A Fair Go For Fishing

www.ldp.org.au

Fed up with being treated like an environmental vandal because you enjoy fishing and boating?

Alarmed at the erosion of your freedom by governments and bureaucracies?

Frustrated by the lack of difference between the major political parties?

Disappointed by the lacklustre performance of "single issue" parties?

Lack of respect for individual rights and responsibility is leading to excessive government intrusion into our lives (and wallets). Rather than acknowledge that there are already too many laws, governments impose even more and often use them to justify more and higher taxes.

Our rights and freedom to make our own decisions are being eroded.

Recreational anglers need to make their voices heard as part of an overall response to the underlying cause. They can gain powerful allies by becoming mainstream. The burdens imposed on anglers are similar to those faced by shooters, divers, farmers, 4WDers, horse riders, loggers, smokers, motorcyclists, motorists and pet owners. All face loss of freedom based on a "we know what's best" mentality by governments and bureaucracies.

About the LDP

The Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) (www.ldp.org.au) strongly supports the rights of anglers and boaters to engage in activities that are as old as humanity itself.

The aim of the LDP is to restore the right of individuals to make their own choices and accept responsibility for them, on the basis that they generally make better decisions than governments.
