Liberal, compassionate, optimistic - the Britain we will fight for

by Tim Farron MP

Friends, I want to welcome you to York and to our Spring Conference.

This year we gather at conference with a renewed purpose and a spring in our step.

Since last May we have had a string of by-election results throughout the country and we have seen some real progress from Loch Ness to Torbay. Our work and action is paying off.

The community politics that I, and so many of you, espouse is starting to show dividends at the ballot box and we now can start delivering for those communities.

That being said we are all aware of the coming challenges – but there are opportunities too.

The Tories are rampant but divided.

They are about to pour salt into the sore of Europe, a wound first laid bare back in 1992 with the Maastricht Treaty, but in the meantime they are unpicking progressive achievements of the Coalition.

My message to this conference is clear – our party will challenge them wherever their decisions undermine people and their ability to get on with their lives.

We need to lay out a positive case. A clear, unashamed Liberal vision and programme for Britain. And we will be a constructive, credible and effective opposition. Because, frankly, without us there is no real national opposition.

Labour cannot and will not do that.

Under Jeremy Corbyn, Labour have taken themselves off the pitch. He is more interested in securing his power in the Labour Party rather than trying to win the power to change Britain.

Friends, I do not feel the same. I am committed to delivering Liberal outcomes through any means I can and that means winning power across local government, but in national government too.

My vision for our country is whether you are a teacher, a policeman or someone planning their own business, government and local government should help you up, not hold you back. An active, enabling state that supports you and your endeavours.

A government that talks you up, not down and doesn't pick fights with you, or try and turn neighbours against each other simply for headlines.

Britain is greatest when we stand together and look outwards. In the face of the politics of division where other parties try to set one community against another, our message of hope and optimism is needed more than ever.

Britain needs an alternative to this Government.

And the path to that alternative is clear. The Conservatives majority is tiny. Winning just seven seats from them will bring an end to this Government. Our first test of this is in May.

We need to take the fight to them in May like never before - door by door, street by street, town by town.

And we must win those fights and regain power in council halls across the country so we can deliver for our communities.

And that applies to the international stage too.

We are unashamedly pro-European and the referendum on Britain's future in Europe must be won. We will proudly campaign for Britain to continue to play our role in leading in Europe and the world.

This May we can show Britain there is a Liberal, compassionate, optimistic alternative to this Government.

This weekend will be about this, and much more. I hope you enjoy conference and let us, together, lay out the Liberal vision for Britain we will fight for.

Tim Farron is MP for Westmorland and Lonsdale and Leader of the Liberal Democrats

Debates and votes at conference

Debates on policy and business motions are at the heart of federal conference. It is through them that the party sets its policy and future direction. Unlike in other parties, Liberal Democrat members are sovereign, and what they decide really matters.

The structure of debate on policy and business motions:

Interventions: are concise (one minute) speeches made from the intervention microphone(s) on the floor of the auditorium, during debates where it is indicated in the Agenda.

Amendments: all motions except emergency motions are open to amendment; amendments accepted will be printed in Conference Daily.

Voting: decisions on most motions and on all amendments and separate votes are by simple majority of those voting (2/3 majority for constitutional amendments). To cast their votes, voting members must be seated on the ground floor of the auditorium and show their voting badge.

Separate votes: a vote on whether to delete or retain the specified words or section. A request for a separate vote may be submitted by any party member: by the start of the first conference session on the day before the debate is scheduled, or by the deadline for emergency motions for debates scheduled for the first day of conference; using the online form at libdems.org.uk/conference_papers, by email to separate.votes@libdems.org.uk, or in writing to the Speakers' Table in the auditorium.

Counted vote: the chair of the session may decide that a vote needs to be counted. Any voting member may request a count from the floor; if fifty voting representatives stand and show their voting cards, a count will be taken.

Speaking and voting in conference debates

Eligibility to speak and vote

All party members are entitled to speak and vote in conference debates, providing they are:

- attending conference as a party member (and not eg an exhibitor or observer); and
 - registered for the entirety of conference, not as a day visitor.
- Party members fulfilling these criteria are known as ‘voting members’.

The Federal Conference Committee may also give permission for other persons to speak (but not vote) in conference debates.

Length of speeches

The length of speeches is shown against each motion in the Agenda.

There are three lights on the speaker’s rostrum and visible either side of the stage. The green light is switched on at the beginning of the speech. The amber light is switched on 60 seconds before the end of the allowed time (20 seconds before the end of an intervention). The red light is switched on when all the time is used up, and the speaker must stop immediately.

Applying to speak

To make a speech in a debate you must complete a speaker’s card, collected from and returned to the Speakers’ Table at the front of the auditorium, an auditorium steward or the Information Desk.

Completing a speaker’s card

When completing a speaker’s card, remember:

1 Submit your card well in advance.

The chair and aide team for the debate will meet well in advance to plan the debate – sometimes the previous day.

2 Fill in your card completely.

Complete the two sections on the back of the card as well as the front. These sections are needed for the chair and aide to balance the debate, so they can call people with relevant experience and avoid a string of people making the same point.

3 Make sure it’s readable!

Don’t fill every square centimetre of the card; don’t write illegibly, in very small letters, or in green ink ... The easier you make it for the chair and aide to read the card the more likely you will be called.

Interventions

To speak during interventions, voting members should complete an intervention form, collected from and returned to a steward in the auditorium. Speakers will be chosen by the chair of the session by random ballot.

Other conference sessions

Emergency motions and topical issue discussions

Emergency motions are debated and voted on and make formal party policy like other motions, but refer to a substantial development since the deadline for submission of motions.

Motions selected for debate, and/or for selection by ballot along with the ballot procedure, will be printed in Saturday's Conference Daily.

Topical issue discussions allow members and spokespeople to discuss and comment on a political issue live at the time of conference; they do not make party policy.

The topical issue to be discussed is chosen by officers of the Federal Conference Committee and Federal Policy Committee and will be printed in Saturday's Conference Daily.

Leader's question & answer session

Concise questions (maximum 25 words) to the Leader on any subject may be submitted by any party member. Questions will be selected by the chair and put by the submitter from the intervention microphones in the auditorium.

Questions may be submitted using the online form at libdems.org.uk/conference_submissions:

- by 17.00, Thursday 10th March.

Questions may also be submitted on a form collected from and returned to the Speakers' Table in the auditorium

- by 12.40, Saturday 12th March.

Reports

The reports of Federal Committees and Parliamentary Parties are printed in the separate reports document.

Any party member may submit concise questions (maximum 25 words) on these reports. The chair will select which questions will be asked. Questions to reports of the Parliamentary Parties may relate to any aspect of Liberal Democrat activities in the UK or European Parliaments.

Deadlines for questions to reports:

- Federal Committees – 13.00, Tuesday 8th March.
- Parliamentary Parties – 17.00, Thursday 10th March.

Questions may be submitted using the online form at www.libdems.org.uk/conference_submissions

Questions received by the deadlines above will be printed in Saturday's Conference Daily.

Questions on events occurring after the deadlines above may be submitted on speaker's cards at the Speakers' Table up until one hour before the start of the relevant session.

Submitting amendments, emergency motions, topical issues and appeals

Amendments and emergency motions

Amendments and emergency motions must be:

- signed by 10 party members; OR
- submitted by one or more of: a local party, state party, regional party in England, Federal Specified Associated Organisation or Federal Party Committee.

Submitters should include:

- by 13.00, Tuesday 8th March.

F4 Liberal Democrat Economic Policy

Burnley, Calderdale and 208 party members

Mover: Sir Vince Cable
Summation: Gordon Lishman CBE

- 1 Conference re-asserts the Liberal Democrats' continuing commitment to
- 2 sound public finances, social justice, an open economy in an open society,

Saturday 12th March

3 and the principle of free markets whenever possible with intervention
4 where necessary by an enabling state.

5 Conference notes:

- 6 a) The Liberal Democrats' effective record in Government in stabilising 7 the public finances and major contributions in the fields of 8 apprenticeships, banking regulation, the British Business Bank, the 9 Green Investment Bank and the promotion of innovation through the 10 Catapult network.
- 11 b) The fragile nature of economic recovery following the 2008 crash,
12 evidenced by interest rates which are historically low and continued
13 Eurozone uncertainty.
- 14 c) The growth of house prices carrying the threat of a price bubble and 15 subsequent crash.
- 16 d) The Chancellor's unhelpful and arbitrary re-definition of the deficit, 17 doubling the total by including capital spending, in his attempt to justify 18 Tory spending cuts.
- 19 e) The medium-term risk to the UK economy posed by increasing and 20 unsustainable private and household debt.
- 21 f) The threats to the UK economic prospects posed by Conservative
22 approaches to UK membership of the European Union and 23 immigration.
- 24 g) The International Monetary Fund's advice to reduce debt through 25 growth not cuts.
- 26 h) The UK economy's over-dependence on London and the South-East.
- 27 i) The UK's bad record in allowing the growth of an increasing number of 28 young people with low levels of education, training and aspiration.
- 29 j) Growing inequalities in wealth and income, coupled with unfair and 30 regressive action against the poorest people in the country, now
31 exacerbated by the assault on welfare spending.

32 Conference calls for effective measures to support and grow the UK
33 economy, including by many established Liberal Democrat policies:

- 34 1. Increased investment, both directly by Government financed by public
35 borrowing, and stimulated by Government, particularly in affordable
36 housing including social housing and infrastructure to support
37 balanced growth throughout the UK.
- 38 2. Support for planning reform, institutional lending to small builders 39 and action by local authorities for planned development, including 40 assembling land for auction.
- 41 3. Further measures to improve and regulate banking services by

Saturday 12th March

- 42 promoting efficient lending, particularly to small and medium-sized 43 enterprises, encouragement of challenger banks and increased 44 personal accountability.
- 45 4. Strengthening takeover legislation to protect the country's science 46 base.
- 47 5. Reversing cuts in the development of green energy and promoting 48 investment in green business initiatives.
- 49 6. Further development of the Government's industrial strategy,
50 promoting co-operation and supply chain development in key sectors
51 for the long-term.
- 52 7. Re-balancing the economy towards manufacturing industry and 53 regions, based on the coherent and substantial devolution of political 54 and financial power.
- 55 8. Further reform of corporate governance to encourage 'long-termism' 56 and to discipline executive pay, including an employee role in 57 determining executive pay.
- 58 9. Renewed emphasis on vocational education and training, particularly 59 through effective apprenticeships and especially higher-degree level 60 and engineering and construction apprenticeships.
- 61 10. Coherent efforts across Government Departments to address the 62 needs of young people who are excluded from the labour market and 63 participation in wider society.
- 64 11. Addressing inequality through a renewed commitment across 65 Government and society to analyse and address Beveridge's Five 66 Giants in modern society.
- 67 12. Investigating sustainable ways of funding universal services, including a 68 cross-party, cross-society settlement on funding health and social care.
- 69 13. A new commitment to taxing unearned wealth, including Land Value
70 Taxation.
- 72 14. Measures to dampen the growth of asset bubbles in opposition to 72 Conservative approaches which tend to increase that growth.
- 73 15. Support for more diverse ownership models including worker
74 ownership, social enterprise, mutuality and co-operation.

Applicability: Federal, except 2 (lines 38–40), 9 (lines 58–60), and 12 (lines 67–68), housing aspects of 1 (lines 34–37), and land tax aspects of 13 (lines 69–70) which are England only.

F6 Fracking

24 party members

Mover: Cllr Bill Winlow
Summation: Duncan Brack

- 1 Conference applauds the international agreement reached in Paris in
- 2 December 2015, in which 195 countries agreed to act to avoid dangerous
- 3 climate change by limiting global warming to well below 2°C, and if
- 4 possible to below 1.5°C, above pre-industrial temperatures.
- 5 Conference reiterates its support for the Liberal Democrat aim of a zero-
- 6 carbon Britain by 2050, as a contribution to this international goal.
- 7 Conference condemns the Conservative Government's assault on
- 8 Britain's green industries, in particular renewable energy, which is not only
- 9 incompatible with the UK's commitment to the Paris agreement but is also
- 10 undermining a growing industrial sector with significant potential for jobs,
- 11 exports and prosperity.

Saturday 12th March

12 Conference notes, in contrast, the Government's extensive support for 13 the extraction of shale gas by hydraulic fracturing ('fracking'), including 14 legislating to allow fracking under national parks and other protected 15 areas, and being prepared to override local authorities' decisions not to 16 give planning consent for fracking.

17 Conference believes that:

- 18 1. Since fracking in the UK is not projected to produce significant 19 volumes of gas for at least 10–15 years, shale gas will not replace
20 coal in electricity generation, as coal is being phased out in any case
21 in line with the UK's climate targets and EU air quality rules.
- 22 2. The prospect of the extensive production of shale gas is highly likely to 23 undermine the investment in renewable energy, particularly in renewable 24 heating, which will be needed to meet the UK's climate targets.
- 25 3. Therefore fracking will undermine the UK's ability to decarbonise
26 its economy and fulfil the requirements of the Paris agreement and 27 the UK Climate Change Act, let alone the Liberal Democrats' more
28 ambitious target.

29 Conference also believes that fracking operations pose potential local 30 environmental risks to groundwater quality and water supplies, from waste
31 and air emissions, to health and biodiversity and to the geological integrity
32 of the areas involved, risks likely to be exacerbated by the Conservative 33 government's cost-cutting and deregulatory approach to compliance with 34 environmental standards.

35 Conference also notes that for these reasons and others, the governments
36 of Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland have all announced, or declared 37 their intention to announce, bans or moratoriums on fracking.

38 Conference calls on the Government to ban fracking in England, and 39 to adopt an energy policy based primarily on renewables and energy
40 efficiency, which supports the implementation of the Paris agreement.

Applicability: England only.

F7 Regulatory Framework for Cannabis

Federal Policy Committee

Mover: Norman Lamb MP (Spokesperson on Health and Care)
Summation: Lord Paddick (Lords Spokesperson on Home Affairs)

1 Conference notes:

- 2 i) That existing Liberal Democrat policy calls for those arrested
3 with drugs for personal use to be diverted to treatment if they are 4 problematic users or given education or Fixed Penalty Notices if they 5 are not.
- 6 ii) That the aim of drugs policy should be primarily to reduce public 7 health harms and, as such, responsibility for drugs policy should sit 8 predominantly with the Department of Health.
- 9 iii) Existing Liberal Democrat policy enabling doctors to prescribe 10 cannabis for medicinal use.
- 11 iv) The growing number of international examples of cannabis being 12 legally regulated, including in Uruguay and four US states, legal 13 cannabis use in Dutch coffee shops and Spain’s registered cannabis
14 social clubs, decriminalisation in Portugal, and plans from the Liberal 15 Government in Canada to legislate for regulation.
- 16 v) The report from the independent expert panel on cannabis regulation
17 convened by Norman Lamb which recommends how a regulated
18 framework for cannabis could be implemented in the UK, with a view
19 to reducing public health harms.
- 20 vi) That economic analysis of the effect of legalising cannabis has found it 21 could save the public purse £200–300 million per year in the criminal 22 justice system and generate between £400 and £900 million in tax
23 revenue, and that these figures were endorsed by the Treasury in a
24 report commissioned by Liberal Democrat Ministers in the Coalition.

Saturday 12th March

25 Conference believes that:

- 26 A. Debate around effective ways to reduce harm caused by drugs
27 should be based on evidence of what works, not on political 28 prejudice.
- 29 B. It is not right that every year tens of thousands of people receive a 30 criminal record for recreational use of cannabis, leaving a devastating 31 long-term impact on their education and employment chances.
- 32 C. As with all drugs, cannabis carries health risks and through legal 33 regulation it is possible to make cannabis products far safer for use 34 than when they are sold through an unregulated criminal market.
- 35 D. The Government should not miss out on hundreds of millions in tax 36 revenue from sales of cannabis products while criminal gangs collect 37 hundreds of millions of pounds in untaxed profits.

38 Conference calls for:

- 39 1. Government to develop a framework for the legal regulation of 40 cannabis in the UK, taking account of the recommendations of the 41 independent expert panel convened by the Liberal Democrats and 42 taking into account evidence from international frameworks for the 43 regulation of cannabis, including:
- 44 a) The establishment of an independent regulatory authority to 45 oversee and license the production and sale of cannabis products.
- 46 b) Age restrictions on the sale of cannabis products and health 47 information made available to all purchasers at the point of sale.
- 48 c) Clear limits on the strength of cannabis products made 49 commercially available.
- 50 d) Clearly defined premises in which cannabis products can be sold, 51 including the introduction of cannabis social clubs.
- 52 e) Clear restrictions around the packaging and marketing of cannabis 53 products.
- 54 f) A system of taxation which is designed to discourage more harmful 55 use.
- 56 g) The re-scheduling of cannabis to allow doctors the freedom to 57 prescribe cannabis products as medicines to their patients where 58 they consider it will be beneficial.
- 59 2. Government to increase expenditure on public health education
60 programmes about the risks of drug use to ensure consumers are 61 informed about the risks of consumption and to discourage harmful
62 drug use.

What is the Liberal Democrats' vision for the future of Britain?

As part of the FPC's Agenda 2020 exercise, which is reviewing the party's basic approach and the challenges to which we need to respond, this session invites participants to debate the nature of the society that we want build in the UK.

- How a truly Liberal Britain would meaningfully improve peoples' lives.

Submissions will also be welcome online at www.liberalbritain.org, where members will also find simple steps for organising their own Your Liberal Britain events at home. F12 Privacy and Security in a Digital Age

Federal Policy Committee

Mover: Lord Paddick (Lords Spokesperson on Home Affairs)
Summation: Dr Jenny Woods

- 1 Conference asserts that the Liberal Democrats exist to build and
- 2 safeguard a fair, free, and open society, in which liberty and security are
- 3 fundamental values.
- 4 Conference recognises the urgent need for coherent and comprehensible
- 5 legislation to govern the powers and capabilities of the security,
- 6 intelligence, and police services; this is needed to protect both the safety
- 7 of citizens and our essential right to a private life.

Saturday 12th March

8 Conference notes:

- 9 i) Work done by Liberal Democrats in government to block the 10 'Snoopers' Charter' and establish a major review of investigatory and 11 surveillance powers and safeguards.
- 12 ii) That technology has become an essential and omnipresent part of 13 life, and access to our personal technology provides a full picture of 14 our personality, movements, and sensitive personal information.
- 15 iii) The findings of Liberal Democrat-commissioned reviews by David
16 Anderson QC, Sir Nigel Sheinwald, and the Royal United Services
17 Institute; and the review of the Intelligence and Security Committee.
- 18 iv) That reform of surveillance laws has, in part, been triggered by 19 Edward Snowden's revelations and resulting public outrage.
- 20 v) That given that most perpetrators of recent terrorist atrocities have 21 been known to security and law enforcement agencies, it is clear
22 that intrusive surveillance powers only form one part of the tools
23 available to security and intelligence agencies and law enforcement; 24 community-based intelligence and proper resourcing are also 25 essential to fight serious crime and terrorism.
- 26 vi) That Britain faces sustained threats from terrorist groups such as 27 ISIL/Daesh, serious and organised crime, cyber-attacks, and other
28 organisations, and the vital role played by the police and intelligence 29 services in combating these threats.
- 30 vii) The vital role communications data has played in major investigations 31 and prosecutions, and the danger of losing this data as 32 communication moves online.
- 33 viii) That the UK should set an example in this field and that introducing 34 unduly intrusive surveillance powers without proper safeguards
35 would have a reputational effect and could lead to other countries
36 unacceptably extending their own powers.

37 Conference believes:

- 38 a) Systematic surveillance without suspicion conflicts with universal 39 values and fundamental rights, including the rights to a private life, 40 freedom of expression, association, conscience and religion.
- 41 b) Liberal Democrats remain opposed to the blanket collection of UK 42 residents' communications by the police or intelligence agencies; and 43 are concerned that intelligence agencies have long had access to UK
44 citizens' phone metadata in bulk and in secret.
- 45 c) All proposals regarding investigatory powers must be both necessary 46 and proportionate, oversight and safeguards must be robust, and

Saturday 12th March

- 47 judicial authorisation must be independent, objective, and not 48 confined by judicial review principles.
- 49 d) Any interception and storage of Internet traffic by or on behalf of 50 government agencies is potentially a threat to our human rights;
51 access should only be allowed in response to specific intelligence
52 of an identified serious threat and subject to the strictest safeguards 53 and time-limited judicial authority; collateral information must not be 54 disclosed to anyone, and must be securely destroyed.
- 55 e) Proposals for providing 'Internet Connection Records' isolated 56 from other internet activity appear to be technically complex, 57 disproportionately costly, and easily circumvented; in addition, the 58 operational case for, and the technical capability to carry out, bulk
59 collection and storage of non-business purposes data by Internet
60 Service Providers has yet to be made.
- 61 f) Current legislation has prevented those who have been surveilled 62 unlawfully from taking a direct part in any review proceedings or,
63 where appropriate, from seeking an effective remedy.
- 64 g) Public trust in the work of the intelligence and security services
65 is essential to a fair, free and open society, and that clear public 66 agreement of their remit and the extent of their powers would be 67 beneficial to all.

68 Conference therefore calls for:

- 69 1. All powers to be necessary, proportionate and fully compliant with the 70 European Convention of Human Rights.
- 72 2. Parliament to be given all necessary information and sufficient time for 72 full and proper scrutiny of the Investigatory Powers Bill.
- 73 3. The proposed Judicial Commissioners created by the draft bill to be 74 given full and independent powers for judicial authorisation over all 75 requests for intercept, bulk data acquisition, and retention.
- 76 4. No bulk collection of Internet Connection Records to be undertaken
77 unless it can be shown by the Home Office that it is technically 78 possible to restrict intrusion to the level of that held in respect of call 79 records, and that data would be collected and stored safely.
- 80 5. Any data retained under investigatory powers to be held for the 81 shortest time possible and for the strongest possible precautions
82 taken during storage, communication, or destruction.
- 83 6. Maintenance of strong and effective encryption which is the basis
84 of our online security, and should never be weakened to aid state
85 surveillance.
86

Saturday 12th March

- 87 7. The introduction of a post-hoc notification requirement for those 88 subjected to surveillance, with necessary exemptions including those 89 safeguarding ongoing surveillance and threats.
- 90 8. Any violation of the confidentiality of communications between 91 journalists and their sources, elected officials and their constituents,
92 and lawyers and their clients to be subject to additional safeguards 93 including senior independent judicial authorisation.
- 94 9. Establishment of the Privacy and Civil Liberties Board which we 95 legislated for in coalition and which the Conservative government has 96 so far failed to establish, ensuring civil liberties are properly considered 97 when formulating government policy on counter-terrorism.
- 98 10. A transparent international framework to govern the transfer of 99 personal data between legal jurisdictions.

F20 Electing Diverse MPs

Federal Executive

Mover: Caron Lindsay

Summation: Cllr Chris White

1 Conference notes:

- 2 I. The Liberal Democrats' commitment to eliminating all prejudice and
- 3 discrimination based upon race, colour, religion, age, disability, sex or
- 4 sexual orientation, and opposition to all forms of entrenched privilege
- 5 and inequality.
- 6 II. The need for the country's elected bodies and party structures to
- 7 reflect the diversity of the society we live in.
- 8 III. The insufficient diversity among the party's past and present

Sunday 13th March

- 9 representatives in the House of Commons.
- 10 IV. The efforts made to date to increase diversity amongst the party's 11 Westminster candidates, including the Campaign for Gender Balance
12 and the Leadership Programme, which led to more than half of all 13 candidates in target or held seats being women.
- 14 V. The definition of under-represented groups in guidance to political 15 parties in the Equality Act 2010 as inclusive of women, BAME, LGBT+ 16 and disability.
- 17 VI. With regret that despite the success of measures taken recently, 18 there has been a limited impact on the proportion of individuals
19 elected from under-represented groups and low socio-economic 20 backgrounds.
- 21 VII. That whilst selection of candidates is a matter devolved to the state
22 parties, the Federal Party supports actions that are already being 23 taken in England, Scotland and Wales to improve diversity amongst 24 Liberal Democrat candidates and elected representatives.

25 Conference acknowledges that:

- 26 a) The party's list of approved Westminster candidates does not fully 27 reflect the communities we aim to serve.
- 28 b) The party at all levels needs to ensure that candidates from under-
29 represented groups are attracted to apply and then selected to stand 30 for elected office.
- 31 c) To have a more diverse set of MPs, the party must concentrate its 32 efforts to increase the number of diverse candidates in the most 33 winnable Westminster seats.
- 34 d) Proposals will be coming forward on wider party diversity, including 35 in party structures and local government, as part of the Federal 36 Executive-led Governance Review to the Autumn Federal Conference.
- 37 e) Our use of zipping in past EU elections shows that positive action can 38 be very effective.
- 39 f) Scottish Liberal Democrats do not allow seat selections to proceed 40 unless 40% of the short-list is female, and that seats have been 41 asked to re-advertise where their efforts to increase diversity were 42 not deemed sufficient, and welcomes Scottish Leader Willie Rennie's
43 working group which is considering measures to improve gender
44 balance in future elections.

45 Conference recognises that:

- 46 i) The party is required to consider the provisions of the Equality Act
47 2010, including Section 104, which permits political parties to take

Sunday 13th March

- 48 proportionate positive action to reduce inequality in the party's 49 representation in Westminster, but does not allow shortlists for 50 candidate selections to be restricted to individuals with protected 51 characteristics other than by gender and disability.
- 52 ii) In percentage terms, the largest single under-represented group is 53 women, who make up 51% of the UK population.
- 54 iii) Individuals may have more than one protected characteristic which 55 should be taken into consideration in any intervention.
- 56 iv) There can be minorities who are under-represented even within under-
57 represented groups and that this should be taken into consideration
58 in any intervention.
- 59 v) Liberal Democrats continue to value candidates from over-
60 represented groups, and will ensure that training and support is 61 available for them.

62 Conference therefore resolves that to increase the proportion of Liberal 63 Democrats from under-represented groups in the House of Commons the 64 Liberal Democrats will:

- 65 A. Continue and extend support for individuals seeking approval or 66 selection as Westminster candidates from under-represented groups, 67 thus building on the work that has been done in the past including the 68 Leadership Programme.
- 69 B. Create a '2020 Candidate Diversity Task Force' to co-ordinate party-70 wide efforts to actively recruit parliamentary candidates from under-71 represented groups from both inside and outside the Party. This will 72 include a focus on recruiting candidates with more than one protected 73 characteristic and from minorities who are under-represented even 74 within under-represented groups. The Task Force will work with 75 ALDC and our cohort of councillors, recognising that, whilst local 76 government is important in its own right, it can also be a good
77 recruiting ground for potential Parliamentary candidates. It will report
78 to the Federal Executive, working with the Diversity Engagement
79 Group as appropriate. The Task Force will have one representative
80 each from the three state parties, the Federal Executive, ALDC,
81 EMLD, LDDA, LGBT+, LDW, Liberal Youth and PCA and be led by 82 a Candidate Diversity Champion appointed by the Leader and the 83 President. The Federal Executive Report to Conference will include
84 updates on the work of the Candidate Diversity Task Force.
- 85 C. Through the work of the 2020 Candidate Diversity Task Force and 86 Candidate Diversity Champion, in association with SAOs, AOs, ALDC
87 and parliamentary candidates, examine the party's approval and

Sunday 13th March

88 selection processes, and the role of PPCs after selection, to identify 89 barriers that may exist for under-represented groups, including those 90 identified in the Speaker's Conference on Parliamentary Selection, 91 as well as disadvantaged groups including those from a low socio-92 economic background. Solutions will be proposed to overcome these 93 barriers; to seek to make proposals to increase diversity at all levels 94 in the party; and to bring forward proposals on how to address the 95 emotional, practical and financial challenges facing candidates from 96 under-represented groups.

97 Conference recommends that:

- 98 1. Any local party should be able to vote for an all-women shortlist or 99 an all-disabled shortlist, or reserve some spaces for candidates from 100 other under-represented groups.
- 101 2. As a minimum the three state parties should follow the Canadian 102 Liberal Party practice of requiring the relevant Local Party to provide 103 documented evidence to their region or state (as relevant) of a
104 thorough search for potential candidates from under-represented
105 groups before being granted permission to start their Westminster
106 selection process; this should apply in those seats where the Liberal 107 Democrat parliamentary candidate received more than 15% of the 108 vote in the 2015 General Election but the seat is not held by the 109 Liberal Democrats.
- 110 3. In Scotland, Wales and each Region of the English Party, take 111 measures to move towards a slate of candidates that reflects the 112 diversity of the state or region, in line with the Leader's ambition of 113 having at least 50% women candidates and at least 10% BAME
114 candidates across Great Britain.
- 115 4. If any sitting MP elected in 2015 decides not to contest the next 116 General Election, his replacement should be selected from an all-
117 women shortlist.
- 118 5. In Scotland, Wales, and each Region of the English Party where there 119 are two or more non-held seats which gained 25% or more of the 120 General Election vote in May 2015, the regions should designate as a 121 minimum of one seat not held by a Liberal Democrat MP to select its 122 candidate from an all-women shortlist. Where these seats are affected
123 by boundary changes, the party's rules on re-running selection
124 processes will apply.
- 125 6. In addition to the one seat identified in 5. above, where the Liberal 126 Democrat parliamentary result at the 2015 General Election was in 127 the 10% of seats which had the highest percentage vote without

Sunday 13th March

- 128 returning a Liberal Democrat MP, the selection shortlist for the 2020
129 General Election should, subject to sufficient applications, include at 130 least two candidates from under-represented groups.

Applicability: Federal.

F21 A Fairer Deal for Private Renters

ALDC and 10 party members

Mover: Caroline Pidgeon AM
Summation: Cllr Chris White

- 1 Conference notes:
- 2 i) Private sector rents have become untenably high in many parts of
- 3 Britain, and many renters are now paying more than half their income
- 4 in rent.
- 5 ii) Rented homes often fall below a decent standard and there is a
- 6 continuing problem with rogue landlords.
- 7 iii) Moving from one rented home to another can be very expensive, with
- 8 high letting fees and large deposit requirements.
- 9 iv) Many renters who wish to buy a home are priced out of the market,
- 10 with average property prices rising much faster than wages and an

Sunday 13th March

- 11 historic lack of building new homes to meet demand.
- 12 v) The main cause of homelessness is now the ending of tenancies in 13 the private rented sector.
- 14 Conference welcomes:
- 15 a) New legislation coming into force to protect tenants from revenge
16 evictions, initiated by Sarah Teather during the Coalition.
- 17 b) Plans to introduce a rogue landlords database and banning orders 18 with financial penalties of up to £30,000.
- 19 c) Liberal Democrat commitments to create new opportunities for buying
20 a home including Rent to Own, where monthly rental payments stack 21 towards a deposit, and a huge increase in supply to 300,000 new 22 homes a year, including 50,000 new council homes in London by 23 2020.
- 24 d) Liberal Democrat plans to make moving home cheaper for renters
25 through the Help to Rent tenancy deposit scheme.
- 26 Conference calls for:
- 27 1. The letting of homes in the private rented sector to be 28 professionalised through the mandatory licensing of landlords.
- 29 2. The scrapping of letting fees for tenants.
- 30 3. A financial boost for local authorities to ensure they are able to 31 support tenants by providing sufficient housing and legal advice.
- 32 4. A requirement to give tenants first refusal to buy the home they are 33 renting from the landlord if they decide to sell it during the tenancy, at 34 market rate according to an independent valuation.
- 35 5. A ban on advertising new homes overseas before they are advertised 36 in the UK.
- 37 6. A review by the Secretary of State of the legislation applying to the 38 private rented sector, as the first step towards a comprehensive 39 private rented sector strategy.
- 40 7. Support and encouragement from Government for councils to 41 develop, own and manage private sector rented homes outside of 42 housing revenue accounts to improve the quality of homes in the 43 sector with the freedom to offer long-term tenancies.

Applicability: England only.

In special circumstances the Committee may specify later dates than those indicated above. In particular, where developments which, in the opinion of the Committee, are of great importance have taken place after the closing date for emergency motions and questions to reports, the Committee may make time available for an additional emergency motion or for a statement to be made on behalf of the Party or for additional questions to be submitted to reports.

2. Consultative sessions

2.1 The subjects for consultative sessions

The subjects for debate at consultative sessions shall be chosen by the Committee on the advice of the Federal Policy Committee and, where appropriate, the Federal Executive, and published in the agenda. Two or more such sessions may be held simultaneously.

3. The agenda

duly submitted shall be included in it. The Committee may allocate time for one or more policy or business motions to be selected by ballot. Copies of motions not selected shall be available for inspection and will be supplied to any party member on payment of a copying charge and postage.

3.2 Motions for the amendment of the constitution or standing orders

Save as detailed below in Standing Order 4.3, all proposed amendments to the constitution or standing orders must be selected for debate.

3.3 Balance between State and Federal policy debates

The Committee shall, in drawing up the agenda, have due regard to the balance of State and Federal policy debates and in particular shall as far as possible organise the agenda so that all matters which relate solely to one or more state parties but not all State Parties or the Federal Party shall be considered at either the beginning or the end of the conference.

4. Selection of motions and amendments

4.1 Compositing or otherwise altering motions

In drawing up the agenda the Committee shall seek to reflect the range of views in the Party as indicated by the motions and amendments submitted. The Committee may:

- a) Treat any severable part of a motion or amendment as a separate motion or amendment.
- b) Redraft a motion or amendment so as to improve expression, remove inaccuracy or superfluity or take account of new developments.
- c) Composite similar motions or amendments.

Standing orders

4.2 Selection of amendments

The Committee shall decide which of the amendments duly submitted to each motion shall be selected. No amendment shall be selected if, in the opinion of the Committee it is insubstantial, outside the scope of the motion, or tantamount to a direct negative of the motion.

4.3 Motions for the amendment of the constitution or standing orders

The Committee may refuse to select a motion for amendment of the constitution or standing orders if, in their opinion, it is:

- a) Similar in effect to another motion which has been selected for debate or ballot at the same meeting of conference.
- b) Similar in effect to a motion that has been rejected at either of the last two meetings of conference.
- c) In the case of amendments to the constitution, incomplete in that it leaves unamended some other part of the constitution which contradicts the meaning of the amendment.
- d) In the case of amendments to standing orders, incomplete in that it leaves unamended some other part of standing orders which contradicts the meaning of the amendment.
- e) Ambiguous.

4.4 Emergency motions

The Committee may reject an emergency motion if:

- a) It is similar in effect to another motion that has been selected for debate or ballot.
- b) It is similar in effect to a subject chosen for a topical issue discussion.
- c) It is unclear as to its meaning or intent or is, in the opinion of the Committee, too poorly drafted to provide a sensible basis for debate.
- d) It falls outside the definition of emergency motions.

No amendment shall be taken to any motion selected under this Standing Order.

4.5 Ballots for emergency motions

All emergency motions, except those rejected under Standing Order 4.4, must be placed either on the agenda for debate or in a ballot for selection by Conference. The Committee may hold separate ballots to select which of a range of emergency policy motions and which of a range of emergency business motions to debate. If one or more ballots is held the Committee shall circulate the text of all balloted motions to the voting members as soon as practicable and shall specify a closing time for the ballot. Following the counting of any ballots the Committee shall organise the debates on the motions in the order chosen by conference in the ballots.

4.6 Emergency amendments

The Committee shall have complete discretion whether to select emergency amendments for debate.

4.7 Topical issue discussions

The choice of subjects for topical issue discussions shall be made by the Officers of the Committee in consultation with the Officers of the Federal Policy Committee. In choosing the subjects, the Officers shall have regard to the significance and topicality of the subjects proposed and whether they are likely to provoke a lively discussion.

5. Special meetings

5.1 Timetabling of special meetings

The Committee shall, as soon as practicable after the requisitioning of a special meeting of the conference, fix a date for the meeting, draw up the agenda and, if appropriate, specify a date for the submission of amendments. The meeting shall deal only with the business stated in the notice of requisition save that the Committee may allow time for emergency motions and for business which is formal or, in its opinion, uncontentious.

Standing orders

5.2 Preferred timescales for special meetings

In setting dates for the submission of motions and amendments and giving notice thereof and of the conference itself the Committee shall endeavour to follow the timescales laid down elsewhere in these standing orders but, where this is not practicable, the Committee shall set such dates as it sees fit.

6. Appeals

6.1 Appeals against rejection of motions

The Committee shall provide written reasoning to the nominee of the proposers for the rejection of any motion or amendment. The proposers may appeal, in writing, to the next meeting of the Committee. Any such appeal shall provide reasons why, in the opinion of the proposers, the expressed reasons for rejection are not valid. If the appeal is allowed, the motion or amendment shall be treated as an emergency motion or amendment according to the stage of the agenda-setting process at which the appeal has been allowed.

6.2 Appeals against exclusion from conference

Any person excluded from conference by a decision of the Chief Steward shall have the right of appeal to the Committee at the next of its regular meetings. The exclusion shall remain in force pending the appeal.

7. The chair

7.1 Who chairs conference

The President, if present, shall normally take the chair at the formal opening and closing of conference and when the Party Leader is making a formal speech from the platform. At all other sessions the chair shall be appointed by the Committee.

Normally no person shall chair more than one session at any meeting.

7.2 The chair's aide

The Committee may appoint an aide or aides to assist the chair of each session.

8.2 Withdrawal of motions and amendments

Once the Committee has included a motion or amendment, or part of a motion or amendment, in the agenda, may not be withdrawn except by leave of conference.

8.3 The order of debate

The Committee shall direct the order of debate. Generally, however, a motion will be moved and immediately thereafter the amendments and options will be moved in the order directed by the Committee. There will then be a general debate. The movers of amendments and options (or their nominees) shall have the right of reply in the same order (except that where an amendment or option has not been opposed during the debate, the chair of the session shall have the right to direct that its movers shall not exercise their right of reply), after which the mover of the motion (or the mover's nominee) shall have the right of reply. Votes shall then be taken on the amendments and options in the order in which they have been moved and, finally, on the substantive motion. The Committee may direct that part of any motion or amendment or groups or amendments may be the subject of a separate debate.

Provided that the Federal Policy Committee is not proposing the motion or any of the amendments to be taken in a debate on a policy motion or on motions relating to the policy-making processes of the Party it shall have the right to nominate a person to report its views on the subject before the conference. The Federal Executive shall have similar rights on business motions or motions to amend the constitution, as shall the Federal Conference Committee on motions relating to the proceeding and procedures of the conference and to amend standing orders. 8.7 The selection of speakers

Voting members wishing to speak in any debate shall submit a speaker's card, prior to the commencement of the debate in which they wish to speak, stating whether they wish to speak for or against an amendment, the motion or part of the motion. The chair shall be responsible for the choice of the speakers and shall attempt to provide a balanced debate between the different viewpoints in the conference, but may announce a departure from this rule if there is an overwhelming preponderance of members wishing to speak on the same side. The chair shall have the discretion to accept speakers' cards after the start of the debate. Save as provided for in these standing orders, no person may speak more than once in any debate.

8.8 The length of speeches

The Committee shall set out in the agenda time limits for speeches.

If it is carried the current agenda item shall be abandoned without any further debate or vote and, at the discretion of the chair, either the next agenda item shall be taken or there shall be an adjournment until the time at which the next agenda item was due to be taken.
- d) If passed, the Federal Policy Committee shall, before the next meeting of the conference, circulate its reasons for acting under this section and its comments on the motion and any amendments thereto accepted for debate.

11.4 Separate vote

A voting member of conference may request that the chair take a separate vote on a part of a motion or amendment provided that such a request is in writing and received by the commencement of the first conference session on the day before the debate is scheduled. If the debate is scheduled for the first day of conference, the request must be received in writing by the same deadline as that for emergency motions. The Committee shall have complete discretion whether to take a separate vote. In exceptional circumstances, the Chair of the debate shall have discretion to accept a request for a separate vote if it is received in writing after this deadline.

11.5 Counted vote

Any voting member may ask for a counted vote, which shall be taken if the request is supported by 50 members rising in their places and showing their voting cards.

Standing orders

not to debate the request, it falls. If the conference decides, by a majority of those present and voting, to hear the request the mover may speak and a representative of the Committee may reply. The chair shall have the discretion to allow other speakers. All speeches on the motion to suspend standing orders will be limited to two minutes.
