

ARIELLA SAPERSTEIN is a Program Officer for Maimonides Fund in NYC, overseeing Israel-related grantmaking in the US. She spent four years as Israel Program Officer at the Helmsley Charitable Trust, focusing on support for scientific and medical innovation, healthcare preparedness, and Israel's standing in the world. Her previous work experience includes managing governance and university relations at American Friends of The Hebrew University, and directing public programs and educational workshops on Israel at the Anti-Defamation League. Ariella has been awarded a Germany Close Up fellowship by the German government, an Israel Diplomatic Fellowship by the Israeli Consulate of New York, and was selected as a participant in the 2012 and 2013 New York Leaders program sponsored by the Foreign Policy Initiative. She holds a B.A. in Philosophy from Haverford College and an M.A. in Jewish Professional Leadership.