OHA trustee elections aren't just for the Native Hawaiian's to vote in. The trustees are employees of the state of Hawaii and are paid with taxpayer money; all taxpayers and all voters are eligible to vote in the OHA trustee elections, both in the primary and general election.

Dr. Keli'i Akina, Ph.D., is a candidate for the at-large seat in the upcoming primary. Having followed him and his views over the past few years and speaking with him personally several times, I would urge you to vote for him in both elections. He is running on three basic principles:

1. To preserve the aloha spirit.
2. The advancement of Hawaiian and all people.
3. To build a better future for our children, a better economy, a better government, a better society.

Please check out his website at www.keliakina.com and please vote in the OHA election section in the Aug. 13 primary.
