

Land Use & Violence Prevention

Achieving Healthy, Equitable, Safe Communities for All

Photo: Craig Kuhner

Thursday, September 29, 2016 | 12:00pm - 4:00pm

Magnolia Place Family Center

1910 Magnolia Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90007

Keynote Speaker

Honorable Marqueece Harris-Dawson
8th District Council Member

Featuring

Yvette Lopez-Ledesma
Pacoima Beautiful

Dr. D'Artagnan Scorza
Social Justice Learning Institute

Dr. Randal Henry
Community Intelligence

At this symposium, we will:

- Dialogue about the connections between land use, violence prevention, and health equity
- Hear about local Los Angeles initiatives working at the intersection of land use and violence prevention
- Explore opportunities to create safe communities through a focus on land use and violence prevention strategies

Prevention Institute staff will also present:
Community Safety By Design: Preventing Violence through Land Use.

RSVP: <http://bit.ly/HEALU-LUVP>

For more information, contact Vanessa Shih at vanessa@preventioninstitute.org

Join the conversation at #HEALU4ALL

Co-Sponsored by:

The Violence Prevention Coalition of Greater Los Angeles' Making Connections Project is part of the Movember National Initiative to improve mental health and well-being for men and boys of color and their families.

We would like to thank the following funders for their support: The California Wellness Foundation, The California Endowment, & The Gilbert Foundation