

Public Affairs Scotland

The Jewish Leadership Council is the strategic umbrella organisation for Jewish communal organisations. It aims to ensure that the Jewish community in the UK remains vibrant and vital, safe and secure, assured of its' place in British society, proud of its heritage and culture and confident in its' support of Israel.

The Jewish Leadership Council (JLC) is seeking an individual who has the ability to enhance existing advocacy work by the community. The ideal candidate would have had experience of and be interested in the following:

- Creating positive relationships with key stakeholders in civil society and political life
- Supporting and strengthening existing regional communal bodies and campaign groups
- Coordinating community advocacy in the region
- Be capable of developing and running innovative campaigns and contact programmes
- Would ideally have experience in a political, communications or community advocacy role where engaging with different stakeholders has been key
- An understanding about Jewish community issues and how they relate to wider Scottish audiences
- An excellent understanding of public affairs issues

Applications should be made by sending your CV and covering letter to Natasha Glass at Natasha@thejlc.org.

A full job description can be found at www.thejlc.org/vacancies.

Deadline for applications: 4th November 2017

All full time, part-time and a possibility of a job-share applicants will be considered

Start Date: November/December 2017

Interviews will be as soon as practicable thereafter in Glasgow.

Location: Glasgow

The Jewish Leadership Council is an equal opportunities employer and we welcome applications from all suitably qualified persons.

Charity Registration Number: 1115343. The Jewish Leadership Council is a company limited by guarantee. Registered in England and Wales No: 5742840.