

Program for Field Day organised by Conservation Landholders Tasmania

A Devil of a Day: Tasmanian devils and other native animals on conservation properties

Date: Saturday, 17 March 2018

Time: 9.30 am-4:30 pm

Register via the CLT web site <http://www.clt.asn.au/> by Saturday 10 March

Venue: Fire Station at Pipers Brook, 14 Hall Road and Scott Bell's property nearby

Time	Program	Who?
9:30-10:00	Morning tea at Pipers Brook Fire Station
10:00-10.10	Welcome and overview of day	Scott Bell
10:10-10:40	Participants speak briefly about their experiences of native animal management: problems and successes	All participants
10:40-11:30	Managing native animals on conservation land: the threatened species and the populous	David Pemberton, Program Manager of the Save the Tasmanian Devil Program
11:30-11:40	The Tasmanian Devil Story	Michelle Nichols, Communications Branch, Save the Tasmanian Devil Program
11.40-12.00	The Free Range Enclosure for the Tasmanian Devil Breeding Program	David Schaap, Senior Keeper and Billie Thompson, Wildlife Officer, Save the Tasmanian Devil Program
12.00 – 12.05	News from NRM North	Kate Thorn
12:05-12:35	Q and A session with experts	David Pemberton, Michelle Nichols, David Schaap and Billie Thompson
12:35-1:35	Lunch at Pipers Brook Fire Station
1:35-1:45	Travel to Scott Bell's property; spray boots	All participants
1:45-2:15	Introduction to Scott's property	Scott Bell and Anna Povey
2:15-3:45	Tour of the Devil Enclosure on Scott's property	David Schaap, and Billie Thompson, Wildlife Officer, Save the Tasmanian Devil Program
3:45-4:00	Car-pool and travel to Scott's house, looking at regeneration area en route .	All participants
4:00-4:30	Afternoon tea at Scott Bell's house. Thanks, and news of future CLT events	All participants

