I. INTRODUCTION

The Identity and Democracy Group in the European Parliament (ID) has decided to open the procedure for the recruitment of a Dutch language Administrator (AD6) as temporary agent for its Secretariat in Brussels.

ID is a parliamentary group in the European Parliament made up of MEPs from 10 countries. What these MEPs have in common is a commitment to national sovereignty, identity and freedom. Our group's political objective is creating jobs and growth, increasing security, tackling illegal immigration, as well as making the EU less bureaucratic.

Equal opportunities

The ID Group maintains an equal opportunities policy.

II. JOB DESCRIPTION

The administrator fulfils a supranational function within the ID Parliamentary Group Secretariat, and assists all ID Members of the European Parliament in carrying out their duties. The main tasks of the administrator advising on parliamentary business are:

- Participating in and following up of the legislative work of parliamentary committees;
- Assisting the Members in their functions and duties by providing opinions and advice when necessary;

- Drafting amendments, briefings, voting lists, minutes, summaries, analysis, notes, etc. on subjects relating to the fields of competence;
- Ensuring a good contact and communication with other political groups and other EU institutions;
- Organizing and following up of meetings;
- Contributing in communication activity necessary for the smooth running of the Group.

These duties require a good knowledge of the European Union, its institutions and policies, and of the political systems within the European Union's Member States.

The post of administrator in the Secretariat of the ID Group requires great availability (high frequency of meetings, irregular working hours), flexibility, judgement, a methodical approach, discretion, adaptability to varying workloads, as well as the capacity for teamwork in an international environment. Suitable candidates must, amongst other things, be capable of grasping wide-ranging problems and of responding rapidly to changing circumstances. Excellent oral and written communication and computer skills are also necessary for the proper performance of the abovementioned duties.

Frequent travel outside the place of work is required, in particular several days per month in Strasbourg during the plenary session.

III. CONDITIONS FOR ADMISSION

1. Job requirements:

- a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma;
- where justified in the interest of the service, professional training of an equivalent level of at least 3 years
- for work purpose, candidates must have a thorough knowledge of Dutch;
- a very good knowledge of English is required for this position;
- a good knowledge of a third EU language will be considered as an asset;
- a good knowledge of the European Union, its institutions and policies;
- a working knowledge of Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint).
- at least three years of relevant or comparable professional experience.

2. General admission conditions

CANDIDATES MUST FULFIL THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS (art. 12(2) of the CEOS):

- must be a citizen of a Member State of the European Union;
- must be entitled to their full rights as a citizen;
- must have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the laws concerning military service;
- must produce the appropriate character references for performance of their duties.
