Creating the Community of the 21st Century

"There are many who talk about tech-revolution, but it's a rare revolutionary who writes with an almost poetic sensibility and stays grounded in the real world. ICF has become the 'go-to' organization for anyone interested in the transformation of communities. Broadband Economies is much more than a manifesto and a handbook-for-action all rolled into one; it's a master-blueprint that lays out what we need for our communities."

— Gordon Feller, CEO, Urban Age Institute
