

PLEASE JOIN US

Getting Ready: Preparing the Assessment of Fair Housing California Regional & State Convening April 19, 2016

Enterprise Community Partners, the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, and national fair housing and community development organizations are hosting an informative and interactive convening to prepare for implementation of the new Assessment of Fair Housing in California.

Why you should attend this event:

- Listen to HUD leaders and national experts speak about Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing implementation and its impact
- Learn how to use the new HUD data and mapping tool
- Find out about successful community engagement strategies that may work in your city
- Discuss the intersection of fair housing and equity in transportation, public health and the environment
- Hear about best practices that are building greater equity in the LA region
- Participate in a roundtable discussion to start mapping your Assessment of Fair Housing now

Confirmed speakers include:

- Assistant Secretary Gustavo Velasquez, Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO), U.S. HUD
- Chancela Al-Mansour, Executive Director, Human Rights Center
- Raphael Bostic, Bedrosian Chair, Sol Price School of Public Policy, USC
- Rushmore Cervantes, General Manager, HCIDLA
- Nancy Farghalli, Senior Editor, Wealth & Poverty Desk, Marketplace

When and Where

Tuesday, April 19, 2016
8 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Radisson Hotel Los Angeles Midtown at USC, 3450 Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, CA 90007

Who should attend?

Local governments that must complete an Assessment of Fair Housing, fair housing/civil rights groups, local CDC's, local housing developers, transit equity stakeholders, public health advocates, environmental justice groups and local policymakers

There is no charge for this event, but please register.

To learn more, please contact Manuel Ochoa.

With support from
FORD
FOUNDATION