Fresh voices for Hindhead on Haslemere Town Council

Tory Councillor steps down after failing to attend a SINGLE meeting in a year

Hindhead faces a by-election on October 11th, for two vacancies on Haslemere Town Council.

One of these has been caused by a Conservative Councillor finally standing down after failing to get to even ONE of more than twenty meetings he was supposed to be at as your local representative!

We think it's disgraceful that local Conservatives allowed this to go on for so long. What does that say about how much they (don't) care about representing you?

Hindhead Lib Dems will not ignore residents in this way. We are putting forward well-known local residents, Jerome Davidson and Geoff Whitby, as candidates and they are pledged to work hard to represent Hindhead.

Finally, we note with sadness that the other vacancy has resulted due to the death of

Time for new voices to be heard

We all know better decisions are taken when a range of opinions are considered. So, it must be a concern that Haslemere Town Council has only recently ceased to be a 'one party state'!

In the 2015 elections, all 18 places were taken by Conservatives. The only change since then has been the victory in a by-election, less than a year ago, of the redoubtable local Independent, Nikki Barton.

But she is still outnumbered by 17 to 1. We think it will benefit all local residents if she is joined by other voices alongside Tories. In the last Town Council elections, the Tories won 63% of the votes. The 37% who did not vote Conservative should also be represented on our local Council. October 11th is your chance to make that happen!

You have two votes on October 11th.
Use them to make a difference.
