Preamble

The Welsh Liberal Democrats exist to build and safeguard a fair, free and open society, in which we seek to balance the fundamental values of liberty, equality and community and in which no-one shall be enslaved by poverty, ignorance or conformity.

Section A: The Party

1. The name of the Party shall be the Welsh Liberal Democrats / Democratiaid Rhyddfrydol Cymru, hereinafter called the Party.
2. The Party shall be part of a federation consisting of the Party, the Scottish Liberal Democrats, and the English Liberal Democrats, and the provisions of the Federal Constitution shall apply to Wales in the manner therein specified.
3. References in this Constitution to the 'Board', the 'Conference' and the 'Appeals Panel' shall be construed as references to the relevant bodies of the Welsh Liberal Democrats and references to 'Federal' bodies shall be construed as references to the relevant bodies of the Liberal Democrats.
4. Without imposing an obligation to provide all documents in a bilingual form, the Party shall accord equal status to the Welsh and English languages.
5. The Objectives of the Party shall be:
 - a. to promote the values and principles enshrined in the Preamble to the Federal Constitution;
 - b. to develop and promote policies that lead to the realisation of those values and principles; and, in order to achieve such objectives:
 - c. to secure the election of Liberal Democrats as Members of Parliament and Members of the European Parliament for the Wales Region; Members of the National Assembly for Wales; and members of local and other elected public authorities in Wales.

Section B: The Functions of the Party

The Functions of the Party shall be:

1. To provide the organisational, administrative and campaigning support for Local Party organisations (see Section H) and associated organisations within Wales;
2. To provide support for Welsh Liberal Democrat Members of both Houses of Parliament, of the European Parliament; of the National Assembly for Wales and Welsh Liberal Democrat appointees to public bodies, endorsed either by the Welsh or Federal Leader;
3. To co-operate with the Association of Liberal Democrat Councillors and other relevant bodies in the provision of support for Welsh Liberal Democrat Councillors and Welsh Liberal Democrat Council Groups within Wales;
4. To increase the membership of the Party and maintain a definitive list of members.
5. To operate in compliance with all UK and Welsh Legislation relating to the running of a political party including all financial activity, with particular reference to, but not in exclusivity, the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (hereinafter referred to as PPERA) and any successor legislation.
6. To encourage members of the Party to make a full contribution to the work of the Party, the Federal Party and other constituent Parties and organisations within the Federation described in Section A.2 of this Constitution;
7. To promote public awareness within Wales of the work and policies of the Party;
8. To co-operate with the Federal Party and other constituent Parties and organisations within the Federation, described in Section A.2 of this Constitution, in the furtherance of shared objectives.
9. To raise the finance required to carry out the functions described in this Constitution and to maintain such an organisation, including staff, so to do;
10. To develop and formulate the policies of the Party on Welsh issues, to place the policies of the Federal Party in a Welsh context and to influence policy development within the Federal Party as is necessary and relevant to Wales and promote such policies; and
11. To provide for the approval of Parliamentary, Assembly, European Parliamentary and directly-elected Mayoral candidates and provide rules for Local Parties on selection procedures and to co-operate with the relevant Welsh or Federal Bodies in the provision of support for such candidates.

Section C: Membership

1. Membership of the Party is open to all persons who agree with its fundamental values and objectives without discrimination as to age, ethnic origin, religion, disability, gender or sexual orientation.

1.1 Membership shall be acquired through an enrolling body, being:

- a. a Local Party in the area in which the member lives, works or studies (or, another Local Party with its consent);
- b. a Specified Associated Organisation representing Youth and/or Students;
- or
- c. the Party in accordance with the provisions of its Membership Rules

1.2 Any member of the Welsh Liberal Democrats must treat others with respect and must not bully, harass or intimidate any Party member, member of Party Staff, member of Parliamentary or Assembly Staff, Party volunteer or member of the public. Such behaviour will be considered to be bringing the Party into disrepute.

2. An applicant shall become a member on acceptance by the enrolling body, payment of the requisite subscription, and registration.

3. Responsibility for renewal of membership shall lie with the Party, but it may, by a decision of its Conference, provide for this function to be fulfilled by any other body or bodies within the Federal Party. Membership will be automatically terminated if the renewal subscription is not received within three months following the due date.

4. All other matters relating to the admission or refusal of admission to membership of any person, or for the revocation or cessation of membership of any member, including the basis on which Local Parties may be involved in the recruitment and renewal of members, shall be governed by this Constitution, any Membership Rules made under this Constitution in accordance with Clause C.9, below, and any membership provisions in the Federal Constitution.

5. No person may simultaneously be a member of more than one Local Party. A member may re-register as of right in a different Local Party under the terms of Clause C.1.1a, or may, with the consent of the member's previous Local Party where that Local Party has ceased to be appropriate in terms of Clause C.1.1a, retain membership of that Local Party. A member who is an AM, MP, MEP, prospective National Assembly for Wales, Parliamentary or European Parliamentary candidate or member of a Local Authority may re-register as of right in a relevant Local Party.

6. Membership may be refused by an enrolling body on one or more of the following grounds:

- a. material disagreement, evidenced by conduct, with the fundamental values and objectives of the Party;
- b. the admission of the applicant would be likely to bring the Party into disrepute; or

c. membership of another political party in Great Britain.

7. Disciplinary action may be undertaken by a Local Party Executive Committee, the Executive Committee of the Specified Associated Organisation (SAO) representing Youth and / or Students (if the member concerned is a member of the Party through that SAO) or the Board on one or more of the following grounds:

- a. material disagreement, evidenced by conduct, with the fundamental values and objects of the Party;
- b. conduct which has brought, or is likely to bring, the Party into disrepute;
- c. standing against the candidate of the Party in any National Assembly for Wales, Parliamentary or European Parliamentary election;
- d. standing against the candidate of the Party in any Local Authority or Mayoral election;
- e. membership of, or support for, another political party in Great Britain;
- f. failure to comply with electoral legislation; or
- g. failure to comply with the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act (2001), the Electoral Administration Act (2006) and/or the Political Parties Act (2009).

8. In the event that one or more of the grounds for disciplinary action have been established under Clause C.7, above, a Local Party Executive Committee, the Executive Committee of the Specified Associated Organisation representing Youth and / or Students (if the member concerned is a member through that SAO) or the Board may, in accordance with the time-frames laid out in Clause F.3 of the Membership Rules of the Welsh Liberal Democrats (Annexe II of this Constitution) impose any one or more of the following sanctions:

- i) Revoke the membership of the individual concerned;
- ii) Bar the individual concerned from holding, or standing for election to, any specified Party office or role either permanently, for a specified period, or until satisfactory training has been undertaken by the individual concerned;
- iii) Bar the individual concerned from holding, or seeking to be elected to or appointed to any specified public office on behalf of the Party either permanently, for a specified period, or until satisfactory training has been undertaken by the individual concerned;
- iv) Bar the individual concerned from having access to data from Membership Services either permanently, for a specified period, or until satisfactory training has been undertaken by the individual concerned;
- v) Reprimand the individual concerned.

The individual concerned, the Chief Executive of the Welsh Party and Membership Services, shall be advised accordingly

9. The disciplinary process shall not be initiated unless the relevant body has either received recent and appropriate training from the Party in this area of party discipline or has sought advice from the Party as to the processes involved. The relevant member must then be notified of the grounds for which disciplinary action is to be considered and be given a reasonable opportunity to reply. Where paragraph (c), (d) or (e) of Clause C.7 applies, membership shall be automatically and immediately suspended. In all other case, the body with the authority to initiate the disciplinary process may suspend membership whilst disciplinary action is being considered subject to the time-frames set out in Section F of the Membership Rules of the Welsh Liberal Democrats.

10. Disciplinary action, as set out in clauses C.7 and C.8 may be referred by a Local Party Executive Committee, the Executive Committee of the Specified Associated Organisation representing Youth and/or Students (if the member concerned is a member of the Party through that SAO) or the Board to the Federal Party, to be dealt with in accordance with Article 3.7 of the Federal Party Constitution. The referral may be made on a case by case basis or for an agreed period of time, or until such time as it is recalled.

In any case where such power has been so referred, all rights of appeal, notwithstanding the terms of Clauses C.13, shall be dealt with in terms of the procedures established under Article 3.7 of the Federal Party Constitution.

11. The Party's Chief Executive shall be responsible for the maintenance of the Party's Register of Members.

12. Subject to the above, and to the provisions of the Federal Constitution, the Conference shall determine and approve the Membership Rules applicable to the Party.

13. Any person aggrieved by a decision under Clauses C.6 or C.7, above, may appeal to the Appeals Panel, save that any appeal shall be governed by any timetables and rules specified by the Appeals Panel (Section L: Appeals Panel).

Section D: The Organisation of the Party

1. The organisation of the Party shall consist of:

2 The Leader of the Party

- a. The Leader of the Party shall be elected from the Welsh Liberal Democrat members of the European Parliament, House of Commons and the National Assembly for Wales and shall become Leader of whichever Group they originate from. Candidates for this office shall be nominated by a Welsh Liberal Democrat

Member of the European Parliament, House of Commons, House of Lords, or National Assembly for Wales; and supported by 50 members, of whom not more than seven shall be members of the same Local Party or Youth/Student SAO. No member shall sign more than one nomination paper. The election shall be by ballot of the membership in accordance with Annexe 1, Appendix 3 of this Constitution.

- b. There shall be an election for Leader within twelve months of a Westminster General Election or a Welsh General Election or Elections to the European Parliament depending on which Body the Leader resides. An election shall in addition take place if they resign, cease to be a member of the European Parliament, House of Commons or the National Assembly for Wales, if a vote of no confidence by the relevant group from which they originate is passed by a majority of that Group or by a resolution of no confidence passed by at least 40% of Local Parties, following a quorate General Meeting of each Local Party. The Board shall select one of the Deputy Leaders, described in sections 3, 4 and 5, to assume the position of Acting Leader of the Party during a period where the Leader of the Party leaves the post without notice. The Deputy Leader shall act in the post for a maximum of 10 weeks, and as such, nominations must be opened within 4 weeks of the Deputy Leader taking on the post of Acting Leader. When opening nominations, the returning officer shall be mindful of the situation described in E.2.c. and should therefore keep the period of nominations to a maximum of 3 weeks.
- c. Should there be no suitable candidate nominations put forward for election before the close of nominations, then the Returning Officer shall reopen nominations for a further 3 weeks (in line with Appendix 3 Annexe 1). The reopened nominations shall extend the eligible candidates to include members of the House of Lords and Welsh Liberal Democrat members that are approved candidates for the European Parliament, House of Commons and the National Assembly for Wales. Nominations containing 2 candidates to serve as joint leaders shall also be accepted at this point. Any nomination containing approved candidates shall be nominated by those listed in E.2.a. or by the Executive Committee of a Local Party. Should a member of the House of Lords, or an approved candidate be elected leader, then they shall serve for a maximum of 3 years before being eligible for re-election, at which point the eligible candidates for leader shall revert to those list in E.2.a. In such circumstances nomination shall open a minimum of 6 weeks before the 3rd anniversary of the Leader.

3 The Leader of the UK Parliamentary Group

- a. If not elected Leader, the Leader of the UK Parliamentary Group shall be elected from the Welsh Liberal Democrat members of the Parliamentary Group in the House of Commons. Candidates for this office shall be nominated by a Welsh Liberal Democrat member of either House of Parliament supported by 30 members of whom not more than five shall be members in the same Local Party, or Youth/Student SAO. No member shall sign more than one nomination paper. The election shall be by ballot of the membership in accordance with Annexe 1, Appendix 3 of this Constitution.

- b. An election for the Leader of the Parliamentary Group shall be held within twelve months of a General Election for a term ending with a similar election after the following election. An election shall in addition take place if they resign, cease to be a member of Parliament or a vote of no confidence in the Leader of the Parliamentary Group is passed by a majority of the Parliamentary group in the House of Commons or by a resolution of no confidence passed by at least 10 Local Parties, following a quorate General Meeting of each Local Party.
- c. Should only one Welsh Liberal Democrat Member of Parliament be returned to the Westminster Parliament that member shall, if not elected as Leader of the Party, be automatically styled as Deputy Leader of the Party. In the event that there are no Welsh Liberal Democrat Members of Parliament then the Leader of the Parliamentary Group shall be elected from the Welsh Liberal Democrat members of the House of Lords according to the same provisions as laid out in Clause E.3.a and E.3.b above.

4. The Leader of the National Assembly Group

- a. If not elected Leader of the Party, the Leader of the National Assembly Group shall be elected from the Welsh Liberal Democrat members of the National Assembly Group. Candidates for this office shall be nominated by a Welsh Liberal Democrat Assembly Member, supported by 30 members of the Party, of whom there shall be at least 5 from each Assembly Electoral Region. No member shall sign more than one nomination paper. The election shall be by ballot of the membership in accordance with Annexe 1, Appendix 3 of this Constitution.
- b. An election for the Leader of the National Assembly Group shall be held within twelve months of a Welsh General Election for a term ending with a similar election after the following elections. An election shall, in addition, take place if they resign, cease to be member of the National Assembly, a vote of no confidence in the National Assembly Group Leader is passed by a majority of the National Assembly Group, or by a resolution of no confidence passed by at least 10 Local Parties, following a quorate General Meeting of each Local Party.
- c. Should only one Welsh Liberal Democrat Assembly Member be returned to the National Assembly for Wales, that member shall, if not elected as Leader of the Party, be automatically styled as Deputy Leader of the Party. In the event that there are no Welsh Liberal Democrat Members of the National Assembly for Wales then the Leader of the Party shall be permitted to select a Deputy Leader, who shall act as the spokesperson for Welsh Affairs.

5. The Leader of the European Parliamentary Group

- a. If not elected Leader of the Party, the Leader of the European Parliamentary Group shall be elected from the Welsh Liberal Democrat members of the European Parliamentary Group. Candidates for this office shall be nominated by a Welsh Liberal Democrat member of the European Parliament supported by 30 members of whom not more than five shall be members in the same Local Party, or Youth/Student SAO. No member shall sign more than one nomination paper. The election shall be by ballot of the membership in accordance with Annexe 1, Appendix 3 of this Constitution.

- b. An election for the Leader of the European Parliamentary Group shall be held within twelve months of a European Election for a term ending with a similar election after the following election. An election shall in addition take place if they resign, cease to be a Member of the European Parliament, a vote of no confidence in the Leader of the Parliamentary Group is passed by a majority of the Group in the European Parliament or by a resolution of no confidence passed by at least 40% of Local Parties, following a quorate General Meeting of each Local Party.
- c. Should only one Welsh Liberal Democrat Member be returned to the European Parliament, that member shall, if not elected as Leader of the Party, be automatically styled as Deputy Leader of the Party. In the event that there are no Welsh Liberal Democrat Members of the European Parliament then the Leader of the Party shall be permitted to select a Deputy Leader, who shall act as the spokesperson for European Affairs in Wales.

6. The President, Deputy President, the Executive Officer for Campaigns & Communications, the Executive Officer for Policy Development and the Executive Officer for Membership Development shall:

- a. Be elected by the Party Membership. Any member may apply but must have the support of 30 members drawn from at least 5 Local Parties.
- b. Be elected for three year terms.
- c. Commence office on 1 January of the year following their election, with the election taking place alongside the Autumn Conference preceding the start of a three-year term.
- d. Be restricted for two consecutive terms in the role.
- e. Not be permitted to stand for re-election if their re-election would mean that they would serve more than three consecutive terms as a member of a committee.

7. The Executive Officer for Finance & Resources, the Treasurer, and the Diversity Officer shall:

- a. Be elected by the Board at its first meeting following an election for Ordinary Members of the Board. Any member may apply.
- b. Be elected for three-year terms.
- c. Commence office immediately.
- d. Be restricted for two consecutive terms in the role.
- e. Not be permitted to stand for re-election if their re-election would mean that they would serve more than three consecutive terms as a member of a committee.

8. The Board shall create application forms for all Officer positions that require an application. The form shall ask for applicants to set out the skills and experiences they have for the role, and what they commit to delivering if elected.

9. Casual vacancies for:

- a. The President shall be filled as soon as a by-election can be arranged in accordance with the relevant election rules, save that the by-election does not need to be held alongside an Autumn Conference, and the term of office will commence immediately and end at the end of the original three year term. Until a new President is elected the Deputy President shall carry out the functions of the President in addition to the functions of the Deputy President.
- b. Deputy President shall be filled as soon as a by-election can be arranged in accordance with the relevant election rules, save that the by-election does not need to be held alongside an Autumn Conference, and the term of office will commence immediately and end at the end of the original three year term. Until a new Deputy President is elected the Constitutional Affairs Committee shall elect a member of the Committee to carry out the functions of the Deputy President.
- c. The Executive Officer for Campaigns & Communications, the Executive Officer for Policy Development and the Executive Officer for Membership Development shall be filled as soon as a by-election can be arranged in accordance with the relevant election rules, save that the by-election does not need to be held alongside an Autumn Conference, and the term of office will commence immediately and end at the end of the original three year term. Until a new Executive Officer is elected the relevant Committee shall elect a member of the Committee to carry out the functions of the Executive Officer.
- d. The Executive Officer for Finance & Resources shall be filled at the next meeting of the Board in accordance with the relevant election rules, save that the term of office will end at the end of the original three-year term. The Board should aim to meet within a month of the vacancy arising.
- e. The Treasurer shall be filled at the next meeting of the Board in accordance with the relevant election rules, save that the term of office will end at the end of the original three-year term.
- f. The Diversity Officer shall be filled at the next meeting of the Board in accordance with the relevant election rules, save that the term of office will end at the end of the original three-year term.

10. Officers of the Party other than the Leader of the Party, the Leader of the UK Parliamentary Group, the Leader of the National Assembly Group and the Leader of the European Parliamentary Group shall be liable to removal from office.

- a. The grounds upon which an individual may be removed from office shall be any one or more of the following:
 - i. The individual has not fulfilled their appropriate constitutional duties;
 - ii. The individual has failed to attend meetings of the Board or the relevant Committee (as the case may be) for a period of at least six months;
 - iii. The individual has been banned from holding office in the Party following disciplinary proceedings; or
 - iv. The individual has otherwise acted contrary to the Party's best interests.

- b. An individual may apply to the Chair of the Appeals Panel for dispensation from the effect of failing to attend meetings of the Board or relevant Committee prior to initiation of the process for their removal from office. If they have not done so they shall not be liable for removal from office on the grounds that they have failed to attend meetings of the Board or the relevant Committee (as the case may be) for a period of at least six months, unless:
 - i. There have been at least two meetings of the Board or the relevant Committee (as the case may be) during that period; and
 - ii. The individual has received at least seven days' notice of each such meeting; and
 - iii. The individual has been afforded the ability to attend each such meeting in person, or by telephone or video conferencing.
- c. The process for removal of an individual from office shall be initiated by the Board either:
 - i. By a duly constituted meeting of the Board resolving that initiating the process for removing an individual from office is in the best interests of the Party and that all other possible avenues of reconciliation and/or mediation have been exhausted; or
 - ii. By a duly constituted meeting of the Board being informed that a valid petition calling for the removal from office of the individual has been presented to the President (or the Deputy President if the petition calls for the removal of the President from office) and the Board resolving that all other possible avenues of reconciliation and/or mediation have been exhausted. In order for such a petition to be valid it must be signed by at least 10% of the total membership of the Party at the end of the quarter preceding its submission; and:
 - 1. Be in paper form (scanned copies of the petition will suffice, provided that the originals must remain available for submission on request),
 - 2. State on each sheet the name of the individual about whom complaint is made, the position they hold, and the grounds upon which it is sought to remove that individual from office,
 - 3. State on each sheet the date upon which the first signature was appended,
 - 4. Set out the name, party membership number, local party and hand-written signature of each signatory.
 - 5. Be presented to the President, or the Deputy President if the petition calls for the removal of the President from office, within 28 days from the date upon which the first signature was appended.
- d. Following initiation of the process for the removal from office of any member of the Board or any member of any of the Committees, the President shall notify the individual about whom complaint is made of:

 - II. Be elected until the next election for Ordinary Members of the Policy Development Committee.
 - III. Commence office immediately.
- d. The Representatives to the Federal People Development Sub-Committee shall:
 - I. Be elected by the Membership Development Committee from amongst their own number at its first meeting following an election for Ordinary Members of the committee.
 - II. Be elected until the next election for Ordinary Members of the Membership Development Committee.
 - III. Commence office immediately.

16. The Board shall create application forms for all Committee positions that require an application. The form shall ask for applicants to set out the skills and experiences they have for the role, and what they commit to delivering if elected.

17. Casual vacancies for Ordinary Members of all committees, the representative from Local Government to the Policy Development Committee and representatives to Federal Party Committees shall be filled by a by-election taking place alongside the next Conference, unless a by-election for an officer role takes place beforehand, or the Board decides that there is a need to fill the vacancy quickly.

18. Ordinary Members of the Board, Ordinary Members of the Campaigns and Communications Committee, Ordinary Members of the Policy Development Committee, Ordinary Members of the Membership Development Committee, Ordinary Members of the Finance & Resource Committee, Ordinary Members of the Conference Committee, Ordinary Members of the Constitutional Affairs Committee, the Representative from local government to the Policy Development Committee, the Representative to the Federal Board, the Representative to the Federal Conference Committee, the Representative to the Federal International Relations Committee, the Representative to the Federal Policy Committee and the Representatives to the Federal People Development Sub-Committee shall be liable to removal from office.

- a. The grounds upon which an individual may be removed from office shall be any one or more of the following:
 - i. The individual has not fulfilled their appropriate constitutional duties;

- ii. The individual has failed to attend meetings of the Board or the relevant Committee (as the case may be) for a period of at least six months;
 - iii. The individual has been banned from holding office in the Party following disciplinary proceedings; or
 - iv. The individual has otherwise acted contrary to the Party's best interests.
- b. An individual may apply to the Chair of the Appeals Panel for dispensation from the effect of failing to attend meetings of the Board or relevant Committee prior to initiation of the process for their removal from office. If they have not done so they shall not be liable for removal from office on the grounds that they have failed to attend meetings of the Board or the relevant Committee (as the case may be) for a period of at least six months, unless:
 - i. There have been at least two meetings of the Board or the relevant Committee (as the case may be) during that period; and
 - ii. The individual has received at least seven days' notice of each such meeting; and
 - iii. The individual has been afforded the ability to attend each such meeting in person, or by telephone or video conferencing.
- c. The process for removal of an individual from office shall be initiated by the Board either:
 - i. By a duly constituted meeting of the Board resolving that initiating the process for removing an individual from office is in the best interests of the Party and that all other possible avenues of reconciliation and/or mediation have been exhausted; or
 - ii. By a duly constituted meeting of the Board being informed that a valid petition calling for the removal from office of the individual has been presented to the President (or the Deputy President if the petition calls for the removal of the President from office) and the Board resolving that all other possible avenues of reconciliation and/or mediation have been exhausted. In order for such a petition to be valid it must be signed by at least 10% of the total membership of the Party at the end of the quarter preceding its submission; and:
 - 1. Be in paper form (scanned copies of the petition will suffice, provided that the originals must remain available for submission on request),
 - 2. State on each sheet the name of the individual about whom complaint is made, the position they hold, and the grounds upon which it is sought to remove that individual from office,
 - 3. State on each sheet the date upon which the first signature was appended,
 - 4. Set out the name, party membership number, local party and hand-written signature of each signatory.
 - 5. Be presented to the President, or the Deputy President if the petition calls for the removal of the President from office, within 28 days from the date upon which the first signature was appended.

- d. Following initiation of the process for the removal from office of any member of the Board or any member of any of the Committees, the President shall notify the individual about whom complaint is made of:
 - i. the grounds upon which it is sought to remove him or her from office; and
 - ii. the date and venue of the meeting of the Board at which the matter will be discussed (of which not less than 14 days' notice shall be given to the individual concerned).
- e. The proposal to remove from office any member of the Board or any member of any of the Committees shall be considered at a physical meeting of the Board, to which each member of the Board and the individual about whom complaint is made has been afforded the ability to attend in person, by telephone or by video conferencing. No vote to remove an individual from office:
 - i. shall be valid unless the individual about whom complaint is made has first been afforded the ability to make representations either in person or in writing;
 - ii. shall be valid unless passed by a two-thirds majority of the total membership of the Board (whether present at the meeting or not); and
 - iii. shall not take effect until whichever is the later of seven days after the date of the Board meeting in question or the determination by the Welsh Appeals Panel of any appeal brought by the individual about whom complaint is made within the said period of seven days.

Upon a decision to remove an individual from office becoming effective, the Returning Officer shall declare the position in question vacant and make provision for an election to fill that vacancy in accordance with Party's election rules. The notice of the election shall state the reason for the vacancy. The individual who has been removed from office shall (unless banned from holding office in the Party following disciplinary proceedings) be entitled to stand as a candidate in the subsequent election.

Section H: Local Parties

1. There shall be Local Parties in all parts of Wales.
2. Local Parties shall be recognised by the Party and entitled to the rights granted by this Constitution only if they have at least thirty members and have adopted a constitution incorporating the principles contained in the Federal Constitution and in this Constitution.
3. A Local Party's boundaries shall be determined and may be revised by the Welsh Board. In exercising this power the Board shall:
 - i. Consult pre-existing Local Parties and members in the area, including in particular those elected to public office at any level;
 - ii. Give effect, as far as practicable, to any local agreement reached;
 - iii. Take into account the ability of the Local Party to be able to play its part in pursuing the objects of the Party and the need for it to be an effective campaigning unit; and
 - iv. Take into account the democratic right of members to participate in the affairs of the Party and the Local Party.
4. Except where a local agreement acceptable to the Welsh Board and satisfying the requirements above has been reached, a Local Party shall be formed of the members:
 - i. In a single Principle Local Authority area; or
 - ii. In the combined areas of two or more Principle Local Authorities; or
 - iii. In a subdivision of a Principle Local Authority area, taking into account National Assembly or United Kingdom Parliamentary boundaries.
5. When the membership of a Local Party falls below thirty for a continuous period of six months, the, the clauses of 1-4 above shall be applied in redrawing the boundaries of Local Parties in that area.
6. The boundaries of Local Parties may be reviewed from time to time, either on the initiative of the Local Parties or the Executive, and in any such review the terms of clauses 1-4 shall apply.
7. In the event of a dispute about the boundaries or composition of a Local Party, any affected Local Party or an aggrieved member of it, may appeal to the Appeals Panel.
8. For the purpose of elections for a Parliamentary constituency, National Assembly for Wales constituency or Local Authority comprising a plurality of Local Parties, the Local Parties concerned shall form a joint coordinating committee to co- ordinate campaigning and publicity, and to be responsible for the formulation of policy on local issues for that election with such powers and otherwise on such terms as may be thought fit.

9. The Conference shall publish, and may from time to time vary, a model constitution for Local Parties.

10. Each Local Party shall have a constitution, and may adopt a constitution which is not in the model form, or is in the model form subject to variations, and may from time to time amend its constitution.

11. Any Local Party constitution not wholly in the model form and any amendment shall be subject to approval by the Board. Such approval may be withheld if, in the opinion of the Board, the constitution or amendment:

- a. contravenes the principles set out in Article 4.6 of the Federal Constitution or the Preamble to this Constitution or is otherwise in conflict with any of the provisions of this Constitution; or
- b. is unworkable or defective, or omits or deletes provisions necessary to the proper functioning of the Local Party.

12. The constitution of a Local Party must comply with the following principles:

- a. the Local Party must have an executive committee, which has officers and ordinary members and may have ex-officio and co-opted members, and which must report to the Annual General Meeting on its activities;
- b. the executive committee must comprise both men and women and at least one person under the age of 26;
- c. the election of officers and ordinary members of the executive committee must be by all members of the Local Party, voting either on a single roll or (in the case of voting for ordinary members of the executive committee) in branches;
- d. there must be proper regulations (either in the constitution of the Local Party or in standing orders made thereunder) for the conduct of elections and meetings;
- e. there must be a democratic process for the selection of candidates for election to local authorities;
- f. the constitution of the Local Party may be amended only by a properly convened and quorate general meeting by the vote of at least two-thirds of those present and voting, and no amendment shall take effect until it has been approved under Clause H.11 of this Constitution; and
- g. those rules contained in Article 4.6 of the Federal Constitution.

13. The constitution of a Local Party is subject to this Constitution and, in the event of any conflict between them, this Constitution shall prevail.

14. The rights of a Local Party under this Constitution may be suspended by the Board if it is not adhering to this (or its own) Constitution, if it is not adhering to the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 or if events have taken place which are or may be seriously detrimental to the Local Party or to the Party as a whole.

15. Before exercising any powers under Clause H.14 of this Constitution, the Board shall draw the attention of the Local Party to the grounds on which it is proposed to take this action, and shall give the Local Party a reasonable time to answer any allegations and/or take any necessary corrective action. A Local Party which is suspended under Clause H.14 of this Constitution may appeal that decision as provided by Section L: Appeals Panel, of this Constitution.

16. During the period of suspension the powers and functions of the Local Party and its organs shall be exercised subject to and in accordance with the directions of the Board, and the Local Party shall not be entitled to representation at the Federal Conference or at the Welsh Conference.

17. Where a Local Party has been suspended, the suspension may be lifted by the Board if it is satisfied that corrective action has been taken.

18. A Local Party shall be suspended if its membership has remained below thirty for a continuous period of six months, and shall remain suspended until its membership reaches thirty. A Local Party which has been suspended on this ground shall cease to have the rights conferred upon Local Parties by this Constitution.

19. Any person who is employed by or provides services to a Local Party for payment shall be appointed only by its executive committee and paid only through the Local Party's funds.

20. Each recognised Local Party shall appoint a Membership Secretary, who shall be responsible for such membership fees as are collected by the Local Party and shall account to the Finance and Management Committee for such fees.

21. The Executive of a Local Party may approve the formation of ward or branch parties.

22. The Board shall have the power, in its absolute discretion, to recognise groups of local members of fewer than thirty members who shall have only the right to representation on the Conference pursuant to Clause F.3.b of this Constitution.

Section I: Assembly Electoral Regional Committees

The Local Parties within each Assembly Electoral Region (“Region”) may by a majority determine to establish and maintain an Assembly Electoral Regional Committee (“AERC”) for that Region. In the event that the Local Parties in a Region determine to establish and maintain an AERC for that Region, the following provisions shall apply. In the event that the Local Parties in a Region do not determine to establish and maintain an AERC for that Region, the Board shall exercise the functions of an AERC.

A. Function

1. AERCs shall assume principal responsibility for all aspects of Regional Assembly elections. Specifically, they shall be responsible for:

- a. Coordinating regional Assembly election campaigns;
- b. Coordinating and supervising the selection of Assembly list candidates within their electoral region;
- c. Coordinating and initiating regional campaigns in between Assembly elections;
- d. Raising money for the conduct of Regional Assembly elections;
- e. Liaising with Local Parties to organise regional membership recruitment campaigns;
- f. Coordinating policy on regional issues for the National Assembly Election in line with national policy and local needs;
- g. Maintaining liaison between Regional Assembly Members and the Party in their region;
- h. Coordinating local government election campaigns and collate information on local government elections within their Assembly Electoral Region.

B. Composition

1. An AERC shall consist of:

- a. A Chair, whose function shall be to chair meetings of the AERC and report in writing to the Chair of the Campaigns and Communications Committee at least twice a year. The Chair shall be nominated and elected by the representatives to the AERC from the regional membership at large.
- b. A Vice-Chair, who shall carry out the functions of the Chair in his/her absence. The Vice-Chair shall be nominated and elected by the representatives to the AERC from the regional membership at large.
- c. A Secretary, who shall take minutes of all AERC meetings and shall conduct all correspondence on behalf of the AERC. The Secretary shall be nominated and elected by the representatives to the AERC from the regional membership at large.
- d. A Treasurer, who shall maintain the accounts of the AERC and shall ensure that the AERC is compliant with PPERA and any subsequent UK and/or Welsh legislation regarding the financial operation of Political Parties. The Treasurer shall be nominated and elected by the representatives to the AERC from the regional membership at large.

e. The Chair of each Local Party covered by the Assembly Region. Should the Local Party Chair already hold one of the four Regional Officer positions outlined above (a-d) or be a sitting Assembly Member or a selected Assembly Candidate (g below), the relevant Local Party shall not be additionally represented by this clause.

f. Representatives of each Assembly Constituency covered by the Assembly Region elected at a Local Party AGM based on the membership in each Constituency at 31 December of the year of the AGM. Constituencies shall be represented on the following basis:

i. Constituencies of up to 50 members shall be entitled to two representatives.

ii. Constituencies of over 50 members shall be entitled to one additional representative for every 75 members (or part thereof) in excess of 50 members up to a threshold of 500 members. If a constituency is in excess of 500 members they shall be entitled to additional representation of one representative for every 100 members (or part thereof) in excess of 500.

g. Sitting Assembly Members and selected Assembly Candidates for either the relevant Regional List or Assembly Constituencies within the Region.

C. Meetings

1. Each AERC shall meet no less than four times a year. Normally, the Autumn meeting of the AERC shall serve as the Annual Meeting, at which the AERC's officers are elected.

2. The Annual Meeting of the AERC shall be responsible for:

- a. Electing the AERC officers set out in Clause I.B.1, above;
- b. Receiving the audited accounts from the Treasurer;
- c. Receiving reports from the Electoral Region's AMs;
- d. Any other business deemed necessary.

D. Failure to Fulfil Functions and/or Responsibilities

1. Should an AERC fail to fulfil its functions or responsibilities as set out in sub-sections I.A to I.C, above, the Board, or a nominated sub-group thereof, shall take over the role of the relevant AERC until such a time that the Board believes that the AERC is able to resume.

Section J: Candidates for Public Office

1. There shall be lists of persons approved to stand as official Welsh Party Candidates for the National Assembly for Wales, the House of Commons and the European Parliament.
2. Any member who has a minimum of twelve month's continuous membership of the Party and having renewed said membership, may apply to the Party to be assessed before being added to the list of approved candidates. Any member applying who does not meet this criteria may still apply but they will not be assessed until the membership criteria has been met. The Chair of the Campaigns and Communications Committee shall be permitted to grant a waiver to this rule in exceptional circumstances following consultation with the Chief Executive and/or the Party Manager.
3. No candidate or prospective candidate shall be entitled to style themselves a Welsh Liberal Democrat Candidate unless that person is an approved candidate under this Section.
4. Any person refused approval or disputing the grade given may appeal to the Chair of the Campaigns and Communications Committee. In deciding whether to enter an applicant on the list, the Committee shall take into account the matters referred to in Article 11.3 of the Federal Constitution.
5. The Conference shall determine, and may from time to time vary, the regulations governing the approval and selection processes for Prospective Candidates of the European Parliament, Prospective Candidates for the Westminster Parliament, Prospective Candidates for the National Assembly for Wales and for specific elections which have a political implication in Wales such as (but not exclusively) elected Police and Crime Commissioners or Directly Elected Mayors. These regulations shall be drawn up by the Campaigns and Communications Committee insofar as their adoption is consistent with this Constitution and the Federal Constitution, for submission to the Conference.
6. The Campaigns and Communications Committee shall ensure that prospective candidates are selected for the Welsh European region, for each Parliamentary Constituency and for each Constituency and Electoral Region for the National Assembly for Wales, and may set selection procedures in motion where individual Local Parties have failed to do so within the six month period in the run up to an election or the imminent prospect of an election.
7. Selection shall nevertheless be in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Constitution and this Constitution but the Campaigns and Communications Committee shall have authority to vary the operation of the Rules where it considers that such variation is required by unusual local circumstances.
8. If, following the selection of a Prospective Parliamentary/Assembly Candidate, a vacancy occurs in the seat, such selection shall cease to have effect and a new selection process shall take place to select a prospective candidate for the by- election save that the incumbent

Prospective Candidate shall be guaranteed an interview for potential inclusion on any shortlist that arises from the new selection process. The rules for the Selection of by-election candidates are made under the provisions of Articles 11.6 and 11.8 of the Federal Constitution and shall form an Annexe to the Welsh Liberal Democrat Constitution.

9. These provisions shall apply to the approval and selection of European candidates and Welsh Assembly List Candidates except that the functions of the Local Party and its Executive Committee shall be carried out by such bodies as the Selection Rules shall provide.

10. The Rules for the Selection and adoption of Candidates for the European Parliament Elections in the European Electoral Region of Wales, the Rules for the Selection of National Assembly for Wales Candidates, Parliamentary Candidates and any other election or body that the Conference deems necessary under Clause J.5 (above) shall form an Annexe to this Constitution.

Section K: Associated Organisations

1. Any organisation of persons having a common link of interest which satisfies the following criteria:
 - a. its membership is limited to members of the Party or non-members who support the fundamental values and objectives of the Party;
 - b. its objects are consistent with those fundamental values and objectives; and
 - c. its internal procedures conform with the basic democratic principles set forth in Section C of this Constitution may be recognised as an Associated Organisation ("AO") by the Board.
 - a. Any such organisation which, in addition to satisfying the criteria set forth in Section K.1, above, consists solely (in the case of youth and/or students) of members of the Party and is listed in the Annexe to this Constitution shall be recognised as a Specified Associated Organisation ("SAO") by the Board. Other organisations may, subject to any criteria established pursuant to Section K.1, above, qualify for status as a Specified Associated Organisation following a proposal from the Board and a two-thirds majority of Conference.
 - b. Once so approved, an SAO shall be subject to the provisions in the same way as those SAOs which are specified herein. A list of such added SAOs shall be appended to the relevant Annexe of this Constitution. The Annexe shall expire at the end of every fourth Autumn Conference from 2008 (although the Board shall have the power to delay this each time by a further twelve months on a two-thirds majority) and must be renewed by means of an amendable motion from the Board to the Conference.
3. An Associated Organisation (AO) shall have the following rights:
 - a. to be consulted on policy matters of special interest to the AO or on which it has special knowledge or expertise;
 - b. to present evidence to any policy working group covering issues relevant to the organisation; and
 - c. to submit proposals for membership of any relevant policy working group.
4. Specified Associated Organisations shall:
 - a. Have the same recognitions procedure and rights as provided for SAOs at Federal level by the Federal Constitution; and
 - b. Have the additional right to identify with and move motions and amendments at meetings of the Conference through those members of the SAO who are members of the Conference.
5. For the purposes of exercising the rights conferred on SAOs by this Constitution, an SAO representing youth and/or students shall have the same rights as a Local Party.

6. If an AO, or an SAO, is in breach of the criteria set forth in Section K or established pursuant to Clause H.1, above, it may be suspended from the exercise of its rights under this Constitution by the Board. Before exercising any powers under this Clause, the body proposing to suspend or recommend the suspension of the rights of the AO or SAO shall draw the attention of the AO or SAO concerned to the grounds on which it is proposed to take this action, and the AO or SAO shall be given reasonable time to answer any allegations and/or take any necessary corrective action.

7. The suspension of an AO or SAO may be effected by the Board and shall be reported to the next meeting of the Conference, which may revoke such suspension or, by a two-thirds majority, remove from an organisation the status of an AO or SAO.

8. Any suspension of an AO or SAO may be lifted by the suspending body if it is satisfied that corrective action has been taken.

9. A member of an SAO shall not be counted as a member for the purposes of Section E of this Constitution or participate in exercising the rights of an SAO under Sections D to H of this Constitution or of Article 10 of the Federal Constitution, if:

- a. such a member is not a member of the Party;
- b. in the case of the Youth and/or Student Organisation, such a member has reached the age of 26 and is not a Student;
- c. such a member, having been originally enrolled by an SAO, has elected to exercise the relevant constitutional rights through a Local Party; or
- d. Such a member, having been originally enrolled by a Local Party, has not elected to exercise the relevant constitutional rights concurrently as a member of more than one SAO or as a member of both an SAO and a Local Party.

10. The recognition by the Party of Associated Organisations, and the conferring by this Constitution of rights upon Specified Associated Organisations, shall not prejudice the independence of such organisations.

Section L: The Appeals Panel

1. There shall be an Appeals Panel comprising of a Clerk, who shall be the Party's Chief Executive, the Chair and ten other members nominated by the Board or a Local Party and confirmed by the Conference for a term of office of five years commencing on 1 January following confirmation. The Appeals Panel shall elect a Vice-Chair from amongst its members. The list of members of the Appeals Panel along with the date(s) of their appointment and/or expiry of appointment shall form an Annexe to this Constitution.
2. The Chair of the Appeals Panel shall be nominated by the Board and confirmed by the Conference for a term of office of five years commencing on 1st January following confirmation. The Chair of the Appeals Panel shall also serve as the Welsh Vice Chair of the Federal Appeals Panel in accordance with Article 14 of the Federal Constitution. Should the Chair of the Appeals Panel be ineligible to be the Welsh Vice Chair under the terms of Article 14 of the Federal Constitution, the Welsh Members of the Federal Appeals Panel shall elect a Vice Chair from amongst their own number.
3. Welsh members of the Federal Appeals Panel shall be nominated and confirmed by the same procedure outlined in L.1 above, and shall be ex-officio members of the Welsh Appeals Panel during the period of their membership of the Federal Appeals Panel.
4. Each member of the Panel shall be eligible for reappointment. No person shall be eligible for appointment if (and any member shall forthwith vacate office upon becoming) an AM, MP, MEP, Prospective Assembly or Parliamentary Candidate, or a member of the Board or the Campaigns and Communications Committee or an employee of the Party. The body making the original appointment may terminate the appointment because the appointee is no longer able to carry out his or her duties as a member of the Panel on account of ill health or for other good cause. Any casual vacancy on the Panel may be filled by the body making the original appointment for the residue of the term of that appointment and/or by a resolution of the Appeal Panel members providing this is subject to ratification by the Conference at the next available opportunity.
5. The Appeals Panel shall adjudicate on:
 - a. any dispute over the interpretation of this Constitution;
 - b. any claim that the rights under this Constitution of a member or of a Party body have been infringed;
 - c. any dispute between the Welsh Liberal Democrats and an AERC or Local Party, or between AERCs or between Local Parties; and
 - d. any matter expressly so provided by these Sections or by rules made hereunder.
6. The members of the Panel to hear a particular case shall be selected by the Chair, subject to the following provisos:
 - a. the Chair alone may determine any dispute over the interpretation of this Constitution;

- b. at least three members shall hear any other case;
- c. no member shall be from the same Constituency/Area as the appellant or have any direct involvement in the matters in dispute.

7. The Chair of the Appeals Panel and the Clerk may make and publish rules for its own procedures. The rules so published must be ratified by the Conference at the next available opportunity and shall form an Annexe to this Constitution. These rules shall include:

- a. the initial processing of an appeal, including:
 - i. a power to the Chair to determine whether or not an appeal is valid;
 - ii. a power to the Chair to order a mediation process;
 - iii. an indicative timetable, and a power to the Chair to impose deadlines (and so that any appeal must, unless the Chair extends this deadline in exceptional circumstances, be concluded within three months of being lodged, and may be dismissed if the appellant does not co-operate with the related timetable) save that any appeal must be submitted to the Clerk of the Appeals Panel no later than two weeks after the incident which is the subject of the appeal, has occurred; and
 - iv. an obligation on the Appeals Panel, so far as is practicable to identify the parties to an appeal hearing, and to notify all of them sufficiently in advance to enable them to submit documentary evidence and provide witnesses; and
- b. the conduct of an appeal.

8. Any decision of the Panel shall, subject to any right of appeal under the Federal Constitution, be final and binding on all concerned. The Panel may publish any decisions or issue any statement/direction in respect of a decision which, in the opinion of the Chair, are likely to be of value as a precedent. The Panel shall also report annually to the Conference on any adjudication it has made regarding the interpretation of this Constitution and the nature of any other complaints it has had to deal with and any recommendations to avoid the recurrence of similar complaints.

Section M: Amendments to the Constitution

1. Save as is hereinafter provided, this Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority of members of Conference present and voting at a meeting of the Conference. Motions to amend the Constitution may be proposed by the Constitutional Affairs Committee, the Board, Local Parties, Specified Associated Organisations or by 20 members of the Conference. Notice of motions to amend the Constitution shall be sent to all members of Conference at least one month before the meeting of Conference at which those motions are to be debated.
2. There shall be a standing, Constitutional Affairs Committee which shall have the power to amend the Constitution subject to ratification by Conference at its next meeting (and if necessary by any all-member ballot if the rights of an individual are reduced (Clause M.3 below)) following any changes. Additionally, the Committee shall:
 - i. ensure that this Constitution is compliant with any UK or Welsh Laws and Legislation covering the governance of Political Parties, such as PPERA.
 - ii. ensure that this constitution is compliant with the requirements and rules for State Party Constitutions set out in the Federal Constitution.
 - ii. review proposed amendments to this Constitution to ensure that they are valid amendments and to ensure that the integrity of the Constitution is retained by proposing additional drafting amendments.
3.
 - a. Any proposed motion to amend the Constitution whose effect would be to reduce the rights of individual members (including any reduction in the matters for which a ballot of members is required pursuant to this Constitution) shall not be valid unless ratified by two-thirds of the members voting in a ballot.
 - b. The outcome of any ballot of the Party's Membership shall be notified to the Membership no later than four weeks after any result has been declared.
4. Any amendment to this Constitution shall take effect at the end of the meeting of Conference at which the amendment is adopted, or at the date an amendment is made by the Constitutional Affairs Committee (this amendment stays in place until the start of the ratification of the change at the next Conference), or if Clause M3 is invoked, once the result of an all-member ballot has been counted and the result declared by the Returning Officer save that any changes to the composition of a Committee shall not take effect until the next set of elections to that Committee.

The original Section M read as follows:

1. Save as is hereinafter provided, this Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority of members of Conference present and voting at a meeting of the Conference. Motions to amend the Constitution may be proposed by the Constitutional Affairs Committee, the Board, Local Parties, Specified Associated Organisations or by 20 members of the Conference. Notice of motions to amend the Constitution shall be sent to all members of Conference at least one month before the meeting of Conference at which those motions are to be debated.

2. Any motion to amend the Constitution shall require a quorum of one half of the registered representatives in respect of the relevant meeting of the Conference.

3. There shall be a standing, Constitutional Affairs Committee which shall have the power to amend the Constitution subject to ratification by Conference at its next meeting (and if necessary by any all-member ballot if the rights of an individual are reduced (Clause M.6 below)) following any changes. Additionally, the Panel shall:

- i. ensure that this Constitution is compliant with any UK or Welsh Legislation covering the governance of Political Parties, such as PPERA.
- ii. review proposed amendments to this Constitution to ensure that they are valid amendments and to ensure that the integrity of the Constitution is retained by proposing additional drafting amendments.

4. The membership of the Constitutional Affairs Committee shall be:

- a. The President, who shall be the Chair of the Panel;
- b. The Chair of the Board;
- c. The Chair of the Conference Committee;
- d. 1 Representative of the Combined Assembly/Parliamentary Groups;
- e. 3 members nominated by the President and confirmed by the Conference who shall serve for a two-year term of office and shall be eligible for re-confirmation;
- f. The Federal Party's Head of Compliance and Constitutional Support, or his/her designated substitute shall be invited to act as a consultant to the Panel and may attend meetings as he/she sees fit.

5. The full list of members, with the dates of appointment and expiry, shall form an Annexe to this Constitution.

- 6.
- a. Any proposed motion to amend the Constitution whose effect would be to reduce the rights of individual members (including any reduction in the matters for which a ballot of members is required pursuant to this Constitution) shall not be valid unless ratified by two-thirds of the members voting in a ballot.
 - b. The outcome of any ballot of the Party's Membership shall be notified to the Membership no later than four weeks after any result has been declared.

7. Any amendment to this Constitution shall take effect at the end of the meeting of Conference at which the amendment is adopted or, if Clause M.6 is invoked, once the result of an all-member ballot has been counted and the result declared by the Returning Officer save that any changes to the composition of a Committee shall not take effect until the next set of elections to that Committee.
