The Latino Community Fund (LCF) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization dedicated to the development and building the collective power of our Latinx communities in Washington State. Our work is centered on community organizing, investment, leadership development, advocacy and direct service.

LCF has been around since 2007. We are a statewide organization with offices in Burien and Yakima. We have a team of 15 and fiscally sponsor 12 community-led grassroots organizations throughout the state.

We are currently looking to grow our board of directors, both to diversify and expand our skills, as well as our geographic representation. We are looking for passionate community leaders from across WA, with emphasis outside of King County.

How to Apply

Please send an email to apply@latinocommunityfund.org with the subject line: "Board of Directors Application." Attach your resume along with a brief bio and why you are interested in joining the board.

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis with priority given to those received by May 5, 2021.

Our Vision

Our vision is a vibrant and civically engaged Latino community in Washington. Latino Community Fund of Washington identifies, shares and advocates for what is working in the Latino community. Healthy and educated Latino families build vibrant local communities and economies in Washington State.

Our Mission

The Latino Community Fund cultivates new leaders, supports cultural and community based non-profit organizations, and improves the quality of life for all Washingtonians.

To achieve our mission and address the needs of Latinos, LCF programs create a vibrant community through civic engagement, healthy families, arts and culture.

Our Guiding Principles

The members of the Latino Community Fund believe in:

- A Strength and Asset-Based Approach
 - Participatory Processes
 - Latino-Led and Latino Accountable Work
 - Creating communities of inclusion, mutual support and respect
 - Capacity-Building
 - Accountable, Effective and Replicable Practices
 - Latinos as Philanthropists
 - The Strength and Beauty in the United States Latino Community
 - Open and Transparent Philanthropy
