A London that works for everyone

On the orange ballot paper

Caroline Pidgeon's London Liberal Democrat

Caroline Pidgeon AM & London Liberal Democrats - for a London that works for everyone

Lib Dem candidate for Mayor of London Caroline Pidgeon has a plan to make London better.

Caroline is the candidate with the experience, from eight years on the London Assembly, to deliver the change our city needs.

That's why we knocked on your door today.

Caroline and her team want to find out what you think of her plans for our city.

Caroline wants to cut the cost of travel, with half price fares before half seven, introducing a one hour bus ticket and giving London control of commuter rail.

As Mayor she would ban dirty diesel by 2020 to clean up London's filthy air.

You can support Caroline's vision by voting Liberal Democrat on the orange ballot paper.

- ✓ Caroline is bringing up a family in South London. She has experience from eight years on the London Assembly holding the Mayor, TfL and the Metropolitan Police to account. She is the only candidate in the race for Mayor with the experience of how London works.
- ✓ Caroline is running for Mayor because she wants to do something - not be something. Her experience has given her the vision to change London for the better.
- ✓ Caroline is committed to the fight to keep London in Europe. You can support her at www.londonlibdems.org.uk/ineurope.

New homes for London ✓ build 200,000 new homes including 50,000 at council rents

Half price fares ✓
before 7:30am, a one hour bus ticket and station re-zoning

3,000 new police officers ✓ to strengthen neighbourhood policing and tackle knife crime

Caroline can fight for London

There's a strong thread of practicality in Pidgeon's pitch
