March 4  Ray Suarez, journalist and author, Latino Americans: The 500 year legacy that shaped a nation. Companion to the PBS miniseries, Suarez chronicles the rich and varied history of Latinos, who have helped shaped our nation and have become the largest minority in the US.

March 11  Leslie King Hammond, artist, curator, art historian, and founding Director of the Center for Race and Culture at MICA, joins Valerie Maynard, sculptor, teacher, printmaker, and designer; in conversation with Chris Bedford, Director of the Baltimore Museum of Art.

March 25  Kathleen Biggins, C-Change Conversations. A non-partisan, multi-media presentation on the risks and opportunities associated with climate change. Presented in partnership with Caring for Creation.

April 1  Taro Alexander, executive director of SAY and a screening of the film My Beautiful Stutter, “a movie about our need for acceptance and the power of unconditional love to heal the soul.”