don’t have to do job search if:
- • It would interfere with a full time job or approved training you already have, or
- • You are in the Cal-Learn program or
- • Doing a job search would not help you (example-you need basic English or literacy training first)
- • You are exempt but are requesting to participate as an exempt volunteer

3. Assessment

When unsubsidized employment is not found within the first three weeks of Job Club you will attend Vocational Assessment at mid-week of the fourth week. A Vocational Assessment will help identify your interests and strengths as well as determine if you have any barriers to finding and/or keeping employment. This information will help the Vocational Assessor develop a personalized Employment Plan.

Your personalized Employment Plan will identify the training, subsidized employment, on-the-job training, and other welfare-to-work activities needed to reach your employment goal.

Stand Alone Assessment: Stand Alone Assessment is for participants who, during their appraisal interview or after Job Club are:
- • Employed full or part time
- • In a Self Initiated Program (SIP) and need a second activity
- • In need of a clinical assessment: or
- • Post Employment Career Assessment for participants who are working 20/30/35 hours or more per week and request Post-Employment Services.

4. Your Welfare to Work Plan and Activities

After the assessment you will meet with your Worker, to sign a “welfare to work” plan in which you agree to go to welfare to work activities. The plan must be based on the assessment of your needs and skills. Your plan can include:
- • Counseling
- • education and training at adult schools or community colleges,
- • Subsidized employment
- • ESL, math or GED classes,
- • or other work activities that will help you reach your employment goal.

All WtW participants are required to sign a Welfare-to-Work Plan, including those who are employed full-time.

5. Make Job Training Part of Your Welfare to Work Plan

You can request that your Employment Plan includes any work experience or job skills training offered by DPSS or other private or public agencies. You can request the Transitional Subsidized Employment (TSE) program if you are interested in working. There are TSE services available even if you are homeless. In the TSE Program you are paid county minimum wage to work at a non-profit agency (called Paid Work Experience) or you receive On-the-Job Training at a for-profit business. DPSS, the community colleges, and adult schools may also offer special job training programs for people with limited English-speaking skills.

If earnings from the TSE Program cause your cash aid case to be stopped because you make too much money, you may be eligible to remain in the TSE program for the remainder of the activity to continue to earn wages even if your CalWORKs case is closed. You may also be eligible to continue to receive transportation and child care services. If you voluntarily request to close your CalWORKs case or you fail to provide information on your CalWORKs case as requested by your CalWORKs office, you become ineligible to continue with the TSE Program and will be removed from the activity immediately.

6. If You Don’t Agree On The Employment or your WtW Plan

If you and the assessor can’t agree on the employment plan, you can request an independent “third party assessment” by another agency. DPSS must let you know about the third party assessor when you disagree and must help you with the request. You and DPSS will be bound by what this independent assessor decides. If you disagree with the result of the third party assessment, you may request a fair hearing (see pg.65).

If you still think your welfare to work plan will not work for you, you have these options:
- • Ask for a change within the first three days from the date you signed the plan.
- • If you have already begun an activity, you have 30 days to request a change to another activity. Your worker must grant your request if the other activity is consistent with your plan and likely to lead to employment. You can request for this grace period only once.
7. Self-Initiated Programs (SIP)
For Students

Self-Initiated Programs (SIP) is a college or vocational program you chose and began on your own before your first GAIN appointment (appraisal). If on the date of your GAIN appraisal you have already enrolled in either an undergraduate degree or certificate program for school or training, your education or training may count as your GAIN activity. If you already have a 4-year college degree, you cannot do a SIP unless it is for a teaching credential.

To continue in a SIP you must be making satisfactory progress toward a degree or certificate that leads to employment.

If your approved SIP is interrupted because of a good reason, such as illness, you can go back to that program later, as long as you were in good standing when you left. If your SIP activity weekly hours of participation are less than the number of hours (for example 20, 30 or 35) you are required to participate, you will have to participate in other welfare to work activities to get to the total required number of weekly participation hours.

8. If You Are Working, What’s Next?

Post-Employment Services (PES) is available to employed GAIN/REP participants with an open CalWORKs case during their entire CalWORKs 48-month eligibility if they are meeting the required hours of participation of 20/30/35 hours per week. PES is also available to CalWORKs terminated participants if employed the minimum participation requirements for their case (20/30/35 hours per week) for up to 12 months from their CalWORKs termination date.

PES will help you get information, resources, and tools you need to keep your job, improve career possibilities, and become financially independent while earning a good living before reaching your CalWORKs 48-month time limit.

Types of services offered through PES:
- Career assessment
- Job retention services
- Educational development
- Job skills training
- Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) counseling
- Life skills instruction
- Supportive services for the education/training or WtW activities (childcare, transportation, and ancillary/work-related expenses)
- Rapid re-employment services
- Mentoring
- Mental Health, Domestic Violence, Substance Use Disorder
- PES continued case management
- Referrals to homeless assistance programs and services

To continue receiving PES, you will be required to provide ongoing verification of employment to your case manager.

After CalWORKs case ends: GAIN/REP participants who remain employed (20/30/35 hours per week) can continue receiving PES for up to 12 months from the CalWORKs termination date. PES for former CalWORKs participants include supportive services for the educational/training activity.

To get more information on PES, contact your GAIN or REP case manager as soon as you find employment. or you can call toll free (877) 292-4246.

Transitional CalFresh and Medi-Cal: You can continue to get Medi-Cal and CalFresh (food stamps) when you leave CalWORKs, without having to show that you are eligible for CalFresh, again. You can get these transitional CalFresh benefits for up to 5 months after leaving CalWORKs. If your CalWORKs case did not close or was closed due to an ineligible cause, you cannot get the transitional CalFresh benefits.

Time Limit Rules

Most adults can only receive 48 months (4 years) of cash aid from CalWORKs for their whole life. This does not have to be 48 months in a row. After the adult has been aided 48 months, their part of the grant is cut, but their children can still get aid.

You should apply for an exemption to “stop the clock” for any months which should not have been counted in your 48-month limit, which include the reasons listed in the next column under "Clock Stoppers.". Your request should be in writing, but can be verbal. If all aided adults or relative caregivers in the household permanently fit into one of the groups listed, their clock should not run at all.

DPSS has to send you a written decision within 15 days of the request (unless something happens that is beyond DPSS control). If you disagree with the decision you may request a state fair hearing. DPSS is required to research your available case records before asking you to provide information or documentation which they already have in the files.

Clock Stoppers or Exemptions

In a family with two aided parents, both adults must meet one of the clock stoppers listed here for the month not to count.

- Sanctioned or No Check—Any month you do not get a CalWORKs cash aid payment for yourself including if you are sanctioned that month, or you are caring for an aided child but not aided yourself
- Any month that you have been granted an exemption from participation and the cash aid time limit based on caring for a child who is 0-23 months of age (This exemption is only available once).
- Age 60 or over—Any month the parent or caretaker relative is 60 years or older.
- Disabled—Any month you are sick, disabled, or injured for 30 days or more and it interferes with going to work or GAIN. You may be required to provide a doctor's report. This includes mental and physical illness.
- Domestic Violence—Any month you cannot participate in CalWORKs as a result of domestic abuse. You do not have to currently be in an abuse situation. You also qualify if you are suffering from the effects of past abuse and the effects limit your ability to go to GAIN or work.. You only need to tell your worker (“self-declare”) to qualify; no other proof, not even a police report, is required. Your time will be extended for as long as you continue to suffer from the effects of the abuse or are in danger of more violence.
- Foster Child Placement or Risk of Placement—Any month you are a non-parent relative taking care of a child who is a dependent ward of the court or “at risk of foster care placement” and that responsibility interfered with regular employment or participation in GAIN activities. This can exempt, for example, a grandparent under age 60 who could not both be regularly employed and care for the child.
- Caring For a Sick Family Member—Any month you are caring for an ill or disabled person living in the home and that caretaking interfered with regular employment or participation in GAIN activities.
- Impairment—Not able to go to GAIN or employment because of an “impairment,” for example a learning disability or chronic mental illness. You cannot have broken any GAIN rules to qualify for this, or you must show that you were in GAIN for either six months straight or a total of six months over two years.
The People's Guide 2018

There are No Local Jobs to Accommodate Your Disabilities is an exemption

Child Support Repaid—Any month that your grant is fully repaid by child support collected by the County does not count against you. Ask the County Child Support Division (866) 901-3212 to provide you with an accounting of the amount of child support they have collected on your behalf during the 48-month period. Then ask your GAIN worker or fill out and submit an exemption form to find out how many months of credit you get for the child support that was paid.

Teen Parent—Any month you are a teen parent or pregnant, under age 19, do not yet have a GED or high school diploma, and either participate in or are excused from CalLearn or another teen parent program approved by the DPSS. You can be excused from CalLearn in any month in which you can show the DPSS you do not have necessary childcare or transportation, you are sick, disabled, or expelled and an alternative school program is not available. You can't use CalLearn as a clock-stopper after you get the GED or diploma.

Native American—You are a Native American who lives in “Indian Country,” or on a reservation if 50% or more of the adults there are unemployed.

What Are the Penalties if I Don’t Follow the Rules?

If you don’t follow the GAIN or REP requirements and don’t have a good reason (“good cause,”) DPSS will cut your cash aid. Your children’s cash aid will not be cut. In some cases both parents can have their cash aid cut. DPSS can cut your part of the CalWORKs grant if they can show that you have:

- Failed or refused to participate in your assigned activity
- Failed to make good progress in your assigned activity
- Failed or refused to accept a job
- Failed or refused to keep a job
- Failed to keep the same amount of earnings

DPSS must try to contact you and give you a chance to comply. If you fail to comply, DPSS will send you a “Notice of Action” no sooner than 30 days before the cut in aid will take place. They will give you an appointment within 20 days to discuss the

It is very important for you to go to this meeting or call your worker to explain. You also have the right to ask for a fair hearing if you can’t work it out with your worker.

Your part of the grant will be cut until DPSS agrees that you are complying with the rules.

Your cash aid cannot be cut if you have good cause for refusing to comply.

“Good cause” includes:

- You are homeless
- You are a victim of domestic violence
- You were ill, or caring for a sick member of the family
- Your mental illness prevented you from doing what was asked of you
- You need child care for a child 12 years or younger and none is available
- Transportation is not available to your job or GAIN activity
- There was discrimination at the job or training offered in terms of age, sex, race, religion, national origin, or physical or mental disability
- The job or job offer exceeded the daily or weekly hours of work customary for that job
- You can only get to the activity by walking and you have to walk more than two miles round trip, not counting the distance needed to take children to school or child care
- The job or activity violates health and safety standards or does not provide worker’s compensation
- Accepting the job or work activity would interrupt an approved job or training program that you have in progress
- The job or community service would result in regular employees being fired, laid off, or having their hours or pay cut.
- Any other good reason.

During a sanction you continue to get childcare for the hours that you work. Your Medi-Cal must also continue.

CalWORKs

Teen Parents

If you are a teen under 18 who is pregnant or who already has a child, and has never been married, you must live with your own parent or parents, a guardian, another adult relative, or in an adult-supervised arrangement in order to qualify for CalWORKs.

There are exceptions, if:

- You have no living parent or guardian, or their whereabouts are unknown
- Your parents will not allow you to live with them

- You lived apart from your parents for at least 12 months before your child was born, or before you applied for CalWORKs
- You believe your child’s or your physical or emotional health or safety would be in danger if you lived with these adults.

In this situation DPSS should refer your case to the Minor Parent Program of the Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS). A DCFS social worker will visit your current home and decide if it is appropriate for you and your child.

If you live at home, your parents’ income will be counted against you and your child when you apply.

Help with Housing

If your family is homeless, or has received a notice to pay rent or quit, the DPSS can give you money for temporary shelter and to help with move-in costs to a permanent home or to avoid being evicted. The money is in addition to your CalWORKs cash aid and does not have to be paid back. To apply you must be

- homeless or have received a notice to pay rent or quit
- eligible for CalWORKs
- and not have more than $100.

You are “homeless” if you have no regular, permanent place to live for any reason. You do not have to stay in a shelter to prove that you are homeless. You may be asked to prove that you are homeless, but money cannot be denied or delayed if you do not have proof. It is against the law for any government agency to take children away from parents for being homeless unless there is evidence of abuse or neglect. Homelessness by itself is not child abuse or neglect.

You can receive this aid every 12 months if you qualify. However, a family can get help more than once in the same 12 month period if the cause is:

- Domestic violence by a spouse, partner, or roommate
- A physical or mental illness (but not including drug addiction or alcoholism) and you have a written doctor’s note.
- Your home is uninhabitable (for example, because of a fire)
- Homelessness directly caused by State or Federal declared natural disaster

1. Temporary Shelter Money

You can get money for up to 16 consecutive days to stay in a hotel or shelter. You cannot use this money to pay to stay with a friend. You will get $65 to $125 per day to pay for shelter, depending on your family size. If you find some place for less
If you are homeless you must be given this permanent housing. If you are a CalWORKs participant now housing unless your name is on the lease. rent-share plan. DPSS will question the housing, the landlord must agree to the place where your share of the monthly rent is not more than 80% of your total monthly income.

The DPSS will not pay unless you find a place where your share of the monthly rent and utilities up to two months behind so that you can continue living there. To be eligible for EAPE you must be approved for CalWORKs and working full-time or enrolled and actively participating in GAIN, or "timed out" CalWORKs and participating in GAIN Post-Time Limit Services, AND show that you are going through a financial hardship that could result in homelessness if help is not given. Once the worker verifies you are eligible you can get up to $3,000 to pay past due rent and/or utilities for up to two months. You must agree to pay a portion of the past due rent and/or utilities. EAPE money does not pay for the present month rent and utilities, unless you have received a pay or quit notice for the current month’s rent.

5. 4-Month Rental Assistance (RA) Program

If you just found a permanent place to live with the help of Homeless Assistance, Moving Assistance, or DPSS administered eviction prevention funds, RA can help you get up to $500 per month (based on family size) for four consecutive months to help pay your rent. RA is for families who cannot get subsidized housing (e.g., a Section 8 voucher). If you are participating in the GAIN Family Stabilization Program, you may receive up to eight consecutive months of RA. The payments are made out to the landlord.

To be eligible, you must meet these rules:

- Be CalWORKs approved and working full-time or enrolled and actively participating in GAIN; or
- Be timed out from CalWORKs and enrolled and actively participating in GAIN Post-Time Limit Services; and
- Have received the Permanent HA and/or MA Program payment to secure permanent housing after being homeless or secured non-subsidized permanent housing on your own (but meet the Permanent HA and/or MA rules) or have received the Permanent HA Arrearages or EAPE payment to prevent eviction; and
- Have signed a rental/lease agreement to secure non-subsidized permanent housing within the past 30 calendar days of the request for RA (you must provide a rental/lease agreement); and
- Agree to receive RA payments; and
- Provide a rent receipt for each month an RA payment is issued before another RA payment is issued.

6. Homeless Family Solutions

If you are already homeless, you must have used up all other assistance such as Homeless Assistance to get MA. Once the worker verifies you are eligible you can get up to $2,500 as a once in a lifetime payment for move-in costs like deposits, last month's rent, truck rental, and a stove and/or refrigerator if the new place doesn’t have one. You must find a place where your family's share of the rent is not more than 80% of the total monthly household income. Timed-out families can also get two months of the adult portion of the reduced grant (included within the $2,500).

The People’s Guide 2018

money than they give you, you can keep the extra money.

You must show receipts to prove that you have paid something for shelter. (If you cannot show receipts, you can still get homeless aid money but it will be paid directly to the hotel or shelter). You will also have to fill out a form showing that you have looked for a permanent place to live for each day that you received the shelter. If eligible, DPSS should help you the same day you apply, either by giving you a referral to a specific shelter with room for you or by giving you cash that day. If they refer you to a shelter, they must give you temporary shelter money by the next day.

Even if you decide not to go to the shelter, you should ask for money for as many nights as you need, but it has to be during a single 16-day period. (For example, you cannot get a week now and another week two months from now.) If you needed but did not receive all 16 days of temporary homeless assistance, request a hearing to collect it retroactively. After the 16 days are over, make sure to provide your worker with a mailing address (even if only temporary) within 10 days.

2. Money for Permanent Housing

You can also get money to cover the actual cost of security and utility deposits including the “last month's rent” deposit, and gas, electricity, and water deposits. The DPSS will not pay for the first month’s rent, though, or old overdue utility bills because you must pay that from your CalWORKs cash aid.

The DPSS will not pay unless you find a place where your share of the monthly rent is not more than 80% of your total monthly household income. If you plan to share your housing, the landlord must agree to the rent-share plan. DPSS will question the housing unless your name is on the lease.

If you are a CalWORKs participant now you must be given this permanent housing assistance within one working day of showing that you have found a place and provided all the necessary documents to get the assistance. If you are not yet receiving CalWORKs benefits, you must first bring in the documents you need to prove you are eligible for CalWORKs, and proof that you have found a place (like a note from the landlord or a proposed rental agreement).

When you pay your landlord, get a receipt to give to your worker within 30 days. If you later move, the landlord and/or the utility companies should return the security deposits to you, not to the County, to use at your next residence.

You can also get Permanent Housing Assistance to receive up to 2 months of back rent to prevent eviction if you have received a pay rent or quit notice due to a financial hardship (not for any other lease or contract violation.) Each month of this back rent cannot be more than 80% of the total monthly household income.

3. Emergency Assistance to Prevent Eviction (EAPE) Program

If you are at risk of losing your home because you didn’t pay the rent due to a financial hardship (not for any other lease or contract violation), EAPE can give you money to pay back rent and/or utilities up to two months. You must agree to pay a portion of the past due rent and/or utilities. EAPE money does not pay for the present month rent and utilities, unless you have received a pay or quit notice for the current month’s rent.

4. Moving Assistance (MA)

MA can give you money to secure a permanent place to live. To qualify you must be approved for CalWORKs, working full-time, or enrolled and actively participating in GAIN, or timed out from CalWORKs and participating in GAIN Post-Time Limit Services, AND: be homeless or be at risk of being homeless (you already got an eviction notice or 3-day notice), or you can show you have a financial hardship that will result in being homeless if you don’t get help.

5. 4-Month Rental Assistance (RA) Program

If you just found a permanent place to live with the help of Homeless Assistance, Moving Assistance, or DPSS administered eviction prevention funds, RA can help you get up to $500 per month (based on family size) for four consecutive months to help pay your rent. RA is for families who cannot get subsidized housing (e.g., a Section 8 voucher). If you are participating in the GAIN Family Stabilization Program, you may receive up to eight consecutive months of RA. The payments are made out to the landlord.

To be eligible, you must meet these rules:

- Be CalWORKs approved and working full-time or enrolled and actively participating in GAIN; or
- Be timed out from CalWORKs and enrolled and actively participating in GAIN Post-Time Limit Services; and
- Have received the Permanent HA and/or MA Program payment to secure permanent housing after being homeless or secured non-subsidized permanent housing on your own (but meet the Permanent HA and/or MA rules) or have received the Permanent HA Arrearages or EAPE payment to prevent eviction; and
- Have signed a rental/lease agreement to secure non-subsidized permanent housing within the past 30 calendar days of the request for RA (you must provide a rental/lease agreement); and
- Agree to receive RA payments; and
- Provide a rent receipt for each month an RA payment is issued before another RA payment is issued.

Hundreds of organizations in LA County offer help in job training. Beware of private employment agencies that charge you fees for finding a job. Many encourage you to pay the tuition with expensive student loans that can ruin your credit. Use free or low cost services instead.

1. America's Job Centers

Local America's Job Centers of California, are located at different places across the city and provide computers, faxes, copiers, and job listings to help you look for work. The law requires that they also provide you with career counseling, money for transportation and childcare, as well as possibly paying for quality job training that leads to a job. Call Legal Aid (see "Good Advice", pg. 68) if you have any troubles getting these services.

The People’s Guide 2018
Worker's Rights and Unemployment

This chapter tells you where to get assistance if you lose your job: how to get help if you have problems on the job: and where to get aid if you are temporarily disabled and cannot work.

Unemployment Benefits

1. How to Apply

You may be eligible to receive unemployment insurance (UI) benefits from the Employment Development Department (EDD) if you lose your job or have your hours cut at work, and you are actively looking for work and ready, willing, and able to accept work when you find it. EDD also sometimes approves training courses that allow you to gain skills while you are unemployed.

- Apply online at: www.eapply4ui.edd.ca.gov
- Or call: (800) 300-5616

A recorded message about general unemployment insurance benefit information is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including holidays. You can file claims at the same number Monday through Friday: 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

On the EDD website www.edd.ca.gov you can also manage extensions, certify for benefits online, and get useful information.

An individual who files for unemployment benefits must meet specific eligibility requirements before benefits can be paid. Individuals must:

- Have received enough wages during the “base period” to establish a claim
- Be totally or partially unemployed
- Be unemployed through no fault of their own (Laid off or fired, but not fired for “misconduct,” or quit for a very compelling reason)
- Be physically able to work
- Be available for work which means to be ready and willing to immediately accept suitable work
- Be actively looking for work
- Meet eligibility requirements each week benefits are claimed
- If you are seeking training benefits, you must be approved for training before training benefits can be paid

The minimum weekly benefit amount is $50 and the maximum weekly benefit amount is $450.00. The normal maximum benefit period is 26 weeks.

During bad economic times or when there are high unemployment rates, the maximum benefit period is usually extended. Check the EDD website www.edd.ca.gov for updated information. Employers report wages to the state for each employee. The state uses this information to decide if you earned enough wages in a “base period” to establish a UI claim, and how much will be paid. The “base period” is a 12-month period, starting 12-15 months before you filed your claim.

Always tell the truth to the EDD about why you are no longer working for your last employer. When in doubt as to whether you were fired or laid off, tell EDD you think you were fired. Even if you were fired, you may still be eligible for benefits.

After you apply and are approved, EDD will give you a debit card and give you payments through it.

You are required to file a Continued Claim Certification form, DE 4581, every two weeks. You file this form by mailing it to EDD every two weeks, or you can complete it online through EDD Web-Cert (that’s recommended as the better way), on the EDD website www.edd.ca.gov. You can also call (800) 300-5616. Keep copies of your continued claim forms.

If you are denied benefits and decide to appeal, you must keep filing your continued claim forms with EDD so that if you win the appeal, EDD can give you benefits.

Your UI application process will usually include a telephone interview. After the phone interview, EDD will mail you a notice indicating whether or not they think you qualify for benefits.

Besides unemployment benefits and State Disability Insurance (SDI), the EDD offers California Training Benefits (CTB) which allows qualified persons to receive unemployment benefits while in approved training.

2. Appeal Your Denial

If you disagree with the EDD decision, you should appeal and ask for a hearing in writing before the appeal deadline. Your past employer also has a right to appeal a decision by EDD to grant you benefits. You can appeal by filling out the appeal form that is included with the Notice of Determination denying your benefits. The appeal deadline is 30 days from the mailing date of the Notice of Determination.

At the hearing, an administrative law judge will consider the evidence, including your testimony, and decide whether you should get benefits.

Even if you are fired or if you quit, you may be eligible for benefits. If EDD says that you were fired for misconduct or that you quit without a good reason, you can appeal it. Misconduct means that you did something bad that could harm the employer, and you either did it on purpose or you completely disregarded the employer’s interests. To show that your actions were not misconduct, you can argue that the employer’s accusations are false, or that you simply made a mistake, or you could not do the job, or that the action was an isolated occurrence. Also if you can show you had a very compelling reason to quit a job, and you did everything possible to preserve the job before you quit, then you can get UIB. Call legal services for help. If you appeal keep filing your forms with EDD! If you win the appeal, you can get back benefits.

If you have a problem at work and are a member of a union, contact your union representative. He or she can advise you about dealing with your employer or about contacting the right government office. To find out about unions, or to get in touch with an organizer, call the L.A. County Federation of Labor (AFL-CIO) (213) 381-5611. www.launionaficio.org
2. Wage Claims

You can file a wage claim with the Labor Commissioner for any amount owed to you (or in Small Claims Court for up to $10,000) if your employer does any of the following:

- Pays less than the minimum wage, which increased to $11 per hour on January 1, 2018 for businesses with 26 or more employees ($10.50 hour for other businesses.) The wage will increase again to $12 per hour on January 1, 2019 for businesses with 26 or more employees ($11 hour for other businesses.) In some large cities, the minimum wage is even higher
- Does not pay overtime. Overtime means time-and-a-half of your hourly rate if you work more than 40 hours in a week OR more than 8 hours a day. Overtime means double-your hourly rate if you work more than 12 hours in a day OR more than 8 hours on the 7th day of a work in a row.
- Takes improper deductions from your pay
- Does not pay you all wages owed immediately upon discharge or within 72 hours if you quit and don’t give 3 days' notice.
- After you lose your job, does not pay vacation time that you were promised and have earned.
- Does not pay wages owed or pays you with a check that bounces
- Does not give you at least 10 minutes rest break for every 4 hours work or a meal break of at least a half hour without interruptions, which can be unpaid, if you work at least a 5-hour shift. You may be entitled to “one additional hour of pay” for each meal and rest period violation per day.

You may also claim waiting time penalties. These penalties consist of your daily pay for each day after separation from work that you must wait to receive all wages owed to you, up to 30 days. Wages include regular pay, overtime, vacation pay, and pay for not getting rest or meal breaks.

You must bring your claim within three years of the date you should have been paid the wages you are claiming. Websites with wage claim forms:

The federal Department of Labor has an office that also helps people with similar problems. Its services are more limited. However, you can file an anonymous complaint with them to avoid retaliation by your employer.

Department of Labor, 915 Wilshire Blvd., Ste 960, LA, 90017 (866) 487-9243.

3. Discrimination

It is illegal to discriminate against workers because of their race/color, sex, religion, national origin, citizenship, age, disability, political affiliation, or sexual orientation. The law also prohibits harassment in the workplace because of these protected categories, including sexual harassment.

You can file a complaint, even if you do not have an attorney, with either:
- The California Department of Fair Employment Housing, 320 W 4th St. 10th Floor, Los Angeles CA 90013, (800) 884-1684, www.dfeh.ca.gov; Or:

They will investigate your complaint and may be able to help solve your problem. If your case requires court action, you will be given a letter authorizing you to file a lawsuit. You have to file a claim with these agencies within six months (EEOC) or one year (DFEH) of the discriminatory act. You may also wish to consult a lawyer to help you evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of your discrimination case.

4. Work Safety

Workers are required to provide safe, healthy work areas. If you are asked to work under unsafe or unhealthy conditions, a state agency can investigate your complaint, and your employer may be fined for violating the law. Contact the California Occupational Health and Safety Administration (Cal/OSHA) office nearest your work. Visit www.dir.ca.gov/dosh/DistrictOffices.htm.

5. Sick Leave

California law requires employers to provide employees with one hour of paid sick leave for every 30 hours they work. The law applies to employees who have worked for at least 30 days within a year from the time they began their employment.

You can begin using sick leave on the 90th day of employment, and any paid sick leave not used within the year carries over to the next year. An employer can limit you to 24 hours (three full days) of sick leave in any one-year period.

Sick leave can be used to care for yourself, but also family members, and can be used for reasons other than illness, including preventative care, and issues related to domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. An employer cannot require you to find a replacement worker as a condition of using paid sick leave.

In cases where you can foresee that you will need to use sick leave, you are required to provide reasonable notice. Otherwise you can just provide notice as soon as it is practical.

6. Paid Family Leave

Workers who have a loss of wages when they need to take time off work to care for a seriously ill child, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, spouse, registered domestic partner, or to bond with a new child entering the family through birth, adoption, or foster care placement, may be eligible for Paid Family Leave (PFL) benefits. In order to be eligible for PFL benefits, you must:

- Be unable to do your regular or customary work due to the need to provide care for a seriously ill family member or to bond with a new child.
- Be employed or actively looking for work at the time your family leave begins.
- Have lost wages because you were caring for a seriously ill family member or bonding with a new child.
- Have earned at least $300 from which State Disability Insurance (SDI) deductions were withheld during your base period.

Complete and submit your claim form no earlier than the first day your family leave begins, but no later than 41 days after your family leave begins or you may lose benefits.
1. State Disability Insurance

If you cannot work for a temporary period because of an illness, injury, or pregnancy, you may be able to get state disability insurance benefits (SDI). These benefits range from $50 to $1075.00 per week depending on your earnings in a prior quarter, and can last up to one year (39 weeks for employers and self-employed people who elected SDI coverage).

You must be unable to do your regular or customary work for at least eight consecutive days. You must have lost wages because of your disability or, if unemployed, have been actively looking for work. You must have earned at least $300 from which SDI deductions were withheld during a previous period. You must be under the care and treatment of a doctor during the first eight days of your disability. (The beginning date of a claim can be adjusted to meet this requirement.) You must remain under care and treatment to continue receiving benefits.

You must apply within 49 days of the date you became disabled or you may lose benefits. You do not need to apply in person to receive benefits.

If your disability prevents you from completing the claim form, or you are filing for benefits on behalf of a disabled claimant, call (800) 480-3287 for required forms and instructions.

You must also ask your doctor to complete and sign the “Physician Practitioner’s Certificate.” If your doctor will mail your completed certificate to EDD provide him/her with an envelope addressed to the SDI office listed below. Mail your claim no earlier than 9 days - but no later than 49 days -after the first day you became disabled. Mail the completed, signed “Claim Statement of Employee” together with the completed, signed “Physician Practitioner’s Certificate” to:

- State Disability Insurance
  - P.O. Box 10402
  - Van Nuys, CA 91410-0402
  - OR
  - P.O. Box 513096
  - Los Angeles, CA 90051-1096
  - File online: www.edd.ca.gov

You may not be eligible for SDI benefits if you:
- Are not suffering a loss of wages:
- Are claiming or receiving Unemployment Insurance.
- Became disabled while committing a crime resulting in a felony conviction.
- Are receiving workers’ compensation benefits at a weekly rate equal to or greater than the SDI rate.
- Are in jail or prison because you were convicted of a crime.
- Are a resident in an alcoholic recovery home or drug-free home, unless it is licensed and certified by the state.
- Fail to submit to an independent medical examination when requested to do so.

If you do not have sufficient base period wages and you remain disabled, you may be able to establish a valid claim by using a later beginning date.

If you do not have enough base period wages and you were actively seeking work for 60 days or more in any quarter of the base period, you may be able to substitute wages paid in prior quarters.

Additionally, you may be entitled to substitute wages paid in prior quarters either to make your claim valid or to increase your benefit amount if during your base period you were in the military service, received workers’ compensation benefits, or did not work because of a labor dispute.

You have the right to appeal, and should appeal any disqualification, overpayment, or penalty that you do not agree with. Specific instructions on how to appeal will be provided on the state forms you receive. If you file an appeal and you remain disabled, you must continue to complete and return continued claim certifications.

For residents in a state-approved alcoholic recovery home or drug-free residential facility, the maximum payable period is 90 days. (However, disabilities related to or caused by acute or chronic alcoholism or drug abuse which are being medically treated do not have this limitation).

When your claim is received, the SDI office will notify you of your weekly benefit amount and request any additional information needed to determine your eligibility. If you meet all requirements, EDD will provide you with a debit card for your disability payments. The first seven days of your claim is a waiting period for which no benefits are paid.
The People's Guide 2018

Worker's Rights

If you are eligible for further benefits, either additional payments will be sent automatically or a continued claim certification form for the next two weeks will be sent. You must report income you receive, even though sometimes it does not reduce your SDI payments.

Coordination with Worker's Comp

If you also have a worker comp. claim and the insurance carrier delays or refuses payments, SDI may pay you benefits while your case is pending. However, SDI will pay benefits only for the period you are disabled and will file a lien to recover benefits paid.

SDI and Workers' Compensation are two separate programs. You cannot legally be paid full benefits from both programs for the same period.

However, if your workers' comp benefit rate is less than your SDI rate, SDI may pay you the difference between the two rates.

Long-term or Permanent Disability: If you expect your disability to be long-term or permanent, apply for SSDI from Social Security well before your year of SDI is over. (see page 23 Social Security).

2. Workers' Compensation Benefits

If you are disabled because of a work injury or of unhealthy, unsafe, or stressful conditions at work, you should apply for Workers' Compensation benefits. If the injury occurred on the job or because of the job, you have a right to file a claim. You are entitled to most types of Workers' Compensation benefits regardless of your immigration status or the length of time you worked for your employer.

There are six basic types of Workers' Compensation benefits:

A. Medical Benefits: The employer pays for the medical care resulting from the work-related injury up to $10,000 while your claim is still being considered by the insurance company. This can include physician services, hospitalization, prescriptions, and other necessary and reasonable care. You may be treated by the employer's physician or company clinic, or by your own doctor if you have previously notified your employer in writing of your request to select, or "pre-designate" your own doctor.

B. Temporary Disability Benefits: These benefits are paid every two weeks if you are unable to return to work within three days, or are hospitalized overnight. The benefits are intended to partially replace two-thirds of the wages lost because of the injury, up to a maximum weekly amount that is determined based upon the date your injury occurred and based on your average weekly wage at the time of injury. These benefits are paid until you can return to work, or until the disability becomes permanent and stationary. You will be considered "Permanent and Stationary" if a doctor determines that your medical condition has stabilized and you are not expected to have a significant change in condition for a period of one year, with or without medical treatment.

C. Permanent Total Disability: If you have a permanent total disability you may receive up to payments every week for life. The rate of payment depends on the date you were injured.

D. Permanent Partial Disability: This benefit is far more common than Permanent Total Disability, discussed above. For Permanent Partial Disability, the percentage of disability is based on a medical evaluation or multiple medical evaluations by a neutral doctor or doctors selected either by agreement of the parties or by a random list of names provided by the state. You receive weekly benefits for a period that increases with the percentage of disability and will vary depending upon your average weekly wage at the time of your injury. These benefits are paid every two weeks.

E. Supplemental Job Displacement Vouchers: Employees who are injured and are permanently unable to do their usual job, and whose employer does not offer other work, may qualify for the supplemental job displacement benefits (SJDB). SJDB comes in the form of a non-transferable voucher that can be used to pay for educational retraining or skill enhancement, or both, at state-approved or state-accredited schools.

F. Death Benefits: If a worker is fatally injured, the worker's family may receive burial expenses up to $10,000. Death Benefits may also be paid as support payments for dependents of the deceased worker. The amount of death benefits varies based on when the injury occurred and varies depending on the extent to which an eligible beneficiary was “dependent” on the deceased worker.

You can obtain free information from an “Information and Assistance Officer” of the State Division of Workers’ Compensation at your closest District Office, or you can hear recorded information and a list of local offices by calling (800) 736-7401. These Officers cannot represent you or act as your attorney, but they can provide basic guidance as your navigate the Workers' Compensation system.

You may also want to hire a private attorney to help you with your claim. Many Workers’ Compensation attorneys offer a free consultation, which allows you to discuss your case with a professional free of charge. Workers’ Compensation attorneys handle this type of case even if you cannot afford to pay in advance because their fees for Workers' compensation cases are set by law and are paid when your case is resolved. If you receive nothing, your attorney will not charge you for any work done on your behalf.

It is illegal for your employer to punish or fire you for having a job injury or illness, for filing a claim, or testifying in another person’s Workers’ Compensation case (Labor Code 132a). If proven, you may receive lost wages, job reinstatement, increased benefits, and costs and expenses up to limits set by the state.
Tax Credits

What Are Tax Credits?

Tax credits are benefits you can get only by filling out state and federal income tax forms. They can be received in a check, or can be used to reduce the amount of tax you owe. You should file federal and state taxes even if your income is so low that you do not owe taxes, or if you get paid in cash, because that is the only way you can get these credits.

The federal tax credits require that you file the "long form." You can get help by calling (800) TAX-1040 or (800) 829-1040.

1. Earned Income Credit (EITC)

"The Earned Income Tax Credit" (EITC) is a check that low-income working people can get from the government by filing a federal income tax return or filing out a W-5 form during the year, even if your income is so low that you do not owe federal taxes. You need a valid social security number to get this money.

You qualify for earned income credit if your yearly income in 2018 is below the level in the chart below.

</tbody>

If you are receiving CalWORKs, or CalFresh (Food Stamps), the DPSS cannot count the EITC payment as part of your income if you spend the money in the month received or the month after. For the General Relief program, this money is counted as income.

You can also file for "retroactive" payments from the past three years. If you do not owe taxes, there is no penalty for filing for the credit late (after April 15th).

You can claim EIC on the tax form (1040 or 1040A) or you can fill out just the first side of “Schedule EIC” instead and the IRS will figure it out for you. However, you may not use the 1040EZ form (the shortest form) to claim your EIC.

For help getting the credit you can call the EIC hotline at (800) 601-5552.

To get a 1040 or 1040A form for this year and past years, and to receive free tax assistance call the IRS at (800) 829-3676 and ask for VITA-Volunteer Income Tax Assistance. Forms are also available in libraries, post offices and other public places.

If you choose, you can receive this payment spread out during the year in lower payroll tax deductions instead of getting it all at once at the end of the year. To do this, ask your employer to fill out a W-5 form.

2. CA Earned Income Credit

To qualify for the California Earned Income Credit, you must complete a 540 or 540 EZ form, and have income that is reported on a W2. For tax year 2017, one person in a family without children can have an income up to $15,008 to qualify for a benefit of $223. A family with one child can earn up to $22,322 to qualify and receive up to $1,495. A family with 2 children can earn up to $22,309 to qualify, and can receive up to $5,616. A family with 3 or more children can earn $22,302 and receive up to $6,318.

3. Child and Dependent Care Tax Credit

Families who pay for child or dependent care in order to work or look for work may be eligible for money or reduced taxes from both the federal and state governments. The dependent can be a child under the age of 13 or a dependent of any age who is unable to care for him or herself, including a disabled spouse.

The benefits are up to $1,050 from the state and $2,000 per child from the federal government for families with two or more children or dependents. For tax year 2018 (when you file your taxes in 2019), families with one child or dependent may qualify for up to $2,000 per child (must be under 17 at the end of the year) from the federal government.

For both the federal and state credits, you must have a social security number or an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN). You must have income from work and must provide the social security number of the child or dependent that is receiving care, and the name, address, taxpayer identification or social security number for the person or agency providing the care.

The state credit is limited to families with under $100,000 income per year. There is no income limit for the federal credit.

4. Renter’s Tax Credit

The Renter’s Tax Credit is not a payment that you can receive, but a deduction that renters can make on their California state income tax forms. Renters who owe no tax will get no benefit. Single renters with incomes up to $40,078 are eligible for $60 renters’ tax credit and families with incomes up to $80,156 are eligible for $120 renters’ tax credit (2017). Those numbers go up each year. Other rules apply:

- You had to pay rent for at least half the year on a California property that was your main residence
- You had to be a California resident for the entire year
- The property you rented was not exempt from California property tax
- You didn’t live with another person for more than half the year (such as a parent) who claimed you as a dependent
- You were not a minor living with and under the care of a parent, foster parent or guardian
- You or your spouse were not granted a homeowner’s property tax exemption during the year

5. Health Care Tax Credit

If you apply for health care through Covered California, ask if you can qualify for tax credits that will help make up for some of the money you have to pay for health insurance.
Children's Rights

1. After School Enrichment

Especially if you are in CalWORKs, call your local elementary school to see if it has an after-school enrichment program. This program provides supervised afterschool fun, growth, snacks, and learning for children from first through sixth grade. Children must be attending the school where the program is offered. If your children attend school in the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD), call (213) 745-1900 for information on enrollment in afterschool programs. If your children attend school in a different school district, call the local district.

2. Homeless Children's Rights

Homeless children:
• Do not need a permanent address to enroll in school
• May remain at the same school they attended before becoming homeless, or enroll at the school serving the place they are living temporarily
• Cannot be denied enrollment just because any documents are not immediately available
• Have the right to participate in school meals, special education, Title I and any other federal, state or local programs for which they are eligible
• Must be provided transportation if other children get transportation
• Cannot be isolated or separated from the main school environment just because they are homeless.

These special rights under federal McKinney-Vento law apply to all children and teens without a fixed, regular adequate residence including if you are staying with friends or relatives because you lost your housing, you are waiting for foster placement, or you are living in any kind of shelter, car, motel, campground, abandoned building, garage, or similar place.

Call the child care hotline (877) 244-5399 or Legal Aid (800) 399-4529 for help if it takes a long time to get your child care approved. You will get written notice telling you whether you and your provider have been approved or denied. If you disagree with the decision you can ask for a fair hearing.

2. How Reimbursements to Child Care Providers are Made

A Provider Payment Request will be mailed each month to your child care provider. Both you and the child care provider must sign the request and mail it to the child care agency at the address on the form. Reimbursements are then made directly to your child care provider. If the reimbursement is missing or incorrect, you or your provider may contact the agency for assistance.

3. Choosing Quality Child Care

It is your right as a parent to choose the child care you think is best for your child. The APP agency will give you referrals and information on what to look for when choosing a provider. If you decide the referrals are not good choices, you may ask for more referrals. Choose the child care that’s best for you:
• Licensed child care centers, Preschools, or Family child care homes.
• License-exempt child care can be provided by family, friends, or neighbors. If you use license-exempt care, you will need to sign a statement that your provider meets minimal health and safety requirements. The child care agency will not reimburse for child care provided to you by someone on your CalWORKs case.
• If the provider is caring for children from more than one family (besides their own) they may need a license.
Most providers will have to be fingerprinted and go through a criminal background check. Your relatives may not have to go through this process.

4. CalWORKs Child Care Stages

There are three “Stages” of child care. You should not have any problems as you move from one “Stage” to another. You may be eligible for child care while you are participating in an approved welfare-to-work activity (work, school, training, appointments with GAIN, or specialized supportive services like domestic violence counseling, mental health or substance use disorder treatment appointments).

Stage One
The child care agency may reimburse for any qualified child care that you choose for up to six months or until your welfare-to-work activity and child care are both stable. Teen parents may also get Stage One Child Care, as long as they are actively participating in the Cal-Learn Program. You may be eligible for child care for up to 30 days prior to the date of your child care request: call the Child Care hotline at (877) 244-5399 for more information.

Stage Two
After both your welfare-to-work activity and child care are stable, the child care agency will move you to Stage Two. You may stay in Stage Two while you are receiving CalWORKs and are in an approved welfare-to-work activity. You may be eligible for Stage Two Child Care for up to 24 months after you have been terminated from CalWORKs cash aid.

Stage Three
“Stage Three” Child Care is subject to budget cuts in Sacramento and applicants may be placed on waiting lists. Stage Three Child Care is available for low income working parents who do not receive CalWORKs. You may qualify for Stage Three Child Care if your income is below the levels in the following chart:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Family Size</th>
<th>Monthly Income Limit</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1 or 2</td>
<td>$4,318</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>

<td>$6,438</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>$6,584</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8 or more</td>
<td>$6,730</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You may still qualify for low cost child care if you’re over the income limit. Call one of the agencies listed on the right side of the page for details.

1. Lack of Child Care
You can be temporarily excused from participating in work requirements of CalWORKs if child care is not reasonably available. Your case manager will evaluate each case individually and periodically. Child care is not reasonably available if:
- You are not satisfied with the child care
- There is no child care close enough
- You have no transportation to the child care
- There are no providers operating during the hours you need child care
- The provider’s license is under investigation
- The provider cannot commit to providing care for your child
- The child care is not appropriate for your child’s needs.

2. Complaints about Providers
You should complain about your child care if there are bad conditions, or you suspect abuse or mistreatment. You can complain at the following places:
- The DPSS child care coordinator
- The R&R or APP Agency
- Child Care Hotline (877) 244-5399, Monday through Friday, 8 am to 5 pm
- Community Care Licensing (310) 337-4333 or (323) 981-3350
- Legal Aid (see p. 68 for list).

3. Brokers
If you are requesting child care, you do not need to pay anyone to help you with your request (these people are often called “brokers”). The child care agency must provide you with a worker who speaks your language to help you with this process. You can also get help from community organizations who will not charge to help you request child care.

If you use a broker, be very careful about signing a “representative payee” form, which gives the broker direct control of your child care payments. If you have any problems with brokers, complain to the agencies listed in the section above.

4. Hearings
You have a right to a fair hearing if you disagree with decisions made by DPSS or the child care agency. You can ask for a hearing by following the instructions on the back of any child care “Notice of Action”. You should file for a hearing within 14 days or before the action/termination happens.

Foster Care

1. What are the Benefits?

Foster care benefits are only for the child (not the adults). The child also gets one clothing allowance when placed and one yearly while in school.

In 2018, the state is changing the method used to determine how much foster care children receive. The new system will be based on a "Level of Care" based on how much help the child needs for his age, and the family's level of support they can provide.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Level of Care</th>
<th>Basic Monthly Cash</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>

</tr>
<tr>

<td>$1027</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>$1131</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>$1235</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

New structure beginning in 2018

The state has been delayed in implementing the new system, so until it begins, the old system basing payments on age will be used.

In Los Angeles County, there is a higher “specialized rate” for children with severe medical and/or psychological needs. If you think your foster child qualifies for this, ask the social worker to arrange an evaluation. If the child uses services from the Regional Center, they should receive the “Dual Agency Rate” automatically.

Some children in foster care are eligible for Medi-Cal. If the child is living with a relative, but is not eligible for foster care benefits, the child should be eligible for CalWORKs without considering your income.

If you are related to the foster child, and low-income, you may be able to get CalWORKs and Medi-Cal for yourself. You may also be eligible for CalFresh/food stamps, depending on your income. If you apply for CalFresh, you get to choose whether or not you want to include the foster child in your household. The foster child cannot receive CalFresh/food stamps unless they are included in your household.

2. What Are My Rights?

Call DCFS’s Foster Care and Adoptions Assistance Hotline at (800) 697-4444 if you have questions or problems with foster care eligibility or payment, to report a change of address, or for general questions.

If you think you should be getting any of these benefits and are not, you can ask for a state hearing, even if you did not get a notice denying benefits. Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles, at (800) 399-4529, or The Alliance for Children’s Rights at (213) 368-6010 for help.

As a foster parent, you can go to all court hearings involving your foster child, but you cannot speak unless the judge says you can. Every child in dependency has an attorney. You can call the attorney with any questions or concerns about the child’s needs. You can ask the worker or the attorney to let you know when a court hearing is scheduled.

If you have reason to believe a child related to you is in the Foster Care system, and you are willing to provide a home for that child, call the Child Abuse Hotline and give your name and information. You may or may not be contacted.

Is There Help for Foster Youth Turning 18?

If you are a foster youth who is turning 18, or recently turned 18, you may be eligible for extended foster care. Extended foster care is optional. If you choose to stay in extended foster care, you will have to agree to live in an approved home and meet with a social worker every month. If you are eligible for extended foster care when you turn 18, but choose to close your case, you may re-enter foster care any time before you turn 21. For more information about extended foster care:

visits: www.childsworld.ca.gov

or call: (877) 846-1602

If you are going out of care see “Foster Youth Housing Options” on page 59.
What Are Other Options?

1. Legal Guardianship

If you are an unrelated legal guardian, you may get State Foster Care benefits. The child does not have to be a dependent of the court. As soon as you get your temporary guardianship papers, call DCFS’s hotline at (800) 540-4000 and ask for a “Permanency Planning Worker.” Note the date and time you called and the name of the person you spoke to. A worker should visit your home within 5 days. Have a copy of your guardianship papers to give the worker. Benefits begin as of the date of your call - at the same rate as federal foster care.

2. Kin-GAP

To get Kin-GAP, the relative must become the child’s legal guardian through the Dependency Court. The Dependency Court case is then closed and DCFS is no longer involved. The child must have lived with a relative for at least 6 consecutive months to be eligible for Kin-Gap. The relative can choose to go into Kin-GAP or not. Kin-GAP pays the same rate the child received in foster care, including specialized care rates and clothing allowances. The child did not have to receive any benefits to be eligible to receive Kin-GAP benefits. If DCFS recommends that you become the legal guardian, ask how this will affect the child’s benefits.

What is Social Security?

Social Security is a federal insurance program which provides benefits for eligible workers and their families regardless of income. SSI and CAPI are programs for disabled or seniors.

Social Security covers both employees and the self-employed, if the worker has earned enough quarters of credit. A quarter is credited to your account for each $1260 earned in 2016. This amount changes every year. You cannot earn more than 4 quarters in a year.

Social Security provides four main kinds of benefits: retirement, disability, survivor, and health (called Medicare). (see page 53 Medicare for description of who qualifies for Medicare). There are no resource limits to these programs.

1. Retirement Benefits

Monthly retirement payments are made to workers and their eligible dependents. The amount you get depends on how much money you have earned, how many years you worked in a job covered by Social Security, and whether or not you were full retirement age when you began receiving payments. Covered workers pay for Social Security (FICA) by being taxed on the money they earn, and employers must match this amount.

The age at which you can get full retirement benefits depends on what year you were born. If you were born after 1960, the full retirement age is 67. If you were born before that, the age ranges from 65-67. You can contact Social Security to find out your exact retirement age. You can retire before your full retirement age, however the amount of money you receive each month will be reduced.You can find out how much your benefits will be reduced on the social security website www.ssa.gov under “early or late retirement”. Ask your Social Security office for more details. You must be at least 62 to even get reduced retirement benefits.

Once you have reached full retirement age, you can earn money while receiving retirement benefits. However, if you are still able to work, you may want to consider delaying your retirement. You may be able to get delayed retirement credits, which increase the monthly amount you receive. Contact your local SSA office for more information about this.

Present law prevents Social Security benefits going to any non-citizen who is not “lawfully present” in the U.S. (see page 62 Guide for Non-Citizens).

2. Disability Benefits

Monthly Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) payments are made to you and to eligible family members, including a spouse, unmarried ex-spouse (if they meet marriage duration requirement), minor child, or adult disabled child. To qualify, you must bea covered employee who is unable to work (engage in substantial gainful employment) because of severe physical or mental medically determinable illness or impairment that has lasted or is expected to last at least 12 months or to end in death. Benefits are available to family members on the same terms for Retirement benefits.

SSDI generally requires that the applicant must have worked 40 quarters with at least 20 of them (5 years of quarters or work credits) earned in the 10 years immediately before the date the disability began. Different rules apply for the blind. Those under age 31 and those under 24 have reduced earning requirements in order to obtain benefits and those over 43 have increased earning requirements in order to qualify for disability benefits. See social security website under the “Number of Credits Needed For Disability Benefits” for the various rules depending on age. SSDI provides Medicare benefits after 24 months becomes legally responsible for the child’s support. If you have problems with the Adoption Assistance Program, you can contact Public Counsel’s Children’s Rights Project at (213) 385-2977 ext. 500.

4. Long Term Foster Care

If you are a relative and do not wish to adopt the child, or become the child’s legal guardian, you cannot be required to do so, and DCFS should not threaten to remove the child from you if you choose not to adopt. The child’s permanent plan can be long-term foster care with you, but you will need to pursue this with DCFS and the Dependency Court.

5. County Foster Care

L.A. County also has its own foster care program, primarily for undocumented children who are dependents of the court. They may be placed with relatives.
SSI & CAPI

3. Survivor Benefits

When a covered worker dies, monthly payments are made to eligible family members including:

- A spouse over age 60 or disabled and over age 50 or caring for the worker’s child who is under 16 or 16 years or older and disabled.
- The spouse above can be divorced from the worker but can get benefits only if the marriage lasted at least 10 years, the ex-spouse is unmarried and s/he is entitled to more benefits on his/her dead ex-spouses account than on his/her own account.
- A child under age 18, or age 19 if s/he is still in high school;
- An adult child who was disabled before age 22, never married, and has not worked what is considered "substantial gainful employment;"
- A disabled adult unmarried child who became disabled before age 22 and has never worked at a job that was considered substantial gainful employment.
- A parent of the worker over age 62 if s/he was at least 50% dependent on the worker’s support when the worker was alive.
- If members of any of the above groups were receiving benefits on the worker’s record when the wage earner/worker started receiving retirement benefits, those benefits will increase when the worker dies.

What Is SSI?

SSI ("Supplemental Security Income") is a cash benefit program for low-income persons 65 and over and for blind and disabled persons of any age, including infants and children. You must be a U.S. citizen or a qualified immigrant living in the country legally to get SSI. (See page 26 for "What is CAPI", a program for immigrants who are ineligible for SSI.) SSI has no work history requirements.

The Social Security Administration provides a good description of SSI at www.ssa.gov/notices/supplemental-security-income/index.htm

SSI may be your entire income, or it may add to other income you already get. To qualify for SSI however your total income cannot be more than $20 over the SSI maximum benefit. SSI grant amounts differ depending on whether the recipient is blind, a child, or is homeless.

Can I Get SSI?

To get SSI, at least one of the following must apply:

- You are age 65 or older;
- You are blind; the vision in your best eye is no better than 20/200 with glasses or your tunnel vision is 20% or less;
- You are unable to work because of a severe mental or physical illness or impairment that has lasted for 12 months or is expected to last 12 months or is expected to result in death;
- You are a child under 18 who has a medically proven "marked and severe" physical or mental disability that would keep you from working if you were an adult or significantly interfere with your daily activities.

You can’t get SSI if the disability is based on alcohol or drug dependency, but you may qualify based on another disability such as mental illness or kidney or liver disease.

You can’t get SSI any month in which you’re in prison or jail, have an outstanding warrant for a violation of a parole or probation order, or are a fleeing felon. Only certain types of outstanding felony warrants can cause you to be denied benefits. Seek help from legal aid if you are denied benefits.

1. Income

Your “countable income” may not be above the maximum benefit level. Subtract the following from your “gross” income to get your countable income:

- $20 per month of your total income;
- $65 per month of any earned income and half of your remaining earned income;
- All work expenses if you are blind;
- Any impairment-related work expenses if you are disabled;
- All tax refunds;
- Any portion of scholarships or grants that is for tuition, fees, and school expenses;
- Federal undergraduate grants and loans (totally exempt);
- Foster care payments;
- A third of all child support payments from an absentee parent if you are caring for a child;
- If you are blind or disabled, any income that has been set aside as part of a “PASS” (Plan to Achieve Self-Support) approved by the Social Security office;
- Federal housing and relocation assistance payments;
- Earnings of a blind or disabled student under age 22 up to $1,620 a month, maximum $5,200 a year;
- Payments from FEMA, Red Cross and others for disaster-related losses;
- Money you receive to pay to replace or repair a lost, damaged or stolen resource;
- Reverse annuity mortgage payments made to the recipient (counts as a resource, but not as income).

2. Resources or Assets

Your countable resources may not be more than $2000 for one person and $3000 for a couple, (even if only one member of the couple is eligible.) Some resources are not counted:

- The home you live in;
- One car if you use it for work or medical.

Food: If you get SSI in California, you cannot get CalFresh/Food Stamps. This rule may change in 2018: please call Hunger Action LA (213) 388-8228. If you live where meals cannot be prepared you can get an additional $90 to $100 per month (ask for the Restaurant Meals Allowance.)

Health Care: If you get SSI, you automatically qualify for Medi-Cal. You may also qualify for In-Home Supportive Services (See pg 52.)

Special Telephone Equipment: If your disability makes it difficult to use the phone you may qualify for special equipment to help. Call (800) 806-1191 (voice) or (800) 806-4474 (TTY line.)

Rent and Household Expenses: You can qualify for the maximum SSI grant even if you live with someone else or live in someone else's household so long as you pay your fair share for your own food and shelter costs. If you live in someone else's household and pay none or only part of your food and shelter costs, your SSI grant will be reduced by one third of the federal SSI benefit rate.

If you were getting some help in paying for your food and shelter when you applied for SSI but later begin paying your share for food and shelter, tell your social security worker so your benefits will increase to the maximum benefit. Also tell Social Security if you move/lose housing or if you no longer have access to cooking facilities.

If you are living with someone else, who is paying all or a part of the expenses for your food or shelter, and you have an agreement to pay them back once you begin receiving SSI, be sure to tell Social Security (at the time you apply for SSI benefits.) This signed written agreement should say that you will pay your share of the food and shelter expenses for each month you receive back SSI payments. If you have this written agreement any retroactive SSI benefits should not be reduced for the reason that you are living in the home of another and are not paying your share of the food and shelter expenses. You can contact legal aid for help writing this agreement so your back SSI benefits are not reduced.

A single person can get a $1,173.00 (as of 2018) board & care rate called “Non-Medical Out of Home Care,” if you do not receive In Home Supportive Services, are not staying in your own home, and a relative who does not get SSI is providing you room, food, and personal care. The county must certify the private residence.

You may be able to get a $400 immediate payment from the Social Security office if either your SSI or your Social Security check is late and you need money right away. If you are denied immediate payment contact the office of your Congressperson and ask for a staff person who can help.

How Do I Apply?

See page 26, “Where to Apply for Social Security or SSI.” Come in, or call (800) 772-1213 to make an appointment. Even if the process from application to first check takes months, when you are approved the benefits will be paid beginning with the date you started the application. Do not accept a verbal denial. Insist on filing at least a partial application. If you do not have all the necessary information, you can give additional or corrected information later.

If you have difficulty with English or with hearing, the Social Security Office is required to provide you with an interpreter without cost. You may have help from a friend, family member or advocate at any appointment. If your condition makes getting to the office difficult, you may ask for a telephone interview or a home visit. If you have problems with any of this call Legal Aid right away.

If you want to sign a form allowing someone else to serve as your representative, ask by phone for form SSA-1696 to be mailed to you. You can also get this form in the office or on the Internet. Parents or guardians can apply for a child under age 18 who is blind or who has a disability.

It’s helpful to have the following information with you when applying:

- Social Security card or record of number
- Birth certificate or other proof of age
- Information about the home of residence, such as mortgage or lease and landlord’s name
- Payroll slips, bank books, insurance policies, car registration, burial fund records and other information about income and resources
- Names, addresses and telephone numbers of doctors, hospitals and clinics that have treated you (if applying for SSI or SSDI because of disability or blindness)
What Is CAPI?

Cash Assistance Program for Immigrants (“CAPI”) is a cash benefit program for low-income people who are aged 65 and older, are blind, or who have a disability that meet the general eligibility requirements for SSI but are not eligible for SSI because of their immigration status (See pg. 62 “Which Immigrants can get CAPI?” and pg. 64 “What If I Have a Sponsor” for important information about “deeming”)

CAPI benefit amounts are similar to SSI ($10 less for one person, $20 less for a couple). Like SSI, benefits are lower if you share housing or don’t pay your full share of the food and shelter expenses. If you are eligible for CAPI you will be eligible for Medi-Cal, and possibly In Home Supportive Services (IHSS) and CalFresh/Food Stamps (see pg. 32). You will have to apply for these benefits separately.

1. How to Apply
To apply for CAPI, go to the Metro North DPSS Office at 2601 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles 90057, or to any DPSS public contact offices (see page 70). To receive a CAPI application by mail, you may call the Customer Service Center at (866) 613-3777. You must apply for SSI as a requirement of CAPI eligibility. You will have to show proof that you have applied for SSI and your SSI application is on a pending status OR has been denied due to your immigration status. You may apply for SSI on your own or you can ask for help from the County worker.

Your benefits will begin the month after you apply for, or try to apply for, CAPI. Be sure to get a written receipt with a date showing that you applied or tried to apply for SSI. At the time you apply for CAPI, you will choose between two methods of receiving your monthly benefits, Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) or direct deposit.

2. Be Careful: Brokers
If you are applying for CAPI you do not need to pay anyone to help you fill out the application and turn it in to the county (these individuals are often called “brokers”). DPSS workers are required to help you fill out your application, and provide you with an interpreter to help you fill out the papers.

Where to Apply for Social Security or SSI

For SSI, Medicare and Social Security benefits, it is best to apply in person at one of the Social Security offices listed below (L.A. area). For appointments and information about Social Security, Medicare or SSI: call: (800) 772-1213 (7 A.M. to 7 P.M. during the week) (800) 325-0778 (TTY)

When you call the 800 number you are talking to someone in a national call center, not someone in your local office. If you are dealing with a specific representative in a local social security office, be sure to get and keep that person’s name and direct phone number so you can reach him/her again.

Veterans

Veterans and their family members may be eligible for income, health care, housing, and other services. Ask at the VA about programs for veterans and their families, like Education, Vocational Rehabilitation, Life Insurance, Burial Assistance, Survivors Benefits, and more. VetsGo511.com is a helpful website with many resources for veterans.

Can Vets Get Cash Aid?

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) has two income benefits for veterans. Veterans with an Other Than Honorable or Bad Conduct Discharge, may still be eligible for VA Benefits.

1. Service-Connected Compensation provides a monthly income to veterans with a physical or mental health condition that is related to their military service. The basic amount of Compensation depends on the severity of the medical condition, and ranges from $133 to $2,906 per month for veterans without dependents.

2. Non-Service-Connected Pension provides a monthly income to wartime veterans who are low-income and either 65 years or older or totally disabled. The amount of Pension is $1,07

Veterans with dependents can get more Compensation and Pension.

General Relief

General Relief (GR) is a cash assistance program provided by the County of Los Angeles for individuals who are not eligible for other federal or State cash assistance programs, such as CalWORKs, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Disability Insurance Benefits (DIB). The GR Program is managed by Los Angeles County Department of Public Social Services (DPSS).

Can I Get GR Cash Aid?

1. Basic Requirements

To get GR, you must live in L.A. County for at least 15 days and intend to remain here permanently.

You cannot have more than $50 total in cash or in a bank account when you apply.

You can own:

- One car worth less than $4,500
- Necessary household furnishings
- House you live in if the market value is less than $34,000.

2. Time Limits

If you are able to work, DPSS will classify you as "employable." "Employable" people can only get GR for 9 months in any 12 month period.

If you cannot work due to health problems, DPSS will send you for a medical exam. The doctor decides if you are too ill or disabled to work. If so, DPSS will call you "unemployable". "Unemployable" people can get cash aid year round. You may have to go for medical exams more than once a year to stay "unemployable." DPSS can change you back to "employable" and the 9 month time limit on aid will apply to you.

What Do I Get in GR?

1. Basic Benefits

The most you can get in cash aid per month is $221.

In addition to the cash aid, you can get:

- Enrollment in MediCal, a free health insurance program for low-income LA County residents.
- Free health care from any county hospital or clinic (800)-427-8700
- Bus tokens to all required appointments related to keeping benefits including medical appointments, vendor lodging and meal voucher locations (when the one-way distance is one mile or more or you are unable to walk a mile), and EDD offices
- A personal care kit (DPSS will deduct $5 from your GR benefit)
- Sanitary napkins
2. Emergency Benefits

When you apply for GR, you may be eligible to receive the following emergency benefits:

- Emergency Housing - If you are homeless and need emergency housing, tell the person who interviews you at the DPSS office and you may receive hotel vouchers for up to two weeks. A small portion of the cost of the voucher ($4.35 per night) will be deducted from the first month of GR benefits issued. If you take the vouchers but do not use them, DPSS will still take the money out of your first GR benefits issued. To stop that you must ask in writing to cancel the voucher. You can also ask that DPSS change the location of your voucher. You can also call (800) 255-0905 to complain about the conditions at the voucher hotel.

- Emergency Food - You may be entitled to CalFresh (formerly known as Food Stamps) or food vouchers the day you apply (see page 32 CalFresh/ Food Stamps.). If you do not get CalFresh/Food Stamps, and no voucher restaurant is open or in your area, you should get cash ($2.17 per meal). Ask for as many meals (up to 3 a day) as you will need. Remember, any meal vouchers or cash issued to you will be deducted from your first GR benefits issued.

- Aid to Prevent Eviction - You can get up to $272 to stop an eviction. You need a letter from your landlord that says: 1) You did not pay your rent this month or last month and 2) He/she will not evict you if DPSS pays the $272. The money will be paid directly to your landlord.

- Aid for Utilities - You can get cash aid to turn your utilities back on or to stop a shut-off. This money will be paid directly to the utility company. You need to show DPSS proof from the utility company that the cash aid will stop the shut-off.

3. Earned Income Disregard

Any earnings in the 30 days before your application will reduce how much you can get in GR the first month. Once you are on GR cash aid, you can earn up to $200 a month with no cut in your cash aid. If you earn between $201 and $620, your cash aid may be less or be cut. Once on GR, you can also save up to $1,500. Always report your earned income to your worker.

How Do I Apply?

1. Regular Application

   You may apply for GR benefits by going to a district office, by mail, or fax.

   - To apply in person, go to the closest DPSS office to complete a GR application (see page 70 for a list of Welfare Offices).
   - To apply by mail or fax, you may download and print the Application for General Relief (ABP 898-1) by visiting the Department’s Your Benefits Now (YBN) website at: dpssbenefits.lacounty.gov

   Once you have filled out your application and forms, you may fax it to (310) 215-8220 or mail to Department of Public Social Services P.O. Box 1580 Inglewood, CA 90308-1580

   A worker will contact you to schedule an appointment at a GR office within five business days of receipt of your application. You may also bring your completed application to your nearest GR District Office.

   If you visit a GR District Office, be prepared. Remember that you have the right to apply that day. Tell the worker that you need GR. The worker will help you go through the application process. Bring with you identification and papers like pay stubs, bank accounts, and car title that prove your income and resources.

   Every GR applicant has a right to request “Expedited CalFresh/Food Stamps”. In general, expedited service is available to individuals who have less than $150/ month in gross income and less than $100 in available resources. You can get your food stamps that same day or no later than three days.

   You will be fingerprinted and photographed when you apply for GR. If your fingerprints match those of another welfare recipient in the state, you will be denied GR benefits pending an investigation. You can appeal this decision with your worker if you do not agree.

2. If You Think You Are Unable to Work

   If you have a disability, you may want to apply for SSI first. (See page 24 SSI). You may apply for GR while you wait on SSI. Ask for an SSI Advocate at the GR office if you need assistance with the SSI application process.

   Due to a Physical Disability or Condition

   If you have a physical disability or condition... that prevents you from working, tell your worker when you apply for GR. You will need to be assessed by a medical health professional to determine if you are unable to work. You may provide verification of a physical health evaluation by:

- If you are currently receiving treatment from your own physician or medical provider, you can have him/her complete a Physical Health Assessment for General Relief form (ABP 1676-1) to verify your disability or condition. You may request these forms from your worker or download them from the YBN website at dpssbenefits.lacounty.gov.
- A statement from a private doctor on the clinic/health center letterhead is also acceptable as long as it provides the duration of the disability and whether the condition prevents you from working full-time in sedentary work related activities.

The doctor will evaluate your physical health to determine if you have an impairment that prevents you from participating in sedentary work-related activities. If you are determined to be unable to work, the GR Program will consider you “Unemployable.” Your “Unemployable” designation will exempt you from some sanctions, work and other program requirements.

If you are determined to be able to work, you will be referred to the County's employment preparation program called GROW, where you will have an opportunity to take advantage of the different services GROW offers to prepare you for employment. (Examples: General Education Diploma, Short-Term training, Vocational Assessment).

Due to a Mental Health Disability or Condition

If you have a mental health disability or condition that prevents you from working, tell your worker when you apply for GR. You will need to be evaluated by a mental health professional to determine if you are unable to work. You may provide verification of a mental health evaluation by:

- If you are currently receiving treatment from your own mental health provider, you can have him/her complete a Physical Health Assessment for General Relief form (ABP 1676-1) to verify your disability or condition. You may request these forms from your worker or download them from the YBN website at dpssbenefits.lacounty.gov.
- A statement from a private doctor on the clinic/health center letterhead is also acceptable as long as it provides the duration of the disability and whether the condition prevents you from working full-time in sedentary work related activities.
- If you do not have a mental health provider, let your worker know. Your worker will refer you to a Department of Mental Health (DMH) Clinician located at GR district offices for an assessment. Take any medications, prescriptions, or other proof about your disability to your disability assessment appointment.

If you are determined to be unable to work due to your mental health disability, the GR Program will consider you as “Needs Special Assistance” (NSA). NSA applicants are approved for GR promptly and are given priority service. “NSA” participants are exempt from work requirements and some program requirements.

Note: If you are designated NSA status and wish to volunteer without any penalties in the GROW Program, contact your worker.

3. If You Need Assistance

You can request assistance at any time during the GR application process or if you are unable to meet GR Program requirements. If you need a modification or accommodation due to a disability, DPSS will provide you a reasonable accommodation. For example, if you cannot read or write, DPSS will help you complete any necessary forms.

If you need help applying, during the GR application process or meeting GR Program requirements due to a disability, you may request a Reasonable Modification:
- From any employee at a DPSS office;
- By calling the ADA hotline at (844) 586-5550 or 562-908-8374; OR
- Writing a letter asking for a Reasonable Modification or filling out the Request for Reasonable Modification form (ABP PUB 2). You can download the ADA PUB 2 form from the DPSS ADA website located at: dpss.lacounty.gov/wps/portal/dpss/main/programs-and-services/civilrights/ada and mail it to:
  DPSS ADA Title II Coordinator
  12860 Crossroads Parkway South
  City of Industry, CA 91746

GR Requirements

1. If You Are Able to Work

If you are able to work, DPSS will consider you an “Employable” individual. An Employable individual may receive GR cash aid for 9 months in any 12-month period. If you are employable, you will be required to:
- Complete 6 job searches at application
- Register with the Employment Development Department (“EDD”). You will have to apply for unemployment benefits if you appear eligible for these benefits.
- Participate in GROW program 20 hours per week in activities leading to a job

The County will send you a notice to come to a GROW Orientation or give you a notice at application. If you do not attend the GROW orientation, your application for GR will be denied. But, if you have “Good Cause” or a good reason for not attending the GROW Orientation, your application will not be denied and you will be scheduled for another date and time. Make sure to contact your GROW worker. GROW provides services including job search activity, job-related training, counseling, and work experience.

In GROW, if needed, you may also get assistance with transportation, books, supplies, uniforms and tools related to your trade. GROW can also provide referrals to domestic violence, substance abuse, or mental health supportive services.

If you are 60 years old or older, you will not have to participate in GROW, and you will not have a time limit.

Note: If you are terminated from GR for not meeting GROW requirements, your CalFresh/Food Stamps benefits should still continue. There are currently no work requirements for the CalFresh/Food Stamps program in LA County.

2. If You Are “Unemployable” or “Needs Special Assistance”

If you cannot work due to a health condition, you must obtain verification of your health status from your doctor (see If You Think You Are Unable to Work section). “Unemployable” and “Needs Special Assistance” individuals can get cash aid for their period of disability, and are exempt from many GR requirements.

When your disability period expires, you will be sent a notice to comply with GROW requirements. If you still cannot work, call your worker right away and schedule a follow-up visit with your primary care doctor or request an appointment with a DMH Clinician. You must sign a release (ABP 1676-2 or ABP 1676-4 GRMH) that gives your doctor permission to release your medical/mental health information to DPSS. You may request these forms from your worker or download them from the YBN website at dpssbenefits.lacounty.gov.

NOTE: If you are Unemployable and wish to volunteer without any penalties in the GROW Program contact your Eligibility Worker.

3. Drug and Alcohol Program

If you tell your DPSS worker that you have a drug or alcohol problem, or if your worker believes you have such a problem, you must have a professional assessment from Department of Public Health.

If you are assessed to be chemically dependent you must enroll in a treatment program (Mandatory Substance Use Disorder Recovery Program) in order to receive GR.

If you fail to comply with the Mandatory Substance Use Disorder Recovery Program requirements, your application will be denied. You are entitled to a “good cause evaluation” when you reapply and the penalty will be removed if you had “good cause” for missing the appointment.

If you are in the Mandatory Substance Use Disorder Recovery Program but are considered “employable” and in a residential treatment program, you are not required to register for work or complete a job search. However, still have to meet GROW requirements and you can meet this by participating in substance abuse treatment 20 hours per week. You will still be subject to the 9 month time limit, unless you are judged “unable to work” for reasons other than substance abuse.

4. Quarterly Reports

You must fill out a QR-7 LA form every three months. This Is Very, Very, Very IMPORTANT! On the QR-7 LA, you will be asked to report your income, property and household members. You also must report any changes you expect in the next three months. Your GR cash aid for the next three months will be based on the information you list on your QR-7 LA. If you do not report income on your QR-7 LA when you received income, you will be charged an overpayment. An overpayment is when you receive GR when you were not eligible to receive it. If an overpayment occurs, you will have to pay the GR cash aid that was overpaid to you. If this happens, call legal services for help (see pg. 68)

If your other income gets really high (over what DPSS calls “income reporting threshold”) you have to report it right away, even if your report is not due yet.

What Are My Rights?

1. Good Cause

If you are not able to comply with the GR program requirement, and you have “Good Cause,” you should contact your DPSS worker immediately and explain your situation.

Unless you have “Good Cause,” you will be penalized for not participating in GROW, quitting a job, not accepting a job paying at least minimum wage $10 an hour, not complying with substance abuse requirements, or getting fired for misconduct. “Good Cause” can be any illness, accident, difficulty understanding instructions, conflicting appointments, confusion, transportation problems, or any physical or mental disability, which affects your ability to work. “Good Cause” covers anything short of willfully not complying with program requirements.

2. "Extended Suspend"

If DPSS says you have not complied with your GR requirements your benefits will be stopped. If you comply with your GR requirements by the third Thursday of the following month, your benefits should be started again. The DPSS calls this “Extended Suspend.” Make sure you show them proof that you have complied with the rules.

3. Hearings

If your case is going to be terminated or your benefits are reduced, you have a right to a GR hearing. The county must mail you a “Notice of Action” nine days before a hearing. The date and time of the hearing will be listed on the notice. You can take documents or witnesses to support your case to your hearing appointment if you want. If you have “Good Cause,” you have a good chance of winning the hearing. Your benefits cannot be cut off or reduced without a hearing unless you do not go to the hearing.

4. Penalties or "Sanctions"

If you do not go to your GR hearing, or it is determined you willfully did not comply with a GR requirement, your case will be terminated or your benefits will be reduced. If you receive a sanction and you have not been sanctioned in the past 365 days, you can re-apply at once. If this is the second sanction in a year, you can re-apply in 30 days. After the third penalty in a year, you have to wait 60 days to re-apply.

5. GR Time Limits

If your General Relief is stopped due to the 9 month time limits, you can continue to get CalFresh/Food Stamps and Medi-Cal. You can reapply for GR in three months. Your notice will tell you when you can reapply.

If you become sick or hurt and cannot work while you are timed off of GR, reapply for GR right away. Let your worker know that you are unemployable and request a verification form (ABP 1676-1 or ABP 1676-3) so your primary care doctor or mental health provider can verify if you are unemployable. If you are determined to be unemployable, you will be able to get GR cash aid without any time limit. You may also download the forms from the YBN website at dpssbenefits.lacounty.gov.

6. If You Begin to Get SSI

The County considers GR to be a “loan” for those applying for SSI. If you start getting SSI, the amount of GR cash aid you got will be taken out of your first SSI check. If you think DPSS made a mistake and took too much money from your first SSI check, you can ask for a fair hearing (see Hearings and Complaints pg. 65)
1. If You Are Disabled

Can Drivers Get Help?

1. Low Cost Car Insurance

Low income drivers in Los Angeles County can purchase special auto insurance for $347 a year. Call (800) 622-0954 to find the agent nearest you from the California Automobile Assigned Risk Plan (CAARP). You must verify your income with tax returns and also show a valid driver’s license, current vehicle registration, and proof of ownership of vehicle.

To be eligible, you must live in LA County: you must be at least 19 years old; and have been driving for at least 3 years without losing your license; the car insured must be worth less than $20,000; and your household (in 2018) must have a yearly income below:

Also, in the last 3 years you cannot have been responsible for an accident involving bodily injury or death; had more than one property damage accident in which you were at fault; or had more than one point for a moving violation. You also cannot be a college student claimed as a dependent on someone else’s taxes.
CalFresh

The new name for California’s Food Stamp Program is “CalFresh,” (also known as Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, SNAP). CalFresh provides monthly benefits on a plastic EBT card which you can use to buy food at grocery stores, farmers markets and other locations.

How Do I Get CalFresh?

There are different ways to apply for CalFresh:

- Online at www.dpss.benefits.lacounty.gov;
- In person at any DPSS Office;
- By mail by calling your local Customer Service Center at (626) 569-1399, (310) 258-7400, (818) 701-8200 or (866) 613-3777; or
- At any Community and Faith Based organizations listed online at www.dpss.benefits.lacounty.gov.

CalFresh applications are processed within 30 days. In emergency situations, a household may receive CalFresh benefits within three days from the date of their CalFresh application. It is Department of Public Social Services (DPSS) policy to issue expedited CalFresh benefits on the day of application, whenever possible. Your household must meet specified conditions that are considered an emergency (for example, your gross income is less than $150 and you have less than $100 on hand).

To apply for CalFresh you only need to sign and date the application and statement of facts. The worker will ask for your proof of identity, residence, income, and resources, but you cannot be denied for not having these documents with you. Although your cash on hand and other liquid resources may not count for general CalFresh eligibility, they do count if you are asking DPSS to give you emergency or same-day CalFresh.

These are acceptable forms of proof of identity:

- Driver’s license
- Work or school identification card;
- An identification card for health benefits or another assistance program;
- Voter registration card;
- Wage stub;
- Birth certificate;
- Sworn statement; or
- A letter addressed to you.

Interview: CalFresh applicants can complete the required interview by phone. There are a few exceptions, such as if you apply for CalFresh benefits and also apply for cash aid, such as CalWORKs, General Relief, CAPI, or if you requested Expedited Services. If so, you will still be required to complete a face-to-face interview in the District Office. At the interview - in person or over the phone - you will go over the application you filled out and will be asked for additional information. You may bring someone along to help you. You may be asked to sign a form making them your “authorized representative”.

Documents: You will be given a list of documents that you will need to complete the application process. You may be given a “return appointment” to turn in the documents. If you do not have one of the necessary documents, you or someone you know may sign a statement explaining why not.

You may be able to receive benefits while you continue to gather the required information. The eligibility worker should help you understand what documents are required and what you can bring instead, if you don’t have it or can’t find it.

Fingerprints: Fingerprints are no longer required for applicants for CalFresh benefits only, but you still need to be fingerprinted if you are also applying for cash aid such as General Relief.

Next steps: Write down your worker’s name, and your case number. If you are asked to mail additional papers to the DPSS office, ask the worker for a stamped envelope addressed to him or her. If you take in any documents, make sure to get a receipt to prove that you dropped off the documents requested.

Keep your own copy of all the paperwork you submitted. If you need help and your worker is not available, a supervisor must help you.

Within 30 days of your applying, the DPSS office will send you a notice of action explaining if your case was approved or denied with a reason for denial. If your case is approved, you will receive your EBT card and PIN number by mail. Each item is sent separately. Contact your county office if you do not receive any of these items. The notice of approval will tell you how long you are eligible (usually a “certification period” is 12 months) and the amount of benefits that you will receive and information about your reporting requirements.

If your CalFresh case is denied and you believe you qualify for benefits, request a hearing or call a legal aid organization for assistance. (See pg 68 the “Good Advice” and the pg 65 “Hearings and Complaints” Sections for additional information).

When your income, expenses, or other circumstances change, report this on the form called “SAR 7.” (see pg. 34, the “What Are the Requirements” Sections for additional information). Be sure to comply with all reporting requirements. If you do not understand your reporting requirements, ask your eligibility worker or contact your local Legal Aid for guidance.
Can I Get CalFresh?

Individuals or households whose income is low enough and meet other eligibility factors, can get CalFresh benefits. U.S. citizens, legal residents, and some qualified immigrants may receive CalFresh benefits. In California, Supplemental Security Income State Supplemental Program (SSI/SSP) recipients are not eligible for CalFresh. This rule may change: call Hunger Action LA (213) 388 8228 for an update.

The gross income limit is not used to determine eligibility for households that contain an elderly and/or disabled member. Instead, the net monthly limit (gross income minus applicable deductions) is used to determine eligibility.

What Can I Buy With CalFresh?

You can use the CalFresh card to buy nearly any food item at most grocery stores, supermarkets, farmers markets and other locations.

- Most recipients cannot buy hot foods ready to eat with CalFresh. Homeless, disabled, or elderly households can use CalFresh to buy hot prepared foods, at certain restaurants participating in the Restaurant Meals Program
- Non-alcoholic beverages
- Seeds to grow your own food
- CalFresh cannot be used for non-food products such as soap, tobacco, or diapers.

Who Can Get CalFresh?

1. CalFresh Income Limits

See the chart at the top of the page for gross income limits for receiving CalFresh benefits. Unless your household has an elderly or disabled member, your income must be under those limits to begin with. The county will then make deductions from your gross income, based on certain household expenses: the result must be under the “Net” income in order for you to receive CalFresh. There are some exceptions; ask your worker.

2. Special Rules for Students

Students between age 18 and 49 attending school half-time can qualify if they meet any of the conditions listed below:

- Being disabled;
- If they are enrolled in CalWORKs;
- Applying for or receiving General Relief and they also comply with a GROW Program education/training requirement, including orientation;
- Working and getting paid at least 80 hours per month. If the students are self-employed, they must work at least 80 hours per month and earns a monthly gross income equivalent to at least federal minimum wage X 80 hours.
- Receiving a federal or state work-study grant;
- Responsible for the care of a dependent child under age 12 if a full-time student;
- Are taking care of a child at least 6 and under 12 years old and adequate child-care services are not available, preventing them from attending class and working 80 hours per month or participating in a work study program during the school year;
- Is enrolled full time and is a single parent responsible for the care of a child under age 12;
- Is assigned or placed in school under the CalFresh Employment and Training Program, or a state or local government training program;

- Participating in Extended Opportunities Program Services (EOPS);
- Participating in the Workforce Innovation Opportunity Act (WIOA);
- Participating in Job Opportunities and Basic Skills (JOBS) program under the Title IV of the Social Security Act;
- Participating in a state or county employment and training program determined by an Eligibility Worker; and/or
- Is awarded with a Cal Grant A or B and meeting the required TANF requirements.

If the student doesn’t meet any one of the requirements, other people in the home may still qualify for CalFresh benefits.

3. If You Get Free Meals

If you do not pay for any of your meals, you may not be able to get CalFresh. Even if you don’t prepare your own meals you may be able to get CalFresh if you live in:

- A non-profit shelter for domestic violence or homeless people
- A drug or alcohol treatment facility
- Federally-funded housing for the elderly; or
- A group home for the disabled or blind

Some facilities can collect your CalFresh benefits from you if they use them to feed you.
4. “Households”
Household is defined as an individual living alone or a group of individuals who live together and customarily purchase food and/or prepare meals together for home consumption. A household can be one person who lives alone, or it can be a group of persons, related or unrelated, who live in the same place. There is no limit to the number of “households” that can be in the same home. If each “household” buys and prepares their own food separately from the other households, they are a “separate household.”

Some relatives who live together must be included in the same household, even if they do prepare their meals separately. These are:
- Your immediate family—you, your spouse, your children age 21 and under;
- Your parents and you (unless you are over 21);
- Those who are acting as parents for a child under 18, unless the child is in foster care; or
- An individual living with the household who is a spouse of a household member.

Some relatives can be considered separate households, even if they live in the same place, including:
- Parents living with their adult children (over 21);
- Adult brothers and sisters; or
- Seniors and people with disabilities.

Teen parents who reach the age of 19 and are taken out of their own parents’ CalWORKs case are still eligible for CalFresh. The parents’ income must be counted, but the CalFresh should not just be cut automatically—call Legal Aid if this happens.

5. Resource and Property Limits
Resources such as money and property are no longer counted when determining CalFresh eligibility. If a household is applying for cash aid (CalWORKs, General Relief or Cash Assistance Program for Immigrants (CAPI) or Non-MAGI Medi-Cal, resources will be counted for those programs.

What Are The Requirements?

1. Semi-Annual Reports
You must fill out and return a form called SAR-7 every six or twelve months, depending on your type of household. THIS IS EXTREMELY IMPORTANT! On the SAR-7, you will be asked to report your income, property and household information. You will also be required to report any changes in your income, property or household that you anticipate in the next six months. Your eligibility and benefits for the next six or twelve months will be based on the information you provide on your SAR-7. Under certain circumstances, you must report changes before your required reporting month.

You will be assigned to a Semi-Annual Reporting cycle based on the last digit of your case number. Your eligibility worker should let you know the months you are required to submit a SAR-7.

If you get the form in the mail, you must fill it out and return it to the DPSS office by the fifth day of your reporting month. You should receive your SAR-7 about one month before it is due. If you don’t get it in the mail, you must go to the DPSS office to complete the form or access it online at https://dpssbenefits.lacounty.gov/vbn. Make sure to get a receipt showing the time and date you submitted the form. If your SAR-7 gets lost, or you do not turn it in, your case will be suspended at the end of that month, even if you did not receive the SAR-7 in the mail.

Contact your worker or a community agency if you need assistance with filling out the report.

2. Re-evaluation
Your case must be reviewed for benefits each year before the end of your certification period or your CalFresh will be terminated. You will receive a re-evaluation (RE) packet and a letter saying that you need to renew your case if you want to continue receiving benefits, along with a date by when you need to return it. You will need to send it back with copies of any income, housing, and utility bills if you are paying for living expenses. You need to include other receipts of services you are paying for such as child care. Be sure to complete this on time so you can continue to receive without a break in benefits. RE interviews are done over the phone unless you want an in-person/face-to-face interview.

Households with all adults are elderly or disabled, and households residing on Indian Reservations with or without children under 18 have been granted a 24-month RE period. The RE process is the same as households with 12-month RE period.

Effective October 1, 2017, CalFresh households not receiving any cash benefits from the county and in which all members are elderly and/or permanently disabled with no earned income will be granted:
- A 36-month RE period. They may complete and submit a RE application CF 37 at the end of the 36-month certification period;
- A waiver to allow them to submit a SAR 7 at the 12th and 24th month during their 36-month certification period; and
- A waiver for the interview requirement unless households request an RE interview verbally or in writing by contacting the or if Department:Department of Public Social Services (DPSSO is going to deny a RE application (e.g., the household’s circumstances has changed and they appear to no longer be eligible for CalFresh); or if information supplied by the households or Authorized Representation are found in the case review of CalFresh eligibility/benefits is questionable, incomplete or contradictory.

3. CalFresh/Food Stamp Work Registration
“Workfare” is a work project you might be required to do to keep receiving CalFresh. Workfare is currently suspended in Los Angeles County, but here are the usual rules:
All CalFresh household members age 16 through age 59 are required to be registered for work (exceptions described below).

As a work registrant, you must do the following to remain eligible to CalFresh:
- Keep appointment if called in for an employment assessment interview.
Respond to a request for supplemental information regarding your employment status or availability for work.

Report to an employer if you are referred to one by your employment counselor.

Accept an offer of suitable employment.

Comply with the requirements of the Food Stamp Employment and Training (FSET) Program if assigned to it.

Comply with the requirements of Greater Avenues for Independence (GAIN) or a substitute program, e.g., Refugee Resettlement Program.

You will be exempt from work registration if you are earning at least 30 hours times the federal minimum wage, or working at least 30 hours per week, or any one of the following:

- Under age 16 or age 60 or over;
- A student in school or training program at least half time;
- Caring for a disabled person or child under age 6;
- Receiving or applied for unemployment benefits;
- Participating in certain drug or alcohol treatment and rehabilitation program;
- Determined by DPSS to be unemployable, due to a physical and/or mental disability; or
- Participating in GAIN or a CalWORKS program.

Under CalFresh law, certain kinds of employment are considered “unsuitable,” so you do not have to accept these jobs to qualify or remain eligible for CalFresh/Food Stamps. A job is unsuitable if one of the following applies:

- It does not pay the federal or state minimum wage;
- It is harmful to your health or unsafe;
- It is beyond your mental or physical capacity, as documented by medical evidence or information from other sources;
- The daily commute is over 2 hours;
- It forces you to resign from a union or prohibits you from joining a union;
- It forces you to break a strike or lockout;
- Adequate transportation is unavailable;
- If within the first 30 days of registration, the job offer is not within the member’s major field of experience; or
- The working hours or nature of the employment interferes with the member’s religious observances or beliefs, for example, working on a religious holiday.

What Are The Penalties?

If you quit a job without good cause, you can be cut off from CalFresh until you can correct the problem. The penalties get worse each time:

- The first time DPSS says you have not complied, you can be denied CalFresh for at least one month;
- The second time, you can be denied CalFresh for at least three months;
- The third time and after, you can be denied CalFresh for at least six months.

Only the person breaking the rules will be denied, not the whole household. If you are penalized for any reason, you can get back on the program if you become exempt from having to comply with the requirement for any of the reasons listed above.

“Good Cause”

“Good cause” for quitting a job or not doing a work project includes events beyond your control, including but not limited to:

- Illness of yourself or a household member who needs your care;
- Injury;
- Transportation problems;
- Inability to speak or write English;
- A household emergency; or
- Lack of adequate childcare for a child age 6 to 11.

What Are My Rights?

You have the right to:

- Be treated with courtesy, consideration, and respect, and not to be discriminated against;
- Get help filling out your application or any other form, and to have an interpreter if needed at no cost to you;
- Be interviewed in a reasonable amount of time by the County when you apply and to have your eligibility determined within 30 days;
- Get a written notice when your application is approved, or denied, or when your benefits change or stop;
- Apply for and get benefits for eligibility family members, even if your family includes other members who are not eligible because of immigration status;
- Get CalFresh benefits within 3 calendar days if you qualify for Expedited Services;
- To get help filling out your application or any other form

1. Fair Hearing

You have a right to a “fair hearing” if you feel you were unfairly denied benefits or unable to correct any mistakes with your benefits. If you appeal within 10 days or before the action takes effect (whichever period of time is longer), in most cases your benefits will continue until the matter is resolved. You have a right to look at your own case file and read a copy of the CalFresh program rules if you have a dispute with the county. If you need help, contact the Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles at (800) 399-4529, Neighborhood Legal Services at (800) 433-6251.

2. Lost or Stolen EBT Card

You must report a lost, stolen or demagnetized card immediately to the EBT 24-hour Customer Service Center (877) 328-9677. Once reported, the card will be deactivated right away. This will prevent anyone else from accessing the benefits on the card. A new EBT card should be issued right away and may receive it by mail within three business days. You can also visit any DPSS district office to request a replacement card. You can ask to speak to a supervisor if the DPSS district office denies you a replacement EBT card. If your benefits are stolen, report it to DPSS right away and contact the Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles at (800) 399-4529.
Farmer's Markets That Accept CalFresh in LA County

Free and Low Cost Food

Food Pantries and Free Meal Programs

Food pantries are places that give food to people in need. Most food pantries are volunteer private organizations that can make their own rules about who can be served. Most of them are limited to serving people in certain areas and for one to four times a month. They may require some kind of identification and proof that you are low income. Generally, food pantries never have as much as is needed. Foods distributed most often include canned foods, rice, beans, bread, cereal, and occasionally produce items.

Free hot meals are offered at many private volunteer agencies and churches. The frequency of the meals varies from daily in some places to once a month.

There are over 500 places in LA County that distribute food bags or hot meals for free so we cannot list them all. Here are some food or referral agencies. Bring someone with you that can help you carry boxes or bags of food and produce since sometimes they are very heavy.

Here are some larger area pantries, referral lines and websites:

Community Gardens

You can save money and have nutritious food by growing some of your own vegetables. You can garden in your yard, in containers, in school-yard projects, and in community gardens.

Farmers Markets That Accept CalFresh Benefits: See previous page for partial list or use www.fmfinder.org. Many of these markets also participate in the Market Match program (see below)

The Market Match Program (operated in LA County by Hunger Action LA, SEE-LA, Model Neighborhood Program, and Social Justice Learning Institute) offers people who receive CalFresh/Food Stamps, WIC, and at some markets Social Security, or SSI up to $10 in bonus money weekly when they spend $5 to $10 of their own money or benefits at the participating market. The program will continue as long as funding lasts. Markets offering the program are indicated in the chart on the previous page. Please call for more info: (213) 388-8228.

The Senior Farmers’ Market Nutrition Program provides low-income seniors with vouchers that can be used to purchase fresh fruits, vegetables, honey and herbs at Certified Farmers’ Markets (CFM). Some Senior Centers sites offer and distribute these vouchers, usually beginning in May or June. Call (213) 738-4004 for a list of locations. WIC offers similar vouchers to families with children age 5 and under once per year.

Revolutionary Autonomous Communities (RAC) distribute fruits and vegetables free at MacArthur Park on Sundays from 10 am to 5 pm, SW corner of Wilshire Blvd and Park View Ave.

Senior Group Meals

Anyone age 60 and over can participate in congregate meal programs, regardless of income. Spouses of participants can also get meals, no matter what their age.

There are about 200 sites for congregate meals throughout L.A. County. Some programs are able to provide transportation to the meal site or can send meals home for people who are temporarily ill or homebound.

You can get help to locate a program by calling (213) 738-4004 if you live anywhere in the City or County of Los Angeles. Participants cannot be required to pay for meals. However, a contribution to help support the program is often suggested. Some group meal programs are authorized to accept food stamps.

Meals for Homebound Persons

Meals on Wheels groups deliver meals regularly to those who are homebound. Each group sets its own rules about how many meals will be served and about the days and times that meals are available. Most programs require some evidence that participants are unable to cook or shop due to illness, frailty, or disability. Some programs can provide for special diets. You cannot be required to pay for meals if the program is federally funded, but sponsoring groups will ask for a small contribution. Some meals-on-wheels programs are authorized to accept food stamps. To find out about meals-on-wheels anywhere in Los Angeles County, call (213) 738-4004.

Project Angel Food is a private agency that delivers free hot meals to homebound people with AIDS and other illnesses. They have same day service in Venice, East Los Angeles, Pasadena, North Hollywood, Silver Lake, and South Central. Call (323) 845-1800 for meals.

Project Chicken Soup (PCS) prepares and delivers free, nutritious, kosher meals to people in the greater Los Angeles area living with HIV/AIDS, cancer and other serious illnesses, and who are unable to prepare or access their own meals due to their health status. Anyone living outside the service delivery area may come to the kitchen to pick up meals.

To apply visit: www.projectchickensoup.org or call: 310-836-5402.

Can My Child Get Free or Low Cost School Meals?

All low-income students are eligible for free or very low-cost school meals, regardless of immigration status. Children who eat breakfast and lunch at school learn better and are usually sick less than other children. All public schools and some private and parochial schools offer subsidized breakfast and lunch programs.

Some schools offer free meals to all students, regardless of family income.

Many schools offer breakfasts in the classroom, at recess, or on the bus.

Your child qualifies for free or reduced-price meals if your gross family income per month (income before taxes or deductions) is below these levels:

(Groups of 8 are divided by the adult signing the application. If you do have a Social Security Number, just write “none.” You are not required to have a Social Security Number or apply for a number or give a reason for not having one.

Sometimes the school asks for proof of your income. All information gathered is confidential and cannot be shared with other government agencies.

If the information you give on the application shows that you qualify, your child can begin receiving free or reduced-price meals immediately. Reduced-prices are set by the school district, but the law states that breakfast cannot cost more than 30 cents and lunch not more than 40 cents for reduced price meals. The district can charge whatever it wants for full price meals.

Recent changes in the law require schools to offer free drinking water and to increase the amount of vegetables and fruits available.

Parents can improve the cafeteria programs in many ways. Eat at school with your child, encourage your child to eat breakfast and lunch at school, talk with your school’s principal about moving breakfast in the classroom, and ask the food services administrators to participate in developing the menus.

2. Extra Food for Pregnant Students

At many schools, pregnant and breastfeeding students can get extra food at breakfast or lunch, or an extra snack. To be eligible, the student must provide some written verification that she is pregnant or breastfeeding from a doctor, nurse, midwife, clinic, WIC or Cal-Learn program.

2. Extra Food for Pregnant Students

At many schools, pregnant and breastfeeding students can get extra food at breakfast or lunch, or an extra snack. To be eligible, the student must provide some written verification that she is pregnant or breastfeeding from a doctor, nurse, midwife, clinic, WIC or Cal-Learn program.

3. After School Snacks and Supper Program

After school snacks are available at after school programs for free at many schools, where more than half the students would qualify for free or reduced price meals.

The After School Supper Program is offered to students under age 18 and is available at 600 schools in the LA Unified School District. Students do not have to be enrolled in either the school or in the afterschool program to receive supper. For more information see cafe-la.lausd.net or call (213) 241-6422.

Free Summer Lunch for Kids

All children and teens ages 18 and under can eat free, nutritious meals during the summer or any time when school is out through the Summer Lunch Program. No application or other kind of paperwork is required. Meals and snacks are served at schools, parks, and recreation centers.

Some parks operate year-round and can feed your children when they are “off-track” from year-round schools.

The Summer Lunch Program is located in areas where at least half the children qualify for free- or reduced-price meals in school. However, any child under 19 can eat there free regardless of where they live or their family’s income. If the child is physically handicapped, the age limit is 21.

Some residential or day camps and homeless shelters offer the program, but you may have to fill out an application.

To find out where your children can eat free when they are not in school, call 211, Los Angeles County Infoline.

If you want to learn to start a free site in your area, call the California Food Policy Advocates at (213) 482-8200.

What Are My Rights?

The law says that children who get free or reduced-price meals cannot be treated differently than those who get full-price meals. No separate lines, different meals or meal tickets, required work, or other types of discrimination are allowed.

Ask the school, child-care sponsor, or summer recreation program sponsor for a “fair hearing” if you apply and are unfairly denied. Also request the hearing if you receive notice that your benefits will be cut. By doing so within 10 days, your child’s benefits will continue until the hearing takes place.
The Affordable Health Care Act (also called Obamacare) passed in 2010 is a law that allows many more people to get health insurance that they can afford. The Affordable Health Care Act:

- Prohibits insurers from denying insurance to anyone with serious illnesses, including pre-existing conditions such as asthma and diabetes
- Provides free preventative services, including immunizations
- Prevents insurance companies from imposing lifetime dollar limits. In the past, people with cancer or other serious illnesses in their childhood could run out of coverage later in life.
- Allows young adults to be covered through their parents’ insurance until the age of 26.

If you feel like you are still being denied coverage, call one of the agencies listed in Good Advice (pg. 68.)

There are also new services in the law that will help women and children including:

- Diabetes screening for pregnant women
- Breastfeeding support, supplies, and counseling, and
- Domestic violence screening and counseling

The law makes changes in the Medi-Cal program that allow many more people to participate.

Medi-Cal is California's program that offers free or low-cost health coverage for California residents who meet eligibility requirements. Medi-Cal covers low-income children and adults, families, pregnant women, seniors, and people with disabilities.

MEDI-CAL INFORMATION: (877)597-4777

The state and federal government fund Medi-Cal. There are many Medi-Cal programs with different rules. Depending on which program you qualify for and how much money you make, Medi-Cal may pay for all your medical expenses or you might have to pay a share of the cost when you access health care services in a particular month. If you have Medi-Cal with a share of cost, you may qualify for lower priced insurance through Covered California.

Can I Get Medi-Cal?

You can get free Medi-Cal if you have low income and are a California resident (which means you intend to live in California.) All adults aged 19 to 64 who are US citizens or legal permanent residents and have income below 138% of poverty (see chart on page 40) now qualify for a free Medi-Cal program. Pregnant women and people with a diagnosis of breast or cervical cancer may now qualify for Medi-Cal at a higher income level.

Medi-Cal is divided into “MAGI” and “Non-MAGI” Medi-Cal. In general, MAGI Medi-Cal includes: childless adults between the ages of 19 and 64 who are not blind or disabled; pregnant women; parents/caretaker relatives; and children up to age 19. Eligibility for these individuals is based on reported income. Property and resources are not counted under MAGI Medi-Cal. All other groups of people who get Medi-Cal qualify for a “Non-MAGI” program and will have resources counted.

People who receive Supplemental Security Income/State Supplementary Payment (SSI/SSP), Foster Care, and CalWORKS are automatically eligible for Medi-Cal benefits and don’t have to apply separately. Other individuals who are aged, disabled, or in a skilled nursing facility may be eligible for benefits under the Medi-Cal Assistance Only (MAO) programs.

Immigration Status

Most legal immigrants can get Medi-Cal to cover all their medical and health care needs. Survivors of domestic violence or those in the process of adjusting their legal status might also be able to receive Medi-Cal. (See page 61 Guide for Non-Citizens).

If you are in the U.S. and have Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) status, you can qualify to get full Medi-Cal benefits.

If you are undocumented, and a California resident, and meet other Medi-Cal requirements, you may qualify to get restricted Medi-Cal benefits. Restricted Medi-Cal means that you can get Medi-Cal to pay for emergency services, pregnancy-related care, family planning, kidney dialysis, and long term care services.

How Do I Apply?

1. Get an Application Form
   - You can get an application form mailed to you by calling the DPSS toll-free number at (877) 597-4777.
   - You can get a Medi-Cal application at a DPSS Office. (See page 70 “Welfare Offices.”)
   - You can also get an application at many hospitals and clinics, whether they are private or county-run.
   - A few schools and clinics in Los Angeles County help children and their families apply for Medi-Cal.
   - Some First 5-funded agencies have applications and assist people with the application process. See page 47 for a complete list of agencies.
   - Visit a Certified Enrollment Counselor (CEC). These counselors work for community organizations or insurance brokers and can help you apply online or by mail. All CECs are certified by Covered California to help consumers in person. Visit www.coveredca.com/enrollment-assistance to find an enrollment counselor near you.

2. Apply Online
   You can apply online using Your Benefits Now!, or Covered California.
   Your Benefits Now! is a website for Los Angeles County residents to apply for and view their benefits online.
   Visit: www.dpssbenefits.lacounty.gov
   Covered California is a statewide marketplace where you can shop online or over the telephone for insurance coverage. Visit: www.coveredca.com or call (888) 975-1142.

3. Child Health and Disability Program (CHDP) “Gateway”
   Children who receive a CHDP visit are screened for temporary eligibility for Medi-Cal. If a child is eligible, he/she is pre-enrolled in temporary, full-scope Medi-Cal at no cost for up to 60 days (for the month of the visit and the month after) See pg. 48, “Child Health and Disability Program”.

4. Deemed Eligibility for Infants
   Infants who are born to mothers on Medi-Cal at the time of birth can get Medi-Cal benefits up until the age of one, regardless of any increase in income for their family. At age one, an annual redetermination form must be completed. However, you must contact DPSS when your baby is born or use a “Newborn Referral Form” or go to a clinic with CHDP to start your child’s Medi-Cal benefits (see #11 “If you are pregnant”, page 42).

For questions or problems you may contact MCH Access (213)749-4261 or the Health Consumer Center of Neighborhood Legal Services at (800) 896-3203.

5. Complete the Form
   Help is available if you need it to complete your application. The Medi-Cal office must provide interpretive translation services and assistance if you have a disability that makes it hard for you to complete the application. If the worker needs more information, you will be given a list of necessary documents and a due date to mail it back. A "return appointment" is not necessary.

If you do not have all the necessary documents, you or someone you know may sign a statement explaining why not. You may be able to receive benefits while you continue to gather the required information. The Eligibility Worker should help you get some of your missing papers. Give DPSS copies, not originals, of any documents.

Make a copy of the application for yourself! Then hand in or mail in the form. Get a receipt if you hand in the form. If you mail the form it is a good idea to send it by certified mail.
6. Provide Documentation

DPSS Medi-Cal offices are now able to electronically verify required information to determine if you can get Medi-Cal. If they are not able to verify some or all of the required information, then you will have to provide physical documentation to them. The following items are required to determine if you are eligible. You may not have to show documentation of cars, property or bank accounts if you are under the age of 64.

- Identification with your name and current address on it. If you lack ID, you can also fill out a form called “PA 853” and swear that you are who you say you are, or documents to verify income or disability status may also serve as proof of identity.
- Social Security Number or Card (or proof of application for the card) only for those requesting “full-scope” benefits.
- Proof of income (like check stubs, a copy of your tax return, or monthly bank statements if you have direct deposit or a self-affidavit (statement of income if you are paid in cash or do not have any other way to prove income)
- Proof that you live in Los Angeles County (a document that has your name and an address on it) for each adult on the application.
- Proof of citizenship or acceptable immigration status for each person on the application who has declared acceptable immigration status. If you are a parent applying for children only, you do not need to submit proof of your immigration status.
- Vehicle registration (if you are over age 65 or have Medicare, and if ownership of more than one vehicle is declared).
- Bank Statement if you are over age 65 or have Medicare

7. Cooperate with Child Support Services

If one parent is absent, most people will have to cooperate with DPSS and a county agency called the Department of Child Support Services (DCSS.) You must provide information you have about the other parent such as an address or Social Security Number, to establish who your child’s absent father or mother is and whether that parent can provide the child with medical insurance.

If you do not cooperate with DCSS, you will be denied Medi-Cal (except under certain conditions described below), but your children do not lose coverage. Cooperation is not required if applying only for the children. Pregnant women do not have to give information to DCSS until after the birth of the baby.

Under some circumstances you have good cause for not cooperating. For example:
- You are cooperating in good faith, but are unable to identify or assist in locating the other parent.
- You are afraid of the absent parent, you or your children may be in danger, or you are a victim of domestic violence.
- Rape or incest has occurred.
- You are planning to place the child for adoption.

8. Wait for Approval

Normally, the Medi-Cal office will approve or deny your application within 45 days of receiving it, except for the faster processes for infants and children, described above. If the state must evaluate a disability, the approval or denial can be delayed up to 90 days. Call (877) 597-4777 or a legal aid office for help if you are not contacted within 45 days about your Medi-Cal application. If Medi-Cal states that you are not eligible, you can appeal the denial of benefits (see pg. 65 Hearings and Complaints).

9. The Medi-Cal Card

Once you have been “approved,” your permanent plastic Medi-Cal card is mailed to your address. It is called a “Benefits Identification Card” or BIC. Each person listed on your application will get one, even if they aren’t eligible for Medi-Cal, because if the family must pay a monthly Share of Cost, the medical expenses of every person listed on the application can be used to meet the Share of Cost. If you don’t get your plastic card by the end of the month, or if you lose your card, contact the Medi-Cal office. If you have received a Medi-Cal card in the past, do not throw it away; you can use the previous card.

11. If You Are Pregnant

Any pregnant woman can be “presumed eligible” at certain clinics and doctors’ offices and given limited pregnancy-related Medi-Cal immediately called “PE Medi-Cal”, without proving pregnancy or providing information on property, car, or resources. PE Medi-Cal will cover pregnancy loss or abortion, or will help you get early prenatal care, lab tests and medication. You still have to apply for Medi-Cal if you want to continue your Medi-Cal benefits. Even to get full Medi-Cal you have 60 days to provide the expected date of delivery of the baby.

When you apply for Medi-Cal during pregnancy, you should add your spouse or any other eligible children to your case. If a pregnant woman is not more than 30 weeks pregnant and has too much income to be eligible for free Medi-Cal, she may be eligible for a program called MediCal Access Program (MCAP). MCAP also covers pregnancy, pregnancy loss or abortion, and dental care. MCAP used to be called Access for Infants and Mothers (AIM). Call MCAP at (800) 433-2611, or apply at www.coveredca.com or with one of the agencies listed on page 47.

If you are pregnant and have Restricted Medi-Cal, sometimes called Pregnancy Medi-Cal, you have the right to receive all medically necessary medical and dental benefits. If you have questions or problems with your coverage contact Maternal and Child Health Access at (844) 868-0252.

As soon as the baby is born call the DPSS customer service center at (866) 613-3777 to report the name and birthdate to add the new baby to your family case record. The baby needs his or her own card by the end of the month after birth. But, you should not have to fill out a new Medi-Cal application for your baby. If you have trouble reaching your worker to tell the worker about the birth of your baby, some WIC offices and clinics have “Newborn Referral Forms” you can fax to DPSS. Or you can get one yourself on the computer at http://dhcs.ca.gov/formsandpubs/forms/Forms/mc330.pdf and download the form called, “Newborn Referral”. It is form number MC 330.
You don't have to provide a birth certificate or Social Security number until the baby's first birthday.

If you take your baby to a CHDP provider, your baby can also get a card issued through the "CHDP Gateway" (see pg 48 Child Health and Disability Program.)

12. If You Are Disabled
If you are disabled you may apply for regular Medi-Cal as an adult with income below 138% of the Federal Poverty Level. If you want to be evaluated for the Seniors and Persons with Disabilities Medi-Cal program you will need a disability determination. To find out which program would be best for you call: MCH Access (213) 749-4261 or the Health Consumer Center of Neighborhood Legal Services at (800) 896-3202.

13. If you are Diagnosed With Breast or Cervical Cancer
If you are a man or woman diagnosed with breast cancer or a woman diagnosed with cervical cancer, you can get free Medi-Cal immediately, and during the entire time you are receiving cancer treatment, if your monthly income is less than 200% of the Federal Poverty Level through the Breast and Cervical Cancer Treatment Program (BCCTP). There are no resource limits for this program. One of the requirements for BCCTP is that you have no other health insurance including full-scope no share-of-cost Medi-Cal or Medicare. Please refer to DHCS website for information about the BCCTP: http://www.dhcs.ca.gov/services/medi-cal/Pages/BCCTP.aspx

To get on Medi-Cal right away (called “Accelerated Eligibility”), you must go to a provider who participates in this program to file an internet application. You should state that you want the internet application to serve as a Medi-Cal application so you will be eligible for the program for a longer period of time.

To find a health facility near you that participates in this program or who will screen you for cancer, call the Los Angeles County Office of Women’s Health at (800) 793-8090 or the State Office of Women’s Health at (800) 824-0088. Depending on your age or immigration status, you may get “full scope” (regular) Medi-Cal or you may get time limited Medi-Cal for cancer-related services only 18 months for breast cancer and 24 months for cervical cancer.

An additional 18-month or 24-month period of coverage with a recurring breast or cervical cancer diagnosis, regardless of cancer location, is available to State-funded BCCTP recipients whose original period of coverage has expired. Individuals with a recurrence must meet all applicable eligibility requirements to receive an additional period of coverage. Individuals with a break in services may have to reapply. Call 1-800-824-0088 for more information.

14. Retroactive Benefits
If you had medical, dental or pharmacy services from a Medi-Cal provider in the three months before you applied for Medi-Cal, ask your worker for a form to apply for "retroactive benefits." You can request coverage for the 3 retro months during the application or you have up to 12 months from the retro month to apply for coverage. Both the paper and online application sites will ask you if you had medical expenses in the last three months. If you did, check Yes. If you were eligible for Medi-Cal during those three months, Medi-Cal may pay those bills. If you've already paid the bills and Medi-Cal covers the services, your clinic, doctor, dentist, or pharmacist must provide the refund to you. If you have trouble getting a refund, call The Health Consumer Center at (800) 896-3203 or (800) 896-3202.

Income Limits
Your countable income determines whether or not you can get Medi-Cal for free or whether you have to pay a “Share of Cost.” (You only pay a “share of cost” in months when you actually use services.) The different Medi-Cal programs have different rules for how income is counted and which deductions to allow.

In general, adults under age 64 and children may qualify for what is called a "MAGI" Medi-Cal program. The rules for these programs count the income of the person filing taxes in the house and some dependents. For information call: Legal Aid (pg. 68) or the Health Consumer Center (800) 896-3202.

Adults aged 65 and older and some disabled people may qualify for "Non-MAGI" Medi-Cal. Under some programs, only the income of the family unit being given the Medi-Cal counts, not of others who may live in the house but aren’t part of the application.

Elderly (65 and older), blind or disabled persons can deduct:
• Half of any remaining earned income
• Any health insurance premiums paid by you.

Some elderly or disabled people, even though not receiving SSI, may get free Medi-Cal if the countable monthly income is less than $1220 (an individual) or $1645 (a married couple, both disabled or elderly). This is called the "Aged and Disabled Federal Poverty Level Medi-Cal program." You cannot get free Medi-Cal if your income is even a dollar over these limits. Special income deductions and exemptions apply, so even if you think your income may be too high, you can apply and check with Health Consumer Center at 800-896-3203 or Legal Aid (800) 399-4LAW

Special low-cost Medi-Cal for working disabled persons:
If you are a disabled person with share of cost Medi-Cal you may be able to get cheaper Medi-Cal with a low monthly premium if you are working. Your job can be any job that pays you income, no matter how small. This program is called the “250% Working Disabled Medi-Cal” program. If you qualify, you will have to pay a monthly premium that goes up the more "countable earned income" that you have. These monthly premiums range from $20 to $250 for an individual and $30 to $375 for a couple (both receiving 250% benefits). Again, special income deductions and exemptions apply, so apply even if you think your income may be too high and check with the Health Consumer Center (800) 896-3203 or Legal Aid (see pg 68).

Share of Cost
Some people in “Non-MAGI” Medi-Cal programs must pay, or agree to pay, a “Share of Cost” for each month that they have a medical expense. Medi-Cal will then pay the rest of the bill for covered services that month.

You do not have a Share of Cost if:
• You are in one of the groups that receive free Medi-Cal (such as those getting CalWORKs, SSI, foster care, adoption assistance, MAGI Medi-Cal, or the Aged and Disabled programs)

If you have Medi-Cal with a Share of Cost, your Share of Cost starts over every month. You don’t have to pay anything in months that you have no medical expense. You can use your past medical bills and the
1. Share of Cost for Children

Some children whose family income is too high for free Medi-Cal can get Medi-Cal with a Share of Cost. (These families may qualify for an Advanced Premium Tax Credit under Covered California: see page 40.) An increase in income is not counted for children up to age 19 who are on no-cost Medi-Cal until their next scheduled annual redetermination. So, even if the child’s parents start making more money and the parents have to start immediately paying a Share of Cost as a result, the child still receives Medi-Cal for free until their next annual redetermination. Children whose family income is over the Medi-Cal limit should be screened for Covered California. Many children with share of cost have it by mistake. If your child has a Share of Cost call Health Consumer Center at (800) 896-3203 to find out if it is a mistake.

2. Share of Cost if you have "Non-MAGI" Medi-Cal

To find out your monthly Share of Cost, start with your gross monthly income. Include spouse or parent income, but not other people living in your house. Then subtract the need level for your family size on the chart on page 40. The balance is your monthly Share of Cost. For more information contact Legal Aid (Pg. 68). Adults under age 65 whose family income is over the Medi-Cal limit should be screened for Covered Cal. Many adults under age 65 with share of cost have it by mistake. If you have a share of cost call the Health Consumer Center (800) 896-3203 to find out if it is a mistake.

3. Share of Cost if you are over 65, blind or disabled

To find out your monthly Share of Cost, start by adding your earned and unearned income, and subtract $20. Then subtract the need level amount for your family size in the chart on page 40. For more information contact Legal Aid (Pg. 68).

4. Once a Year Eligibility Form

People receiving Medi-Cal need to renew their Medi-Cal every 12 months. If you have MAGI Medi-Cal DPSS will try to automatically renew your Medi-Cal. If they can’t you can send them a form in the mail that needs to be completed to reverify your eligibility. This is called the Annual Medi-Cal Renewal. If you have Non-MAGI Medi-Cal DPSS will send you the form.

DPSS must give you at least 20 days to complete and return the form. If you don’t return the completed form, DPSS will send you a notice of action that they will reduce or stop your Medi-Cal benefits. If your form is incomplete, DPSS must first try to contact you by telephone and writing to get missing information before it stops or reduces your benefits. The form and verification requested must be provided within 90 days. If you send in your form within 90 days of being cut from Medi-Cal, and that information show you were still eligible, DPSS must restore Medi-Cal benefits without making you reapply.

2. Reporting Changes for Adults

Adults must report to DPSS any significant changes that may affect their eligibility within 10 days of the change. You must quickly report to your worker if you move, begin making more money (or less money), someone moves in or out of your home or you are pregnant. Even if you report a change that hurts your eligibility, you have important rights before the DPSS cuts your Medi-Cal.

3. Losing Welfare Does Not Mean That You Lose Medi-Cal

If you leave CalWorks due to a sanction, time limit, or make too much money, you do not lose Medi-Cal. If you lose your Medi-Cal after you leave welfare, contact your worker to find out how to get back on Medi-Cal. If you need further help, call the Health Consumer Center at (800) 896-3203 or Legal Aid for help and advice.

4. Transitional Medi-Cal (TMC)

You might be eligible for up to one year of free (no Share of Cost) Medi-Cal (called Transitional Medi-Cal or TMC) if you lost CalWORKs or MAGI Medi-Cal for Parents and Caretaker Relatives because you started to work and are earning too much money. If you are eligible, during the first six months of TMC you and your family qualify for free Medi-Cal no matter how much income you have. After that, you remain eligible for TMC for the remaining six months if your income is not more than the limits in the TMC chart and if you comply with the reporting requirements.

Adults and children can get TMC for up to one year. You can receive TMC more than once in your lifetime, if you are receiving CalWORKs. If your income goes down you can qualify again for regular Medi-Cal. When children are no longer eligible for TMC they should be screened for the Medi-Cal Targeted Low-Income Health Program.

There are no “resource” or property limits for TMC. TMC requires regular reports like a SAR-7 for cash aid, but on a different form.

5. Four Month Continuing Medi-Cal

If an adult loses CalWORKs because he or she starts getting more child or spousal support, he or she can get free Continuing Medi-Cal, regardless of income, but just for four months. It is important that you turn in a change reporting form explaining why you are leaving CalWORKs to help make sure you get Transitional or Continuing Medi-Cal. The children’s free Medi-Cal continues until their next scheduled annual redetermination.

6. Former Foster Children

If you were in Foster Care on your 18th birthday, you may be automatically eligible for free Medi-Cal until you turn 26. To enroll, you can contact the Former Foster Youth Unit at (626) 313-5503 and (626) 313-5505. If you lose Medi-Cal, call the Alliance for Children’s Rights (213) 368-6010 or the Health Consumer Center at (800) 896-3203 for assistance.

7. Keep Medi-Cal until DPSS Proves You Are No Longer Eligible

DPSS must send you a written Notice of Action at least 10 days before it cuts off, denies, delays or reduces your Medi-Cal benefits. (See pg. 65 Hearings and Complaints).

If a change occurs that hurts your ability to get Medi-Cal, DPSS must determine if you are eligible for any other type of Medi-Cal, before sending you a notice of action cutting off your benefits. They have to look in your record for any missing necessary information. DPSS can send you a form that only asks for the information it needs; it cannot ask for information it already has or does not need to determine whether you are still eligible for Medi-Cal.

8. If You Move

Be sure to report your change of address to your eligibility worker. Keep using your Medi-Cal card. If you move to a new county, report the change to DPSS and also to the welfare office in the new county within 10 days. The counties should manage the transfer of your case. If you move to another county you may also have to change your managed care plan. To change your plan call Health Care Options at 1-800-430-4263.

9. If You Were Billed Twice for a Medi-Cal Covered Service

The doctor or health service provider cannot bill both you and Medi-Cal for the same care. If you think your doctor has billed you unfairly, you should contact the Health Consumer Center at (800) 896-3203 or Legal Aid (800) 399-4529.

10. Lost or Stolen Cards

Notify your worker and a replacement card will be sent to you. If there is a medical emergency, you may receive a written notice of eligibility at your welfare office. The doctor can also look up your eligibility using your social security number and birthdate.

How Do I Choose My Care?

There are two ways to receive your medical care under Medi-Cal: “Fee for service” (regular Medi-Cal), or Managed Care (Health Plan). These are also called HMOs (Health Maintenance Organizations). Most Medi-Cal participants must enroll in a Health Plan. Health Plans must provide all the same benefits provided by fee-for-service Medi-Cal.

Medi-Cal recipients who may, but do not have to, enroll in an Health Plan include:
• Children in foster care or the Adoption Assistance Program
• People in an Indian Health Service Program
• Pregnant women during their Presumptive Eligibility period, or after they enroll in Medi-Cal, depending on their income level.

Medi-Cal recipients who cannot enroll in a Medi-Cal Managed Care Health Plan:
• People who get Medi-Cal only for emergency and pregnancy related services (restricted Medi-Cal)
• Recipients with a Share of Cost, restricted Medi-Cal or who also have one of the following: private insurance, or CHAMPUS PRIME HMO.

2. Managed Care (“Health Plan”)

Medi-Cal requires that persons eligible to Medi-Cal with no share of cost join a managed care plan. Some exceptions apply. When you join a health plan, you must see the doctors, pharmacists and hospitals that are part of your plan. You must select a health plan and a primary care provider that is in the health plan. Unless you have an emergency, you must get approval for most of your care from your primary care provider. The health plan will receive money each month for your health care even if you don’t get services. The health plan is responsible for providing or making arrangements for you to get all Medi-Cal covered services. You should be contacted for an appointment to see your doctor within four months of joining the health plan. You can contact Health Care Options (HCO) at (800) 430-4263 to enroll or change plans.

After you are in a health plan, you may still use your Benefits Identification Card (BIC) to get family planning, dental, and mental health services outside of the health plan. For questions contact Legal Aid (pg. 68) or the Health Consumer Center (800) 896-3202.

3. Dental Care

Dental care comes with Medi-Cal and is fee-for-service in Los Angeles unless you choose to join a dental plan. You don’t get a separate dental card. In fee-for-service, you must get all your dental services from a dental provider willing to accept Medi-Cal. If you are in fee-for-service you can find a dentist by calling (800) 322-6384 Monday through Friday 8 am to 5 pm, or online at www.denti-cal.ca.gov. If you enroll in a dental plan, you will receive primary care from the dentist you selected. If you are in a dental plan and want to switch to fee for service dental care call Health Care Options at (800)430-4263 for help. All pregnant women on any kind of Medi-Cal are eligible for dental care, during pregnancy and the postpartum period.
4. How to Choose a Health Plan

When you first enroll in Medi-Cal you will get a packet in the mail from the state. The packet will contain a “Medi-Cal Choice Form” that must be filled out with the doctor and your health plan choice for each person in the family who is required to choose a health plan. Your packet will include a directory with some of the doctors, doctor groups, medical groups and health plan choices in your area. If you don’t see your doctor you can call Health Care Options and ask for a county or other area directory, or just call your clinic and ask which plans they take.

Fill out the “choice form” and send it back to Health Care Options within 30 days. Keep the pink copy of the form for your records. Mail the form in the postage paid envelope provided, or send the form by certified mail. If you don’t complete the form and return it within 30 days, the state will choose a health plan for you that may not be convenient for you.

To get a packet or more information, call Health Care Options at (800) 430-4263 or (800) 430-9009. The TDD line for hearing impaired is (800) 430-7077. If you have questions or problems call the Health Consumer Center at (800) 896-3203 for assistance. You may also get assistance in some DPSS offices.

It is very important to consult with any health care provider you already have and want to keep seeing before choosing a plan. You should also ask if you can keep going to the clinic, pharmacy and hospital that you want.

You and your other family members may choose to join the same health plan and choose the same doctor, called a “Primary Care Provider” (PCP), or you can choose different health plans and PCPs.

Once you select a health plan, you will be mailed a plastic health plan membership card to use when you need medical services. Enrollment usually takes 30-45 days. If you or your family need medical care before you receive the health plan card, you may use the regular State Medi-Cal Benefits Identification Card (BIC), or if you are already in an health plan and are just switching plans, use your current health plan until you are told you are in the new one.

People in the groups that may, but do not have to, enroll in a health plan will automatically get a packet in the mail even though they do not have to join a plan. You should not be asked to make a choice of a health plan when you apply or at your renewal. People who are already in a health plan when they apply for Medi-Cal should not get a packet in the mail. You may be asked to attend a “Health Care Options” talk. You do not have to go. If you go, you do not have to choose a plan that day unless you want to.

You will also receive a packet in the mail about dental managed care. Enrolling in a dental plan is optional; you don’t have to enroll. If you choose not to enroll, you can still use your Medi-Cal card with any dentist who accepts Denti-Cal to get dental services.

5. Medical Exemptions and Continuity of Care

Most participants must enroll in a health plan; unless you apply for and receive a “Medical Exemption” in order to keep regular fee for service Medi-Cal. You may be able to get an exemption if you have a “complex medical condition” such as pregnancy, kidney disease, diabetes, HIV/AIDS, cancer, asthma, or multiple sclerosis, or receive skilled nursing services at your home, AND if the doctor or clinic that treats you is not part of any available offered health plan and you would lose them if you joined a plan. The state is now making it very difficult to get medical exemptions. The state will instead ask the plan to offer the doctor a “Continuity of Care” contract with them for at least a year. Even if your doctor does not want to work with the plan, they may sign a contract to work just with you. You may need an advocate to assist you and your doctor. See “Good Advice (pg. 68) for advocate listing.

You and your doctor must fill out a form called “Request for Medical Exemption From Plan Enrollment” (which is in the packet that you get in the mail) and send it to the state. Do this before the date you would have choose a health plan. If the state denies your exemption, file an appeal. You should be able to stay in regular Medi-Cal while a decision is made on your appeal.

The exemption is good for up to 12 months. After the 12 months, you will get another packet in the mail to complete, or you must request another Medical Exemption.

6. Hearings, Grievances, and Leaving a Health Plan

If your health plan denies services or you are not satisfied with the services, you have many options. You can file a grievance with your health plan. Your health plan must tell you how to file a grievance. The health plan must resolve your grievance within 30 days, or less if you have an emergency. If you are still not satisfied complain in writing to the Department of Managed Health Care HMO Help Center, IMR Unit, 980 Ninth Street, Suite 500, Sacramento, CA 95814-2725. Their phone number is (888) 460-2219, TDD (877) 688-9891. Or you can go to their website at www.hmohelp.ca.gov.

Mandatory participants in health plans can change to a different plan for any reason. Voluntary participants can change plans or can go back to regular Medi-Cal for any reason. To change or leave a health plan, call Health Care Options at (800) 430-4263 and request a “choice form.”

If you want help with complaints and grievances call an advocacy group for assistance or call:

Health Care Consumer Center
(800) 896-3203

Managed Care Ombudsman
(888) 452-8609

Department of Managed Care
(888) HMO-2219

You can also find information online at http://www.dmhc.ca.gov/

You can call (800) 400-0815 if your health plan gives you problems. If your health plan is denying you care because it does not think it is medically necessary, but you disagree, you can ask for an independent medical review which is done by a group of doctors and professionals who do not work for your health plan.

You have the right to ask for a fair hearing, (see page 65, “Hearings and Complaints.”) While waiting for a state hearing, the health plan must continue to provide medical services to you, if you request the hearing before the effective date of the intended action.

7. Mental Health Managed Care

Mental Health services for Medi-Cal recipients are provided through managed care. See page 53 "Mental Health."
If you are between 12 and 21 years old, you can apply for “Minor Consent Services” to get free and confidential medical treatment without parental consent related to:

- Drug or alcohol abuse (except methadone treatment)
- Sexually transmitted infections and the medications for them
- Pregnancy and abortion
- Family planning
- Outpatient mental health (not overnight in a hospital)
- Sexual abuse

If you are under 21 and living with your parents, or temporarily away such as in school, you may apply for Minor Consent Medi-Cal to cover these specific services without your parents’ consent or knowledge. If you are a minor who is living on your own you may complete a regular Medi-Cal application.

Your parents won’t be required to give information about their income or resources or pay toward the medical services, unless you want Medi-Cal for services other than those listed above.

DPSS won’t tell your parents or send letters to your home without your permission. “Minor Consent Services” are available regardless of your immigration status and cover more services than restricted Medi-Cal.

To apply, go to a DPSS office and tell them you want Minor Consent, or there may be a DPSS Worker at the site where you are receiving care. You will have to fill out a new short form each month you need treatment, except for mental health services. For that, you need a letter from a mental health professional explaining that you meet certain conditions for getting mental health services and how long you will need treatment. You will still have to complete the short form each month to update your eligibility.

If you already get Medi-Cal through your parents’ case, you may already have a plastic Medi-Cal card, but do not use it for Minor Consent services.

The Customer Service Center currently provides services to 33 District offices with services in Armenian, Cambodian, English, Spanish, Vietnamese, Chinese, Farsi, Tagalog, Russian and Korean.

Health Care for Children

What Health Care Is There for Kids Under 19?

Medi-Cal For Children

Children birth to 19 years of age who are not eligible for the family based Medi-Cal programs will be enrolled in the Optional Targeted Low Income Children Program (OTLICP). The value of things you own ("resources") don’t count against you.

To be eligible for Medi-Cal’s Optional Targeted Low Income Children Program, the monthly income must be less than 266% of the Federal Poverty Level. See chart on page 40 for what that means. Families with income above 160% of the Federal Poverty Level will have to pay a monthly premium of $13 per child with a maximum payment of $39 per family for three or more children.

For information on immigration status and how to apply please see page 41 in the Medi-Cal section. Note: Under state law SB75 all children with family income less than 266% FPL (see chart on page 40) are now eligible for full scope Medi-Cal regardless of immigration status.

What Other Programs Are There?

1. Child Health and Disability Program (CHDP)

CHDP provides free early and regular health exams for many low-income children up to 19 years of age; Medi-Cal eligible children up to 21 years of age; and Head Start and State preschool children. There are no immigration requirements, however, visits are allowed based on a timetable or “periodicity schedule”, with some exceptions for physical exams needed for school, for children in foster care and for problems that might occur between screenings. Children in Medi-Cal Managed Care can get more screenings than the state's schedule allows. CHDP offers physical exams, immunizations, vision and hearing testing, lead poisoning testing, nutritional check, teeth and gum check, and some lab tests including sickle cell. For more information call (800) 993-2437.

2. California Children's Services

Children’s Medical Services (or California Children’s Services) case manages and provides health services for children up to age 21 with eligible major medical conditions caused by accidents, diseases, and congenital disabilities, whether or not the children also have Medi-Cal. Undocumented children may qualify if their parents live in Los Angeles County. For eligibility information, call (800-288-4584). Service providers are all over the county.

Family income must be less than $40,000 per year or may be greater if the child has free Medi-Cal or their CCS related medical expenses are expected to be more than 20% of the family's income.

There is no family income limit for children who need services to confirm a CCS-eligible medical condition; or were adopted with a known CCS-eligible medical condition; or are applying only for services through the Medical Therapy Program; or if they are Medi-Cal beneficiaries with no share of cost.
In an emergency, it is a legal and ethical duty for every clinic or hospital emergency room to provide emergency care, regardless of immigration status or ability to pay. Know your rights and ask for the help you need (Veterans see pg 27). Non-citizens with restricted Medi-Cal coverage who live in L.A. County can apply for ATP or MHLA to cover non-emergency care (see pg 50).

How Do I Get Care if I Don’t Qualify for Medi-Cal?

The County provides free or low-cost health services to people who can show proof that they live in L.A. County including low-income people who are not eligible for Medi-Cal or who have medical expenses that Medi-Cal, Medicare, and private insurance will not fully cover.

Many people qualify for free care under the “Ability To Pay” (ATP) plan or My Health LA (MHLA).

County hospitals and clinics also offer a payment program called “Pre-Payment”. The county contracts with over 100 community clinics called “Community Partners” who provide free clinic care for you if your income is low (see charts below.)

If you qualify for free care, you should not be asked to pay any fee by a community clinic, county clinic or hospital. You should receive the same quality of care as those who pay.

1. Do I Qualify for Free Care under ATP or My Health LA?

You can get free hospital and clinic care through MHLA or ATP if your gross monthly income (after special deductions) is below the following chart:

<thead>
<tr>
<th># in Family</th>
<th>Income</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>$1397</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>$1893</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>$2390</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>$2887</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>$3384</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>$3881</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(As of 2018)

If your income is higher than these amounts and you receive care at a County facility you may have to pay a reduced rate for services, depending upon your income.

2. How Do I Apply for MHLA or ATP?

You may be eligible for MHLA if:
• You are a Los Angeles County resident.
• You are 19 years of age or older
• You are not pregnant.
• You have no health care coverage
• You meet monthly income limits. (see above for income limits)

Benefits at no cost to you include:
• Preventive and primary care services within 30 working days
The worker immediately or you may be refused if you apply again. If you were found ineligible to receive ATP, you may appeal to the County's Out of County Discount Payment Plan. If the worker or the clinic screener you see at the hospital or clinic, they should give you a written notice regarding available services. They may apply for the Pre-Payment Plan.

3. Pre-Payment Plan

The Pre-Payment Plan is only available at County clinics and hospitals. It covers the full cost of care if you pay the standard fees within seven days of treatment. You do not have to prove your income, family size, or resources if you pay the following standard fees within seven days of treatment:

- $80 at all County Comprehensive Care Centers, County Hospital Outpatient Clinics, and Public Health Centers;
- $60 at prenatal visits;
- $80 at County Comprehensive Health Center Urgent Care Centers;
- $140 at County Hospital Emergency Rooms;
- $50 at Hospital Outpatient Surgery Clinics;
- Most Community Partner clinics also offer a sliding scale for patients who don't qualify for free care.

4. What Else Should I Know?

If you have any questions about your care, you can call the Health Consumer Hotline: (800) 896-3202. You can also call the Health Consumer Hotline: (800) 896-3202.

• If you receive free or low cost medical care, your medicines are free.
• Non-citizens with restricted Medi-Cal coverage who live in L.A. County can apply for ATP or MHLA to cover non-emergency care.
• Before using ATP, you must use any other medical benefits you have such as private insurance, or out patient Medicare. ATP will cover your deductible for private insurance, but will not cover inpatient Medicare deductibles and Medi-Cal "Share of Cost".
• Foreign visitors with a valid visa can receive emergency services at County hospitals and clinics, but are not entitled to ATP, Pre-Pay or MHLA for

The People's Guide 2018 medical services. They may apply for the County's Out of County Discount Payment Plan.

5. Cancer Detection Program: Every Woman Counts (EWC)

EWC provides free mammograms for women age 40 and over and free pap smears for women over age 21. Your family income must be below 200% of poverty. The services are provided at doctors' offices, clinics and hospitals all over Los Angeles County. Call the Cancer Detection Program at (800) 511-2300.

If you believe you need mental health services, you can call the Local Mental Health Plan's 24-hour "Access Center," at (800) 854-7771, which can screen and evaluate your request for mental health services and refer you to a mental health provider. County Mental Health authorizes and can provide treatment including Medi-Cal "specialty mental health services" for all Medi-Cal recipients.

County Mental Health also authorizes and provides Medi-Cal recipients with other services to help them live and function in the community, including "EPSDT" services for children on Medi-Cal.

If you do not have Medi-Cal or other health insurance, you can receive mental health services from County Mental Health. You are charged a fee based on a sliding scale, depending on your ability to pay. Therapists can request that the fee be waived if the fee will cause stress and hardship.

Developmental Services

Children and adults who are developmentally disabled due to Down's Syndrome cerebral palsy, epilepsy, autism, have other qualifying conditions, or who are high-risk children up to age 3, may qualify for services through Regional Centers.

California residents who are undocumented may be eligible. To apply call one of the listed Regional Centers and ask for "Intake." If you are found not eligible for these services, they must explain why.

In Home Supportive Services and Long Term Care

1. In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS)
The In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) Program helps pay for services provided to eligible aged, blind or disabled individuals, including children, to enable them to remain safely in their own homes. IHSS is considered an alternative to out-of-home care such as nursing homes or board and care facilities. You may qualify if you:

- Are blind, disabled, or over 65;
- Receive Medi-Cal or SSI;
- Live at home and need the services to remain there;
- Do not live in an acute care hospital, long-term care facility, or licensed community care facility; and
- Submit a completed Health Care Certification form.

Services which may be authorized include personal care (such as bowel and bladder care, bathing, grooming and paramedical services), meal preparation, laundry, grocery shopping, housecleaning, accompaniment to medical appointments and protective supervision for the mentally impaired. Services may sometimes be provided by a spouse or by the parent of a minor, with some restrictions.

If you do not currently receive SSI or Medi-Cal, you will be automatically referred to a Medi-Cal Office to be evaluated for Medi-Cal eligibility when your IHSS application is taken.

IHSS applications are taken by telephone. You, or someone calling for you, may apply by calling toll free from anywhere in L.A. County at (888) 944-4477 or (213) 744-4477.

Once you apply for IHSS, a Social Worker will make an appointment to come to your home to determine if you are eligible and what services IHSS may provide for you. Based on your ability to safely perform certain tasks for yourself, the Social Worker will assess the types of IHSS services you need and authorize an amount of time for each one. The assessment of need includes information given by you and, if appropriate, by your family, friends, physician or other health care practitioner.

You will be notified in writing, in a Notice of Action, if IHSS has been approved or denied. If denied, you will be notified of the reason for denial. If approved, you will be notified of the services and how many hours per month have been authorized for you.

If approved for IHSS, you must hire someone (your IHSS provider) to perform the authorized services. You, the IHSS consumer, are considered your provider’s employer. It is your responsibility to hire, train, supervise, and if necessary, fire this individual.

If you need assistance locating a provider, call the Personal Assistance Services Council (PASC). The PASC is the Public Authority for Los Angeles County. They operate a registry to provide referrals for IHSS consumers and providers. You may contact PASC at (877) 565-4477 for more information.

IHSS consumers who need assistance in locating a provider can also contact the Service Employees International Union, United Long-Term Care Worker (ULTCW) Homecare Exchange Registry. The ULTCW union operates a registry for IHSS consumers and providers. You may contact the Homecare Exchange Registry by calling 1-866-544-5742.

IHSS providers receive at least $11.18 per hour effective February 2017. The State of California issues the checks for provider payments. You and your provider must complete, sign, date, and submit in the timesheets, to verify that the work was done. Effective November 2017, consumers and providers have the option of enrolling in Electronic Timesheets if they wish to submit their timesheets online instead of mailing their timesheets. Although not required, Electronic Timesheets enrollment is encouraged as it decreases the time for a provider to receive payment for hours worked.

Severely impaired persons may be eligible for an advance payment to pay a provider. Ask the IHSS Social Worker during the assessment for more information.

For help with problems or questions, call your IHSS office at the number below:

- Burbank, Chatsworth, Lancaster, Rancho
  Dominguez: (888) 822-9622
- El Monte: (888) 322-2204
- Hawthorne: (866) 512-2856
- Metro: (866) 512-2857
- Pomona: (866) 465-0905

For information on how to request a Fair Hearing about the number of hours approved by the IHSS Social Worker, refer to the back of your Notice of Action. If you misplaced your Notice of Action, contact your Social Worker and ask him/her to provide you with a copy.

2. Long Term Care
If you are caring for someone that a doctor has recommended for 24-hour nursing care for a long period of time, call the Long Term Care District at (626) 854-4987 or (213) 744-4765. The State Central Registry at (800) 700-7575 will give you three referrals to long term care facilities.

www.californiaregistry.com

There is a difference between board and care facilities and nursing facilities. Medi-Cal will pay for long term care in a nursing facility but not in a board and care home. Before you send someone to any kind of long term care facility, you should visit the places and inspect them thoroughly. If you are not happy with the referrals you can call again for more. For assistance with finding a nursing facility or advocating for a client in a nursing facility contact California Advocate For Nursing Home Reform at (800) 474-1116.
Medicare

Medicare is a federal health insurance program. There are three parts to the program: “Part A” (hospital insurance), “Part B” (medical insurance), and “Part D” (prescription drug insurance). For general information call (800) 633 4227.

Can I Get Medicare?

1. Part A : Hospital Insurance

You are automatically eligible for Medicare Part A free of charge if you are one of the following:
- You are 65 or older and are eligible for Social Security retirement benefit based on your own or your spouse’s employment
- You are a federal employee who retired after 1982 and have enough quarters of coverage
- You have been receiving Social Security Disability Income payments for 24 consecutive months
- You are age 50 or older and are a disabled widow or widower who has received Social Security through your spouse for at least 2 years
- You have end-stage kidney disease, regardless of your age (you still must have worked enough quarters, however, even though you don’t need to be 65.)
- You have Lou Gerhig’s disease (ALS). (You still must have worked enough quarters, even though you don’t need to be 65.)

People who are not automatically eligible for Medicare Part A may enroll voluntarily if you meet all of the following three requirements:
- You are 65 or older
- You are a U.S. citizen, or a legal alien who has resided in the U.S. continuously for at least five years
- You purchase both Parts A and B of Medicare, or you purchase Part B only. You may not purchase Part A only.

If you meet these three requirements for voluntary Part A, the amount of monthly premiums you will pay will depend upon how many work quarters you have on record with Social Security. If you have between 30 and 39 quarters, your monthly Part A premium is $232. If you have less than 30 quarters, your monthly Part A premium is $422.

2. Part B : Medical Insurance

If you meet the eligibility guidelines for Part A, you will be eligible for Part B. The standard Part B monthly premium is $121.80. The premium is lower for those enrolled prior to 2016. The premium is higher if your income is $85,000 or more for an individual and $170,000 or more for a married couple.

If you have a low income and low resources, the state may pay for your Medicare premiums under Medi-Cal or the Medicare Savings Program.

3. Part B Coverage

Part B pays 80% of “allowable” charges for a variety of outpatient care. You pay the remaining 20%, an annual deductible of $183 (in 2018) and a 15% excess charge if the provider does not take “Medicare assignment.”

Doctors and other Part B providers who accept Medicare assignment agree to charge no more than the Medicare approved charge. This means that you can be charged only for the 20% co-payment and any unpaid portion of the annual Part B deductible. Ask your provider if he or she will accept assignment.

4. Part D Coverage

Part D pays for outpatient drug coverage. To obtain Part D coverage, you must enroll into a Medicare Part D drug plan. There are two types of Part D plans: PDPs that only provide Medicare drug coverage and Medicare Advantage Plans that provide Medicare Part A, B and D benefits. There is a standard Part D benefit package, however, not all Part D plans are the same. Each plan has its own drug formulary, cost sharing requirements and restrictions on coverage. If you are low income and need help paying for your Part D premium and drug co-pays contact Medicare and apply for Extra Help: 1-800-772-1213 or online at https://secure.ssa.gov/i1020/start or call the Center For Healthcare Rights at: (800) 824-0780

5. Medicare Advantage HMOs

A Medicare Advantage HMO is a health insurance plan that enrolls Medicare beneficiaries who have both Medi-care Parts A and B. Medicare HMOs must provide the same benefits as original Medicare. Persons who have Medi-care end stage renal disease (kidney failure) cannot enroll into a Medicare HMO. When you join a Medicare HMO, you must use the HMO for all of your medical care, except for emergencies or urgent care when you are out of the HMO’s service area. Medicare pays the HMO a fixed monthly amount for each enrollee.

6. Other Information

Many people receive both Medicare and Medi-Cal. (see page 41 “Medi-Cal”) People who have both programs do not have to pay Medicare’s monthly premiums, deductibles, or co-payments when they see a provider that accepts Medi-Cal. If you have both Medicare and Medi-Cal, you should see health care providers that take both Medicare and Medi-Cal to avoid being charged any cost sharing amounts. If possible, show your insurance cards before you receive services.
A new law requires people who have both Medicare and Medi-Cal to assign their Medi-Cal to a managed care plan. You will also be given the choice to assign both your Medicare and your Medi-Cal to a Cal Mediconnect plan. If you do, your Medicare and Medi-Cal will both be assigned to the same plan. If you don't want your Medicare assigned to a plan, you must NOT choose a Cal Mediconnect plan, but you still must choose a managed care plan for your Medi-Cal. If you do this you do not have to go to the Medi-Cal managed care plan doctors. The Medi-Cal plan is only responsible for paying your Medicare cost sharing and providing you with non-Medicare covered benefits such as non-emergency transportation.

If your income is too high for free Medi-Cal you might qualify for a Medicare Savings Program to help pay your Part A or Part B premiums. Contact the Center for Health Care Rights(800) 824-0780

You should also know the following:
• Always carry Medicare card with you
• Contact the Social Security office immediately if you lose your card or don’t get one
• Appeal any incorrect or unfair decision about your Medicare benefits (see page 67 “Hearings and Complaints”)

Where Can I Get Help if I’m Homeless?

Unfortunately, if you are homeless in Los Angeles, there is no guarantee of housing or shelter, and the existing shelters are often full. In 2018, both the City of LA and the County of LA are building more shelters and coordinating more resources for homeless people.

1. Finding Help

The LA County Housing Resource Center can assist residents in locating housing resources for affordable, special needs, and emergency housing. To access their rental listings and assistance visit www.housing.lacounty.gov or call (877) 428-8844.

The Homeless Help Desk at 200 N. Los Angeles St. is open Monday through Friday 8 am to 4 pm and Saturday from 8 am to noon. They can help you locate shelters, hygiene stations, medical help, food, or bathrooms. On certain "Connect Days" you can meet with workers there to help you get an ID card or find housing solutions.

Year Round and Winter Shelters :

LAHSA (LA Homeless Services Authority)

Hotline: (213) 225-6581 Monday through Friday: 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Winter Shelters: (800) 548-6047 TDD: 1-(800) 660-4026 (for the deaf and hearing disabled) for shelter locations and pick-up points for free transportation to shelter. These shelters are usually operated by the City and county of Los Angeles from the beginning of November until the end of March. Some of the shelters now operate all year long. Winter Shelters are not able to serve families.

InfoLine: Call (211) or (800) 339-6993

Internet: 211la.org

WIN: What I Need by Our Children LA is a free mobile and web app helping homeless or needy youth aged 12 to 25 locate essential services including shelter.

The conditions at shelters vary widely. They can generally make their own rules about who can stay and how long they can stay. At the shelters which are funded by the government, such as the Winter Shelters, there has to be a written grievance procedure you can go through if you feel you have been treated unfairly, or that conditions are not safe or healthy there. You can file these grievances with: Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority (LAHSA), 811 Wilshire Blvd, 6th Floor, LA 90017.

Legal Issues If You’re On the Street

1. If You Are Living in Your Car

In early 2017 The City of Los Angeles began enforcing a new law that heavily restricts sleeping in a vehicle. These restrictions include, but are not limited to, living or sleeping in your vehicle in a residential area between 9 pm and 6 am; and living in a vehicle is prohibited at all times within one block, or 500 feet, of schools, pre-schools, daycare facilities, and parks. You can be fined $25 to $250 for violating this law (not including court fees).

You can be allowed to sleep in your vehicle in a commercial or industrial area - not, however, in these areas where there are existing parking restrictions.

Safe Parking (213) 793-8493 can find you a place where you can park your car and stay overnight, with security and access to bathroom.

2. Homeless Citation Defense Clinics

Through two monthly citation defense clinics (one in Downtown LA and another on Venice Beach), homeless residents can receive legal assistance and defense for all quality-of-life infraction citations - including tickets related to sleeping/living in a tent or on the streets, jay walking, riding your bicycle on the wrong side of the street, etc. Tickets that cannot receive assistance include moving violations, MTA fare evasion tickets, and all misdemeanors and felonies.

The Downtown LA Skid Row Citation Defense Clinic is open every 3rd Wednesday of the month at 5:30pm at the Los Angeles Community Action Network - 838 E. 6th Street 90021. Individuals must bring their citation or a copy of their citation with them. For more information contact erica@cangress.org.

Can I Get Low Cost Housing?

The federal government has a few subsidized housing programs. Each of these programs has various income and resource requirements and require you to provide information regarding your family income and makeup. It is important to document all your attempts to comply with the program requirements because you can be terminated from the program if you do not comply.

In general, there are two types of programs: project-based and voucher-based. Project-based programs are ones where the housing benefit is connected to a specific unit. Voucher-based programs are ones where the housing benefit is connected to a specific household.

1. Project-Based Programs

There are many types of project-based subsidized housing. Many of these projects advertise their availability and you can apply directly at the building or at a leasing office. Most of the time, the best way to get into this kind of housing is to go through special programs offered by community agencies that will help you get into housing when you finish the program. There is not enough project based housing for everyone who needs it, so there are wait lists.

We have listed three of the most common programs below and on the next page. For more information about what type(s) of programs you may qualify for, you can ask a caseworker at one of the agencies.

Conventional Public Housing

The buildings that are part of this program are owned and operated by local Public Housing Authorities. These are often very large buildings or complexes and the people who work at them are government employees. Rent is usually between 30-40% of the household’s income. To apply for conventional public housing, you should contact the housing complex directly.
Housing

Project-Based Section 8
For project-based Section 8, private landlords have agreed to reserve certain units for Section 8. Project-based Section 8 means that you must live in one of these assigned units to get the benefit. Unlike conventional public housing, your landlord is a private owner, not a Housing Authority.

Shelter Plus Care
Shelter Plus Care provides affordable housing and supportive services. You are required to participate in the supportive services to be part of this program. You may be eligible for this program if you are homeless; have a mental illness and/or AIDS; or have a substance abuse problem.

2. Voucher-Based Programs

Section 8 Vouchers
Section 8 vouchers are offered by the local government (the Housing Authority). They allow you to stay in any apartment or house where the landlord will accept them. You pay a limited portion of the rent (usually between 30-40% of your income). The Housing Authority pays the rest directly to your landlord.

You have the same rights as other tenants renting from private landlords, including any local rent control laws. You also have additional special protections. Your landlord cannot evict you without a reason. Your landlord also has to give at least 90 days written notice if they want to stop accepting Section 8 Vouchers.

When you receive a Section 8 Voucher you will have a limited time to find a landlord who will accept it, or you will have to return the voucher. Once you find a place, the Housing Authority must inspect the unit to make sure that it is up to their standards. The entire process may take up to several months.

The Section 8 Voucher waiting lists are currently closed for the city of Los Angeles, county of Los Angeles, and city of Long Beach. To find out if the waiting list is open in other cities, contact their local Housing Authority directly. You can also ask a caseworker at a shelter or resource agency about any special program that can provide you a Section 8 Voucher when you complete the program.

AIDS Project Los Angeles (213) 201-1600
Alexandria House (Women and Children) (213) 381-2649

Shelter Plus Care
Shelter Plus Care also has some vouchers. The requirements for Shelter Plus Care Vouchers are the same as the requirements for the Shelter Plus Care project-based program. Ask at shelters or other housing resource agencies.

3. Low-Income Housing Tax Credit
Some private owners participate in the Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC). In this program, private landlords reserve some of their units to offer at affordable rates. Eligibility for the units is based on income, and each unit has a set rent amount. For more information about this program, you should contact the individual owners or management offices directly.

Foreclosures

1. Help for Homeowners in Danger of Foreclosure
Many people who are in danger of losing their homes due to foreclosure have turned to loan modification or foreclosure “rescue” companies for help – only to realize they’ve been scammed. Anyone can become a victim of a loan modification scam. Don’t sign any papers from groups you are not sure about.

If you are facing foreclosure and want assistance, you can contact a housing counselor for advice at: (888) 995-HOPE (4673) or www.makinghomeaffordable.gov

There are also local groups that are available to provide advice. Below is a list of some of the groups in Los Angeles the government has approved. For information for another city, visit the Department of Housing and Urban Development’s website at www.hud.gov.

East LA Community Corporation (ELACC) (323) 269-4214 www.elacc.org

2. Renters Living in Buildings that were Foreclosed

If you are living in a building that was foreclosed, you still have rights. The new owner must give you a 90-day notice to move in most situations. If you have a lease, you may be able to stay until the term of your lease ends. Some cities may have local rules that provide additional protection. In the City of Los Angeles, for example, you cannot be evicted from a building solely because it was foreclosed upon and there is a new owner. You should contact a local renter’s rights group for more information. (See “What Are My Rights As A Renter” next column).

Foster Youth Housing Options

If you are in the foster care system now, or were in the system between your 16th and 19th birthdays, there are several housing options available to you. Even if you were in the juvenile probation system, but were living in a suitable placement (meaning you were placed by the court somewhere other than with your parents) between the ages of 16 or 19 – you might be able to get housing at least for a while. The system is complicated but you can call these numbers for help and advice:

- Youth Development Services (877) 694-5741 or (877) MY ILP 411 www.ilponline.org
- The Alliance for Children's Rights (213) 368-6010 kids-alliance.org
- The Alliance for Children's Rights (213) 368-6010 or Department of Children and Family Services (213) 351-0100

Some housing options for foster youth:
- If you are in the foster care system and turn 18, you have the option to continue in care until you turn 21 years old.
- If you are a former foster youth between the ages of 18 and 21 and your case closed after your 18th birthday, you may be eligible to exit and re-enter foster care as many times as you need to before you turn 21 years old.
- If you're 16 or 17 and still in care - you may qualify for the Transitional Housing Placement Program (THPP).
- If you are no longer in foster care or probation, but you lived in a foster home, group home or with a relative sometime between your 16th and 19th birthday, you may be able to get help from the Transitional Housing Program (THP).
- If you aged out of foster care or probation systems after your 18th birthday, you might be able to get help from the Transitional Housing Program Plus (THP+).

All of these options come with conditions. Call the Alliance for Children's Rights at (213) 368-6010 or Department of Children and Family Services (213) 351-0100.

2. Bad Conditions

You have the right to live in a place without bad conditions, which are things like:
- Holes in the wall
- Broken or faulty plumbing
- Electricity doesn't work
- Broken or faulty heating
- Rats, roaches, or other pests
- Inadequate hot water

If your unit has problems, you should tell your landlord about them and request that they be fixed. You should make your request in writing and keep a copy of your written request for yourself. Take pictures to document bad conditions. If your landlord does not fix the problems, there are a few things you can do or agencies you can contact:

- Los Angeles County Department of Consumer Affairs (888) 700-9995 For problems like vermin, rats, roaches, bedbugs; peeling paint or lack of screens. Also, for questions regarding withholding rent, repair and deduct, and abandonment remedies.

- Los Angeles Housing and Community Investment Department (HCID) Systematic Code Enforcement Program (SCEP) (866) 557-RENT  (866) 557-7368 For complaints regarding plumbing and electrical; lack of water or heat; illegal utility shutoff, in the city of Los Angeles.

For other cities, check the Internet. If you think the conditions pose an imminent threat to your health or safety, you can ask the housing inspector to refer your case to the Urgent Repair Program (in LA.)

Getting Your Landlord to Fix the Problem

If your landlord will not fix problems, you should give written notice of the problem, wait 30 days, and have proof of the problem. Then you have the right to repair the problem yourself and deduct the cost from your rent. It must be a problem affecting your health or safety, not just something you want to change in the apartment. If you withhold your rent, your landlord may try to evict you. It is very important that you keep copies of everything relating to the problem. You should get legal advice or support before withholding any rent. If you do not want... to withhold rent, you can also go to Small Claims Court to try to get the money back. If your landlord has been cited by the Department of Building and Safety, Housing Department, or Health Department, and repairs have not been made within 60 days, you can go to Small Claims Court on your own without an attorney. The small claims judge can order the landlord to make the repairs. Ask the judge about Civil Code Section 942.4 in cases like this.

If you are looking to recover money for damaged personal property, repairs that you made, or bad conditions, you can file a case in Small Claims Court for up to $10,000.

3. Rent Control

If you live in the city of Los Angeles in a rental unit that has two or more units on the lot, and was built on or before October 1, 1978, your unit might be under rent control. This gives you even more protections than state law. Your landlord can only evict you for a very limited number of reasons. Your rent can only be increased by a set percentage, which the city decides.

For more information contact:
Los Angeles Housing and Community Investment Department (866) 557-RENT (866) 557-7368 www.lacity.org/lahd

You can also call the Housing and Community Investment Department to make a complaint if you think your landlord violated the rent control rules.

If you are not in a rent control unit, your rent may be increased by any amount with a written notice. If it is increased by 10% or less, then you should get a 30-day notice. If it is more than 10%, then you should get a 30-day notice to vacate. You can get help preparing your answer.

Other Rent Control Information:
Santa Monica (310) 458-8751
West Hollywood (323) 848-6450
Other Cities: Call your city hall or the city website on the Internet

4. Evictions

If you are not in a rent controlled unit, you can be evicted for no reason, but you must be given a 30-day notice if you have lived in the unit for less than a year or a 60-day notice if you have lived in your unit for a year or more. You can also be evicted from either a rent controlled or non-rent controlled unit for a good reason. Subsidized units (like Section 8 or project-based units) may have different notice periods. To best assure that you do not lose your housing, it is important to seek legal advice about your notice before the notice period has run out (expired).

When you have received a 30/60 day notice to vacate, you are still responsible for paying the rent on time. If you do not pay the rent, the landlord may proceed with a much shorter notice against you, usually a 3-day notice. Additionally, security deposits may not be used in place of last month’s rent, unless the landlord agrees to do so, in writing.

Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles (800) 399-4529.

Eviction Process

1. Written Notice: in most cases, you must receive a notice in writing. The most common notices are a 3-day notice to pay rent or quit, a 3 Day Notice to Perform (or Cure) Covenant or Quit, or a 30- or 60-day notice to vacate.

2. Summons & Complaint: This is the lawsuit, or Unlawful Detainer (UD). You have five days to answer it.

3. Sheriff’s 5-Day Notice to Vacate: If you don’t answer your summons and complaint or you lose in court, you will get a 5-day notice to vacate. If you do not move out, you will be locked out by the sheriff sometime after the five days.

If your case is filed in another courthouse, there may be a Self-Help Center where you can get help preparing your answer.

If you are being evicted and your case was filed at the downtown Stanley Mosk Courthouse, visit:
Eviction Assistance Center (EAC) 111 North Hill St., Room 115, LA, 90011. EAC staff can assist you with filing an answer, and provide full representation in some cases, free of charge.

You may also contact the following organizations for assistance with an eviction:
Legal Aid Foundation - 800-399-4529
Bet Tzedek - 323-939-0506
Neighborhood Legal Services of Los Angeles County (818) 896-5211 Organizations that offer low-cost assistance.
BASTA (213) 736-5050
Eviction Defense Network (213) 385-8112

5. Illegal Lockout

Landlords cannot lock you out without first going to court, even if you are late on paying rent. If your landlord locks you out without using the eviction process, you should immediately call your local police department or LA Sherriff’s Department. When the police respond to your call, you should show them some proof that you are a tenant (receipts, ID, etc.). Ask them to tell your landlord to let you back in. If the police officer does not respond, you should call the police or sherriffs and ask to speak to the watch commander.

6. 28 Day Shuffle

If you have lived in a residential hotel for over 30 days, you are a tenant and can only be evicted through a legal eviction. You should not be asked to move rooms or leave for a few days every 28 (or 21) days. If this happens, you should file a complaint with the Los Angeles Housing Community and Investment Department (866) 557-RENT.

(866) 557-7368. If you are locked out, you should call the police and show them your receipts. If you leave voluntarily, it is not a shuffle.

7. Housing Discrimination

If you are discriminated against in trying to buy or rent property, or use services provided to other tenants, because of your race, color, religion, sex, nationality, disability, or because you are married or unmarried, or have children, call:
Southern California Housing Rights Center (213) 387-8400
California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (800) 884-1684 (800) 700-2320 (TDD Line)

Service or Assistance Animals:
The Fair Housing Act requires landlords to provide reasonable accommodations to persons with disabilities who have assistance animals. There is an exception if the specific animal in question poses a threat to others’ health or safety, or would cause substantial physical damage. If you are being discriminated against due to having a service or assistance animal, contact:
Disability Rights Legal Center www.disabilityrightslegalcenter.org
800 S. Figueroa St., #1120, LA 90017 (213) 736-1334 213-736-8310 TTD
If you have questions about immigration or benefits for immigrants, or if the government has treated you differently just because you don’t speak English, speak limited English, or of the way you look or because you are from a particular country, please call one of the agencies listed on page 64 (“Help with Immigration Questions”).

Child Arrivals

Certain young people who were brought to the United States as young children, do not present a risk to national security or public safety, and meet several key criteria will be considered for relief from being removed from the country. Those who demonstrate that they meet the criteria will be eligible to receive deferred action for a period of two years, subject to renewal, and will be eligible to apply for work authorization.

This law is called Deferred Action for Child Arrivals (DACA). You are possibly eligible for deferred action if you can prove with documentation that you:

1. Were under the age of 31 as of June 15, 2012;
2. Came to the United States before reaching your 16th birthday;
3. Have continuously resided in the United States since June 15, 2007, up to the present time;
4. Were physically present in the United States on June 15, 2012, and at the time of making your request for consideration of deferred action with USCIS;
5. Had no lawful status on June 15, 2012;
6. Are currently in school, have graduated or obtained a certificate of completion from high school, have obtained a general education development (GED) certificate, or are an honorably discharged veteran of the Coast Guard or Armed Forces of the United States; and
7. Have not been convicted of a felony, significant misdemeanor, or three or more other misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.

Although the Trump administration has talked about ending DACA, as of March 2018 the USCIS is still processing DACA applications. No one knows if the DACA program will be terminated, or what will happen with the information already submitted by those in DACA. You should consult an organization to help you decide whether to apply. See page 64 “Help with Immigration Questions” for groups that can provide advice or visit website: County Office of Immigrant Affairs http://oia.lacounty.gov/

Deferred Action

Can Immigrants Get Benefits?

Certain government programs are not available to all low income immigrants who are lawfully present in the U.S. However, even if you are undocumented, you can apply for CalFresh (Food Stamps) or CalWORKs for other family members who may be eligible (like for your children born in the U.S.-they are U.S. citizens).

If you are an immigrant who has become a U.S. citizen through naturalization, you must be treated the same as other U.S. citizens when you apply for benefits.

Anyone, Even if Undocumented, Can Apply for These Programs:

- Prenatal Care
- Restricted Scope Medi-Cal
- Minor Consent Medi-Cal
- Regional Centers
- California Children’s Services
- CHDP and CHDP Gateway
- Immunizations for kids
- My Health LA
- Women, Infants & Children (WIC)
- School Breakfast & Lunch
- Summer Food
- Public Education
- Help from Food Pantries
- Help from Shelters
- Services from many Non-Profit Agencies

These programs don’t require satisfactory immigration status and if you are undocumented, you may still qualify. If anyone asks you about your immigration status, be careful. You do not need to tell anyone that you or anyone else who lives with you is undocumented. Your workers do not need to ask about your immigration status if you are not getting benefits for yourself. If they do ask you, simply tell them that you are a “not qualified” immigrant (“not qualified” is not the same as undocumented). That is all they need to know.

If You Don’t Speak English or Speak Limited English

If you do not speak English, or speak limited English and you need to apply for benefits such as CalWORKs, Medi-Cal, GR, CAPI or CalFresh, you have the right to receive interpretive services free of charge. The Department of Public Social Services (DPSS), the Department of Health Services (DHS), and the Social Security Administration must provide you with a worker who speaks your language or connect you to a telephone interpreter service, at no cost to you. You may also have the right to have written materials interpreted in your language.

DPSS now assigns a supervisor in every office to serve as the District Immigrant Liaison. You should call the District Immigrant Liaison if:

- you are denied assistance because you are not a citizen, even though you are eligible
- you do not receive a free interpreter
- there is a delay or any other problem because you speak limited English
- ask for the District Immigrant Liaison at the nearest welfare office, in person or by telephone (see pg. 70).
Who Can Get Benefits?

1. Who are "Qualified" and "Non Qualified" Immigrants?

The government divides immigrants into "qualified" and "non qualified" immigrants. You have to check the guidelines for each program to see which immigrants are eligible. The names are misleading, because "Qualified" immigrants are not necessarily eligible for programs, and "Not qualified" immigrants may still be able to apply in different programs.

"Qualified" immigrants include:
- Lawful permanent residents ("green card")
- Refugees
- Asylees
- Persons granted withholding of deportation or removal
- Cuban and Haitian entrants
- Amerasian, Iraqi or Afghan special immigrants
- Persons paroled into the U.S. for at least one year
- Conditional entrants
- Victims of trafficking
- Certain spouses and children who are victims of domestic violence.
- Veterans, active duty military and their spouse or unremarried surviving spouse or children

2. Which Immigrants Can Get SSI?

If you are a low-income non-citizen in the U.S. who has a disability, is blind, or over 65 years old, you can get SSI if you meet all the usual requirements of the program, AND you meet these conditions for your immigration status:

- You are a refugee, Amerasian immigrant, Cuban or Haitian entrant, federally certified victim of trafficking or a T visa holder, asylee, or were granted withholding of deportation/removal, (but only during the seven years after getting this status. If it has been more than 7 years and you do not qualify for SSI based on any other grounds, you should apply for CAPI;
- You are a "qualified immigrant" who is a current or veteran U.S. military personnel (or Filipino veteran who served under U.S. command during WWII), or the spouse of a dependent child (under 18 if unmarried or under 22 if a student) of one, or the unremarried widow or widower of one;
- You are a lawful permanent resident with credit for 40 quarters (about 10 years) of work in the U.S. You can add your work quarters with any work quarters earned by your spouse during the marriage, or that your parents earned before you were 18. However, if you entered the US on or after August 22, 1996 you cannot use your work quarters until 5 years after the date you became a "qualified" immigrant.
- You are a "qualified" immigrant who was lawfully residing in the US on August 22, 1996 and are blind or disabled. However, unlike those in the above categories you cannot qualify solely on the basis of being over 65 years old.

3. Which Immigrants Can Get CAPI?

If you are an immigrant who has a disability, is blind or 65 years old or older and you are not eligible for SSI because of your immigration status, you may be able to get CAPI (Cash Assistance Program for Immigrants, see pg. 26 for full details.)

To get CAPI you must be either
- a "Qualified Immigrant" (see left column of this page)
- a survivor of trafficking
- a "U" visa applicant or holder, or
- PRUCOL (Permanently Residing Under Color of Law), meaning that the immigration authorities know you are here and do not plan to deport or remove you from the county.

4. Which Immigrants Can Get CalFresh?

To get CalFresh you must be:
- A Qualified Immigrant (see left column on this page) OR
- You, your spouse or parent are a member of a Hmong or Lao tribe that provided assistance to the US during the Vietnam War era and you are lawfully present in the US.
- A survivor of trafficking (T-visa) or a U visa applicant or holder
- Lawful temporary resident (you have a green card but have not yet been here 5 years)
- Sponsored non-citizen who is indigent, or otherwise exempt from deeming

5. Which Immigrants Can Get CalWORKs and GR?

Qualified immigrants, noncitizen victims of trafficking, U visa applicants and holders, and immigrants who are PRUCOL may be eligible for CalWORKs pg. 4) and General Relief (pg. 27). You must also meet the income limit and other requirements. If you have a sponsor, see pg 64 “What If I Have a Sponsor” about “deeming” rules.

6. What is Refugee Cash Assistance?

Refugees who have been in the country less than 8 months and persons who were granted asylum less than 8 months before, may be eligible for Refugee Cash Assistance (generally this is for able bodied
You are not eligible for Social Security benefits if you have been deported, except if you have been readmitted as a lawful permanent resident. Your benefits may be suspended if you leave the U.S. for 6 months or more while still a non-citizen.

7. What Health Care Programs Are Available for Immigrants?

All LA county residents, including documented and undocumented immigrants, may be able to get health care through county programs, private programs, and many Medi-Cal programs. See page 41, Medi-Cal--Immigration Status.

Under state law SB75 all children up to age 19 with family income less than 266% of federal poverty level (see chart on page 40) are now eligible for full scope Medi-Cal regardless of immigration status.

"Qualified" immigrants, survivors of trafficking, U visa applicants and holders, and PRUCOL immigrants may be eligible for In-Home Supportive Services. CAPI (Cash Assistance Program for Immigrants) recipients may also be eligible for In-Home Supportive Services. Sponsor "deeming" may apply (see "What If I Have a Sponsor", pg. 64)

8. Public Housing

Most "qualified" immigrants and victims of trafficking are eligible for housing assistance from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) if they meet the program's other rules. HUD is a federal program; different rules apply to state and local housing programs.

You can apply for and receive HUD assistance even if one or more household members are not a citizen or "qualified" immigrant. Assistance may be calculated based on the number of citizens or eligible immigrants in the household.

Social Security

1. Social Security Benefits

If you have paid into the Social Security system as a worker or had money taken out of your paycheck for this program, you may qualify for Social Security disability, retirement or survivor benefits. [See pg. 23]

To receive the benefits, you must be either lawful present in the country now, or have been receiving benefits based on a claim filed before December 1, 1996.

The following groups can help if you are an immigrant worker and your employer owes you wages and has not paid you:

- Maintenance Cooperation Trust Fund
  (janitorial workers)1247 W. 7th St. Room 103 LA (213) 284-7758

1. What is Public Charge?

If you are applying to become a lawful permanent resident (green card holder), using health care programs (such as Medi-Cal , In Home Supportive Services, or Healthy Families) or CalFresh/Food Stamps, will not hurt your chances of getting your green card by making you a "public charge".

The government can deny a green card to people who are likely to become a "public charge" (meaning someone likely to rely on cash welfare on long-term care.) Officials will look at many factors, including your age, your health, your entire family's income and resources (and if you have a sponsor, their income and resources) to determine whether in the future you will be likely to need to rely on cash welfare to live. They will look at “the totality of your circumstances” and no single factor will make you a public charge.

Depending on your situation, past use of cash benefits may not count against you, for example if it was several years ago that you received the benefits or if it was only for a short period of time.

You do not have to worry about public charge if you:

- Already have a green card (unless you leave the US for more than 6 months at a time and try to re-enter)
- Are applying for citizenship
- Are applying for asylum
- Are applying for a T visa
- Are applying for a green card based on: asylee or refugee status
- T or U visa status
- having lived in the US since before 1972

Victims of domestic violence who file a self-petition under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) are subject to the "public charge" test. However, they can use all benefits, including cash welfare, without affecting this decision.
Non-Citizens

U visa applicants can get a public charge “waiver,” and there is no public charge test when U visa holders apply for a green card.

The government should not demand that you repay any welfare you correctly received as a condition of giving you legal status. If this happens, call one of the immigrant advocate agencies.

The rules of Public Charge may change. Check with an agency you trust for updated information.

2. What If I Have A Sponsor?

Most new immigrants entering into the US through family members are required to have a sponsor sign an “affidavit of support” form. This form is a promise to the government that the sponsor will help to provide economic support for any sponsored immigrants. Not all immigrants are required to have a sponsor, for example refugees and asylees.

If you are a sponsored immigrant and you want to apply for certain government benefits, your sponsor’s income and resources may be added to yours in determining your eligibility for benefits (this is called “deeming”). This deeming rule makes the income of many immigrants too high to qualify for benefits. Deeming applies for CalFresh/Food Stamps and cash assistance programs; however, there is no deeming if you are applying for health care programs.

Deeming does not apply to some migrants, including: refugees, asylees, parolees, battered spouses who have filed a “self-petition” for an immigrant visa, or certain other immigrants who are not required to have a sponsor such as T and U visa holders.

For CalFresh eligibility, the sponsor deeming rule does not apply to children under the age of 18, regardless of whether the children or anyone in the household is a sponsored non-citizen.

There are exceptions to the deeming rule, depending on which program you are applying for and when you entered the US. For example, if you are a victim of domestic violence or would go hungry or homeless without assistance, you may be exempt from deeming. However, you will still have to meet the other eligibility requirements.

If you have a question or problem with “sponsor deeming” contact one of the agencies listed at the end of this page.

Help for Refugees

Each “official” or documented refugee who enters the United States is assigned to a Resettlement Agency (RA), usually before arrival. In addition to initial resettlement and sponsorship, these offices can provide some employment assistance and social service counseling. RAs can also give referrals to other services and often help refugees arrange for the entry of close family members. These organizations include the following:

- International Institute of Los Angeles (American Council for Nationalities Service) (323) 224-3800
- International Rescue Committee (818) 244-2550
- Interfaith Refugee and Immigration Service (323) 661-8588
- Catholic Charities Immigration & Refugee Dept. (U.S. Council of Catholic Bishops) (213) 251-3486

If You Are Detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE)

If you are arrested by the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), you should:
- Remain silent, or tell the ICE agent that you want to remain silent.
- Ask to speak with a lawyer
- Not carry false documents
- Find out the name and phone number of a reliable immigration attorney and keep this information with you at all times.
- Know your “A” number (alien registration number) if you have one, and write it down someplace at home where your family members know where to find it.
- Prepare a form or document that authorizes another adult to care for your minor children.
- Advise family members who do not want to be questioned by ICE to stay away from the place where you are being detained
- Not sign any documents without first speaking with a lawyer.

Hearings and Complaints

If your benefits have been denied or cut unfairly, you should fight it! Don’t be intimidated. Request a fair hearing immediately whenever your rights are threatened. Don’t forget deadlines. Remember you only have ninety days to appeal a denial or cut of a county program such as CalWORKS and CalFRESH. However, if the county fails to send out a notice, or the notice is inadequate the ninety days to appeal do not begin to run out.

In a fair hearing, you will have a chance to explain your case, and after hearing your side and the county office’s side, an impartial judge will decide who wins. Sometimes, just requesting a hearing will resolve your problem. If a county employee tells you that you don’t have a case, insist on a hearing and seek out legal advice. [See Good Advice, p. 68]

If you are disabled, the Department of Public Social Services (DPSS) office, where you get your cash aid and food stamps, must help you to request a hearing and to understand your rights, so ask for help if you need it. For example, you may need help writing because you have arthritis. If you are disabled and cannot come to a hearing downtown you have a right to have a hearing in your home. However, you must request an in-home hearing and tell why you need it. Keep a copy of your hearing request. If you are treated unfairly because of a disability or health problem, send a complaint letter to the Civil Rights Division, U.S. Dept. of Justice, P.O. Box 66118, Washington DC 20035-6118.

Seek advice and assistance. Talk to a legal worker or community worker about your situation (See Good Advice, p. 68).

Keep good records and save all papers that an agency gives or mails to you. Keep a copy of any documents that you send to a county office. Get a receipt for any papers you mail or hand in to a county office. Write down the name of anyone you speak with in person or over the phone and the date and time that you talked.

You have a right to see your case file and to copy anything you need in it, such as the documents you provided to the DPSS office, notices of action, requests for documents, and anything the DPSS office mailed or hand delivered to you.

You have a right to see any regulations or instructions that apply to your situation. The county must follow a legally-guaranteed set of rights which apply to any of these programs.

For CalFresh, Medi-Cal, CalWORKs, and IHSS

1. Fixing Your Problem Without A Hearing

The most reliable way to fix a problem with your benefits is to ask for a hearing (see below).

Below are some tips that may allow you to fix your benefits problem without going to hearing. However, please remember the following two things: (1) You only have ninety days to ask for a hearing once you receive notice of a county action and (2) None of the steps below are the same as actually requesting a hearing, so keep an eye on your deadline and remember to request a hearing if the steps below don’t fix your problem.

If you are not satisfied with any decision made about your case, ask to speak to your worker’s supervisor.

Besides filing for a hearing, call the district HELPLine for your DPSS office (see the list of HELPLines on page 68), or walk up to the HELPLine Information Worker in the lobby of the DPSS office and ask for help. You can also call the Central HELPLine at 1-877-481-1044.

If this fails, ask to speak to the deputy director and, after that, the director of the DPSS office. However, you may file for a fair hearing to challenge an action (see below) at any time. If you need help, call an advocate, legal aid organization, your county supervisor, or a local legislator. If you act fast, and keep at it, you may win.

2. Asking For A Hearing

You must be sent a special notice 10 days before any action is taken that will reduce or stop your benefits. The notice must explain clearly the reasons for the action and list the regulations that support this action. If you disagree with this action and you formally request a fair hearing before the date the action takes effect, then under most circumstances your aid will not be cut until the hearing (unless it ends for another reason, like your certification period ended.) If you did not appeal on time because the notice was not clear and you did not understand what action was being taken until after the action became effective, you can ask the judge at the hearing for your benefits to continue at the unreduced rate. You should seek help if you want to make such a claim under Welfare and Institutions Code section 10967 and want to get your benefits reinstated.

If you do not ask for a fair hearing before the date the action takes place, your aid may be reduced or cut, but you still may fight the action if you ask for the hearing within 90 days of the date the notice was mailed. Save the envelope your notice came in and a copy of your fair hearing request so you will have proof that you met the required deadline.

To request the fair hearing, you may fill out and return the form on the back of the notice or write a letter doing so in your own words. Send your request to: Appeals and State Hearing Section P.O. Box 18890 Los Angeles, CA 90018.

Please keep a copy of your hearing request and, if possible, mail the request with a postal tracking number so you can prove that your hearing request was received on time.

You can also request a hearing online at: www.dhs.ca.gov by calling the toll-free number set up for this purpose, (800) 952-5253. You should call early: they open at 7:30 AM. The line is often busy, so keep trying. Remember to take the first and last name of the person you spoke with.

You cannot make a hearing request with your worker or any other County staff. You must either call the 800 number or send the written request to the Appeals and State Hearing Section P.O. Box. But if you do mistakenly request a hearing from your worker or local county staff, they are bound to forward your hearing request to the right place. Even if you made your hearing request to the wrong place like the county offices, if you did it on time, you are still entitled for your aid to continue at the old rate until the hearing.

3. Next Steps

The state will send you a notice with the date, time, and place of your hearing. Usually, this happens within 3 or 4 weeks. Currently, in the CalFresh program, any time before the hearing, you can request a delay (“postponement”) of the hearing in order to have more time to prepare or to get an attorney or advocate. In other aid programs, or to get a second postponement, you must have a very good reason (“good cause”).

You will also receive the name, telephone number and address of the Appeals Hearing Specialist (AHS) assigned to your case. The AHS will present the county’s side at the hearing. Again, if you asked for a hearing early enough, your benefits are not supposed to be cut before your hearing. This is called “Aid Paid Pending.” If you were supposed to get Aid Paid Pending, and you did not, tell your AHS. He or she is supposed to help you.

The AHS will also write up the county’s side before the hearing in a position statement. You have the right to get a copy of the county’s position statement. If you ask the AHS for the position statement, you may get it up to two days before the hearing. Even if you don’t ask for the position statement, the AHS must have it ready on the day of the hearing for you to read.

If the AHS does not have it ready for you to see before your hearing, you may ask the judge to postpone the hearing to give you more time to read the statement. This postponement does not count against you. You may have the statement of position faxed to you or go to the Appeals and State Hearings Office and pick it up. It will tell you what the county’s position and evidence are before the hearing so you can prepare your case.

4. What If I’m Disabled or Homebound?

If you are disabled, or homebound, hearings can be held by phone, at the county office or in your home, but you must ask for this in your hearing request. If you forget to request it on the hearing request, send a letter to the same P.O. Box address where you sent your hearing request as soon as possible.

You must also be provided with an interpreter for the hearing, at no cost, if English is not your first language or if you have a disability, such as a hearing impairment, that limits your ability to communicate with others.

5. After the Hearing

After your hearing, call the toll-free number and complain if the state takes longer than 60 days to give you a decision about CalFresh, or 90 days if the hearing was about CalWORKs or Medi-Cal. These are usually the maximum amounts of time that are permitted to decide such cases (starting on the date of your request for hearing). If your hearing decision takes longer than 90 days and you have never continued it, the state can decide that you can get extra money for the delay.

If you do not win the hearing, you can request a rehearing. You may also appeal the ALJ’s decision to the Superior Court. You should contact a lawyer experienced in this area to file such an appeal. You have one year from the date of the decision to file a case in court.
In SSDI cases, you must fill out a separate form asking for your aid to continue. If you miss the deadline given in the notice, the aid will be cut or reduced, but you still have 60 days from the date you received the notice to request a Reconsideration. After 60 days, if you have “Good Cause” for missing the deadline, you may be allowed to file a Reconsideration. If you win the Reconsideration, your lost benefits will be paid back to you.

There are three types of Reconsiderations: case review, informal, or formal conference. It is best to ask for an informal conference. However, if your application for SSDI or SSI is denied for medical reasons, you can usually only get a case review. Some SSA offices require that you file for a hearing with a judge to appeal any decision related to disability. Check with your local SSA office before appealing.

If your reconsideration or waiver is denied, you may request a hearing before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) with the Office of Disability Adjudication and Review (ODAR). You have to request a hearing within 60 days of receiving an unfavorable reconsideration decision. You can request a hearing after 60 days if you have good cause. At the hearing you may appear in person, submit new evidence, examine the evidence used in making the determination or decision under review, and present and question witnesses. You should always review your hearing office file well before your hearing date because you may need time to obtain additional evidence. This is particularly true if it is a hearing where your disability is at issue. The ALJ who holds the hearing may ask you questions. He or she will write a decision based on the hearing record. If you waive your right to appear at the hearing, the ALJ will make a decision based on the evidence that is already in the file. It is never a good idea to let the judge make a decision without hearing from you particularly if the issue is whether you are disabled.

If you get SSI or SSDI and begin working

When you are receiving SSI or SSDI and then start working, your benefits could be cut if you are working and earning too much. (This is known as “Substantial Gainful Activity” or “SGA”). Ten days after you get the tentative notice, a notice that your payments will stop will be sent to you. Request a reconsideration immediately. To protect yourself, it is best to make a new application at the same time you request a Reconsideration. In 2017 SGA is $1170 a month ($1950 if you are blind). If you are considering going back to work, Call Disability Rights California at (800) 776-5746 and ask for their booklet, “Disability and Work.” You can get this online on the Social Security website, www.ssa.gov.
