

Jim Heeger

Jim Heeger is active in the Jewish community at many levels. He is currently the Board Chair of the San Francisco Jewish Federation, the Immediate Past Board Chair of Moishe House and the Vice Chair of the Foundation for Jewish Camp. He is a past President of Hillel at Stanford, Past Board Chair of URJ Camp Newman, a past Senior Vice-chair of the World Union for Progressive Judaism, and a Past President of Congregation Beth Am in Los Altos Hills.

Jim Heeger served as CEO of three companies and in a number high tech senior management positions over his thirty-year career in Silicon Valley. He earned an MBA from Stanford University and a BS in management from MIT.