

Volunteer Opportunity – Evaluation Coordinator

Licensed to Learn is seeking a volunteer to help coordinate a review and update of our evaluation tools.

We are recruiting volunteers who have experience with program evaluation design and implementation and are looking to further hone their skills, tackling a new project to help a non-profit better serve participants.

Who are we looking for?

- Previous experience coordinating program evaluation design and implementation for an organization, club or youth group is an asset.
- Passionate about education and helping young people succeed in school and build leadership skills.
- Experience with a variety of evaluation and analytical tools: creating surveys, focus groups.
- Excellent written communication skills.
- Available for weekly check-in meetings online or over the phone with the Program Manager.
- We aim to represent and inspire the wide communities of youth that we serve! We strongly encourage anyone who identifies as a woman or gender-fluid, a person of colour, Indigenous, or disabled, as well as anyone with lived experience of being a newcomer or refugee, to join us!

What are the responsibilities?

- Support Program Manager with current evaluation tool assessment
- Help coordinate new evaluation tool design and implementation framework

What is the commitment?

- Approximately 2 hours per week from April 2018 to June 2018: Not available for the entire duration of the project, but would still like to be considered? We'd still love to hear from you!

What will you gain?

- The chance to build your skills by helping to coordinate a non-profit's program evaluation tool design and implementation while working from home.
- The chance to advance a youth serving organization and increase effectiveness of evaluation tools thereby improving the program impact on student participant.

Interested?

Please email jdsouza@L2L.ca with a short statement about why you are interested and what you would like to bring to the table, and we will set up a time to chat further.
