

IAN PRIESTNER

- 1979 BA (Hons) International Relations, University of Keele
- 1996 LLB (Hons) Law, University of Westminster
- 2010 MSc (Merit) Development Studies, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London
- 2013 University of Michigan Ross Business School, Ann Arbor, US – digital media communications
- 2010 – Non-Executive Director and Equity Partner, ASC Renewables
- 2006 – 2009 Board Director, Walton Neurological Hospital, Liverpool.
- 2006 – 2009 Board Director, Ascribe plc
- 2000 - 2006 Director of Corporate Affairs, United Utilities plc
- 1996 - 2000 Head of Public Policy, Regulation and Government Relations, BG plc
- 1993 - 1996 Head of External Affairs, Engineering Employers Federation (EEF)
- 1990 – 1993 Public Affairs Manager, Conoco (UK) Ltd
- 1988 – 1990 Account Director, Good Relations Communications Consultancy
- 1986 – 1988 National Press Officer, Social Democratic Party
- 1983 – 1986 Cultural Affairs Adviser, State Department, U.S. Embassy
- 1979 – 1983 Economic analyst, International Department, CBI

Publications: Doing Business in Southern Africa: 1997 Kogan Page

Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Public Relations