

Seizing Our Destiny

2012's best communities to live, work, grow and prosper in – and how they got that way

With a foreword by Suvi Linden, Commissioner, UN Commission for Digital Development

By Robert Bell, John Jung & Louis Zacharilla

Seizing Our Destiny tells the story of seven cities that did just that – by accelerating innovation in business, government and institutions to keep pace with a more innovative world. In the process, they offer lessons on how to innovate in governing, how to build political will for change, and how to understand and adapt creatively to the demands of the new century.
