Believe I am a well-organized analytical problem-solving professional—a former consulting engineer, executive, and entrepreneur with a collaborative background—I understand the current political landscape and its challenges. I understand what progressives say and do these days and yet I believe I can articulate their selfish and reckless political stances on issues.. It requires the use of fundamentally principled, historically-based, down-to-earth and common sense understanding of reality-based facts. For us to be successful in the end, it is about finding ways to get consensus upon the the prioritized issues and yet diplomatically and timely executing utilizing all unique talents and/or expertise of all involved as a team

As past, I am humbly asking to represent the National Republican Party as a National Delegate at Large or Alternate Delegate at Large.

My wife and I are Iowa Faith & Freedom Coalition supporters. God bless America!
