

OBAMA IS DOWN, TIME TO DRIVE HIM OUT

November 19, 2015—Eyewitness accounts of the weekend G-20 summit in Turkey indicate that President Barack Obama was in a full rage fit at the fact that Russian President Vladimir Putin was the center of attention, for Russia's "game-changing" military intervention in Syria, which now holds out the possibility of crushing the Islamic State (ISIS) and bringing the nearly five-year Syrian war to a peaceful conclusion.

Obama has been boxed in by the Russian flanking intervention in Syria, and by the fact that, following last Friday's horrific ISIS attacks in Paris, the world is united around the need to take decisive action against the jihadist scourge. That action requires decisive collaboration with Russia, as even the former head of the United Kingdom Defense Staff, General Sir David Richards, told BBC this week.

Obama has been guilty, along with George W. Bush, of covering up the crimes of the Anglo-Saudis, by refusing to declassify the 28-page chapter from the original Joint Congressional Inquiry into 9/11, a chapter that provides crucial evidence of the Saudi monarchy's funding of the hijackers. As former Sen. Bob Graham told the packed Capitol Hill press conference on Jan. 7, 2015, just hours after the Charlie Hebdo attacks in Paris, had those 28 pages been declassified, the Saudi-backed Islamic State could never have existed.

With the Paris carnage of Nov. 13 hanging in the air, it is now time for those 28 pages to be made public, and to be the basis for launching a de novo investigation into 9/11 and all of the subsequent terrorist atrocities committed by the British-Saudi apparatus, up to and including last Friday's Paris slaughter. It is that apparatus that owns Barack Obama and always has.

Now, more than ever, it is time for Congress to take up its Constitutional mandate and dump Obama from office. The full consequences of the cover-up of the 9/11 chapter can be seen in the carnage in Paris. In a very direct sense, Obama has the blood of those killed and wounded in the Paris attacks on his hands. The consequences of his continuing the cover-up of the 28 pages can no longer be tolerated. If the Islamic State and all the other Anglo-Saudi jihadists are to be decisively defeated and wiped out, Obama must be removed from office. He is as much a creature of that British-run apparatus as the leaders of ISIS and Al Qaeda. To tolerate Obama remaining in office, after the Paris attacks and his willful protection and cover-up of the Saudis behind 9/11, is to write off the United States.

Release the 28 pages and oust Obama now.
