

Re-Elect MICHAEL FOX For London Regional Executive

Experience

Michael has years of experience working with his local party executive, and was parliamentary candidate for East Ham in 2019. As an existing regional exec member, he has the experience to get things done.

A Party for all of London

Michael is a member of Newham, Barking & Dagenham Lib Dems. Electing him will help amplify the voice of smaller parties and East London parties.

Skills

As a professional project manager & former naval officer, Michael has the skills necessary to work with the executive committee to achieve results.

Change

The last year has been challenging for London Lib Dems and the executive committee must change to become effective. Michael will work with members to make that change happen.

Local Focus

London Liberal Democrats can and must do more to support and grow our smaller local parties. Michael will work with the exec to make sure this happens.
