CALLING ALL
COLLEGE ARTISTS!

ENTRIES DUE:
MARCH 15
2018

The Indianapolis Art Center is announcing an open call for Indiana artists currently enrolled in college for our 2018 College Invitational Exhibition. We are looking to select up to 30 works by college students for a group showcase this spring (April 18 - June 13, 2018) at the Indianapolis Art Center's Churchman-Fehsenfeld Gallery. From selected entries, 3 cash prizes will be awarded by Indianapolis Art Center Director of Exhibitions Kyle Herrington.

BEST OF 2D - $500 | BEST OF 3D - $500

ELIGIBILITY

- This opportunity is open to undergraduate or graduate students of all ages currently enrolled in any College or University in the State of Indiana.
- Students may be pursuing any of the following degrees in ANY area of fine art or craft: Associates Degree, Bachelor's Degree, Master of Arts, Master of Fine Arts.
- All work must be original and made by the artist. No reproductions or copies.
- We will make selections directly from work submitted. Please include only work that will be available for exhibition.

APPLY

To apply, please submit the following via mail or email:

- An artist resume, not to exceed one page, which includes the degree you are seeking and the school you attend.
- Up to 10 images of individual works for consideration (details may be included).
