

JFN MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Events

- Unlimited access to hundreds of free JFN events, including webinars, briefings and in-person gatherings. (Most of our events are open only to members and prospective members.)
- Discounted rates for JFN International Conference and other JFN programs.
- Members-only programs and social gatherings.
- All our events are safe spaces, where fundraising and other solicitation is prohibited.

Services

- JFN Israel provides advisory services for both novice and seasoned funders in Israel on a range of topics and is able to assist in training and professional development of relevant foundation staff. All JFN members (in Israel and elsewhere) are entitled to one free consulting session on Israel giving.
- One free consulting session with Honeycomb staff on involving and engaging youth and younger family members in your giving.
- Discounted rates for scenario-planning consultations and other special sessions with JFN staff.
- Access to Keshet-Donor Advised Fund, Israel's first-ever donor-advised fund, which makes it easier and more cost-effective to donate money to Israeli causes and which manages Israel allocations for overseas foundations.
- Make your dollars go farther by participating in JFN matching grant programs, including one focused on strengthening Israel's impact investing ecosystem.
- Thanks to JFN's strategic partnership with the Center for Effective Philanthropy (CEP), JFN members receive a 10 percent discount on all first-time use of CEP assessments, including: Grantee and Applicant Perception Report, Donor Perception Report, and Staff Perception Report. Learn more about these assessments at https://www.jfunders.org/cep\_assessments or contact Austin Long, austinl@cep.org.
- Philanthropic consulting, vetting, and other services through JFN's partnership with Goodnation. All fees are waived for the first $200,000 that a JFN member donates through this platform.

Networking

- Access to JFN member directory, which enables you to search for other members who share your interests and to message them. Members who prefer not to be contacted or who wish to be anonymous have the option of opting out of this service.
- Facilitated introductions to like-minded funders.
- Peer funding collaboratives, working groups and affinity groups addressing a range of topics, including Jewish poverty, environmental stewardship in Israel, impact investing, and arts and culture.

Members-Only Resources

- Opportunity to publicize/share your work or non-fundraising events with other members, via member-to-member communications and listings in JFN's newsletter.
- Members-only premium videos.
- 25 percent discount on subscriptions to Inside Philanthropy.
- 20 percent discount on subscriptions to The Chronicle of Philanthropy.

Community

- When you join JFN, you become part of a global family of Jewish philanthropists.

