Our time is now

by Jo Swinson MP

There has never been a more important time for the Liberal Democrats. Our country needs us.

The forces of hate, mistrust and division are growing with chilling consequences. Now is the time for liberals across the UK to rise up and speak out with a collective voice that paints a positive, inclusive and open vision. Now is the time for the Liberal Democrats.

The Conservatives are intent on destroying our country through their reckless dash for Brexit and the Labour party are intent on destroying themselves.

It is the Liberal Democrats – the strongest Remain party – that must speak the loudest and clearest, not for ourselves but for the communities we represent and the country we love.

Brexit is the totemic issue of our time: it threatens everything that we love, value and cherish. But Brexit is just one symptom of the poisonous politics that is festering in our country.

We need to be winning not just elections, but hearts and minds. We need to be building a new liberal movement with a strong Liberal Democrats at its heart.

Together, we can do this.

FEATURE

Together, we will unite the forces of Remain, we will reach out to the millions of small 'l' liberals who find themselves without a political home.

Together, we will reach out to those that have been abandoned by the ideological dogma of Jeremy Corbyn's Labour, to those left behind by the radical right-wing takeover of the Conservatives and those that have been deserted by the SNP's obsession with breaking up the United Kingdom.

Together, we will stop Brexit.

We will reach out to communities that have never heard a liberal voice and we will speak up for them.

Whether you're a gay teenager growing up in Cornwall, a single parent who recently immigrated to Manchester, or a minimum-wage worker barely getting by in Glasgow, I want you to know that the Liberal Democrats have your back.

We will fight with everything we have for you and your communities, we will fight for the Britain we believe in.

Now is the time for liberals to rise up and unite. Now is the time to build a new liberal movement.

Now is the time for the Liberal Democrats.

Jo Swinson,
Leader of the Liberal Democrats

Conference information

If you have any questions on-site, please ask a steward or go to the Information Desk in the main foyer of the BIC.

Be aware that flash photography is frequently used in the auditorium. Please ensure that all mobile phones are on silent before entering the auditorium.

Please note that access to the BIC is only possible with a valid conference pass.

Accessibility

If you need assistance at the venue, please contact the Information Desk where our dedicated access steward will be on hand to help. If you need assistance or information in advance, contact the Conference Office on:

conferences@libdems.org.uk

Auditorium facilities

- There is access to the stage via a wheelchair lift stage right. The chair of the session will ensure wheelchair users are called in plenty of time to access the stage.
- An induction loop system, which can be linked to hearing aids.
- Sign language interpretation during all auditorium sessions; a number of seats are reserved for attendees using this service, at the front of the auditorium.
- Reserved seats at the front of the auditorium for those who would benefit from being closer to the stage due to a visual impairment.

Mobility aids

The Liberal Democrats have a limited number of electric scooters available for

Autumn Conference Training Programme

Learn new skills, take on a new role

Welcome to our Autumn Conference training programme. Whether you joined the party a month ago or decades ago, there are training opportunities for everyone.

We want to make it really easy to find the right training for you. That is why every course is 'tagged' with coloured buttons that give you an idea of the different skills you will learn.

You can turn up to any training session you wish to, unless otherwise indicated. However, please be aware that our Conference training is always really popular, and spaces are allocated on a first come first served basis.

If you miss a session and would like to know how you can access it remotely, please email us on training@libdems.org.uk

Enjoy your conference!

Sarah Green, Chair, Federal Training Committee.

What skills will you learn at conference?

diversity:

Learn how to engage diverse people and communities or how to build a successful and sustainable political career as someone from an under-represented group.

campaigning:

Whether you have been campaigning and fighting elections for decades or are just getting started, learn the latest techniques and brush up on your skills.

digital:

Learn how to get the most from the party's suite of digital tools. Find out how to engage voters and supporters through a range of digital channels.

compliance:

These courses will keep you up to date on legal and compliance issues. Particularly useful for election agents and local party officers.

fundraising:

Whether you are trying to win an election or grow your local party, fundraising is crucial. Learn how to fundraise, get ideas, tips, tricks as well as advice and support.

personal:

Personal development courses will help you develop a range of skills that will enable you to grow in your roles within the Liberal Democrats as well as in the outside world.

party roles:

Across the party there are many roles you could take on. Learn the skills needed to take on different party roles and find out about how you can develop your skills further.

teams:

Building diverse, winning teams is crucial to our success at all levels. These courses will help you build a team and enable your team to thrive and grow further.

Top Tip for Training

The coloured buttons make suggestions as to what skills you will learn in each session. Use this as a guide to help you find the right training for your needs.

Getting the most out of your training

Some subjects have more than one module. If you can, try and do each module in order.

Find the right training sessions for you...

Not sure what training opportunities at conference are right for you? Contact us at training@libdems.org.uk and we will happily help guide you.

Can't make it to a session?
