

JIM Unit Resources and Work Areas Survey

JUSTACT
ACT WITH JUSTICE IN MIND
2016

Each year the Justice and International Mission Unit gets feedback from its supporters, that is you, about how you would like to be resourced.

We recognise you might think an issue may be important, but you might believe the Unit is not the best organization to campaign on the issue, or the Unit's resources would be better directed elsewhere. Your thoughts help shape our work and makes the church's voice louder and more effective by focusing our efforts.

The Unit is also open to working on new issues, but only if there are enough people who want to be resourced on it. The process for doing this is to email us at jim@victas.uca.org.au with your request. We will then assess if it fits within the UCA ethos and Synod resolutions, you will have a chance to speak at the annual convention and we will add it to this survey in the following year. The results of this survey are published in the first mailing of the year.

2. Do you have any suggestions for how we could resource you better?

Please turn over.

3. What issues would you like us to resource you on?
Please tick the box that indicates your level of support below.

What the levels of response mean

- Do not support work on the issue;
- Not interested in the issue;
- Passive support – you are glad the Unit is working on the issue, but not willing to take action on the issue yourself;
- Minor support – you are willing to undertake minor actions in support of the issue, such as signing a petition or postcard;
- Moderate support – you are willing to take a higher level of support for the issue, such as writing a letter, attending a forum or rally on the issue or getting others to sign a petition;
- Strong support – you are willing to be very active on the issue, such as encouraging others to be active on the issue, willing to organize events in support of addressing the issue, or willing to visit your local MP on the issue.
