816 Birchwood Circle
Council Bluffs, IA 51503
3rd Congressional District

Why are you interested in serving as a National Delegate Alternate?:

I have been involved with the Republican Party all my life, and have become more active since my retirement. My late wife and I always wanted to attend a National Convention. To me, it's the ultimate experience in Republican politics and I am more able to attend if selected.

Registered Republican? Yes

Previous conventions attended:

I have attended past county, district, and state conventions as a delegate on many occasions.

Party volunteer leadership positions held:

None

What ways have you contributed to election of Republican candidates:

I have always financially contributed to local, state, and national campaigns, held fundraisers in my home for Governor Reynolds and Lt. Gov. Gregg, Congressman David Young, Auditor Mary Mosiman, State Rep. Mary Ann Hanusa and other candidates. I have attended most fundraisers for local, state, and national candidates throughout the state. I have put up yard signs, knocked on doors, and participated in parades using my Thunderbird and Model A for various candidates and campaigns.

Run for Office:

No

Additional Information:

In 1996 I ran for the Iowa State Senate against State Sen. Mike Gronstal, losing by only 150 votes. I was appointed by Governor Branstad and Governor Reynolds to serve for a total of 9 years (3 terms) as a Commissioner on the Iowa Racing and Gaming Commission.
