Hours: The post is full-time (37 hours/week). Some hours will be unsocial. It is expected that the Campaigns Organiser will work to assist evening and weekend campaign activities by agreement.

Accountable to: The Liberal Democrat Local Party Executive, via the North Beds Campaign Committee.

Transport: Travel expenses will be paid for pre-agreed expenditure.

The major functions of the job are:

To support the work of the Liberal Democrats in North Bedfordshire so that:

- the Liberal Democrat Mayor is re-elected in 2023;
- an increased number of Liberal Democrats are elected to Bedford Borough Council in 2023; and
- the local party's capacity to fight elections is increased.

Key Roles and Responsibilities:

1. To organise volunteers and local party workers to deliver the campaign plan.
2. To assist with the digital campaign e.g. web site, social media, creating videos.
3. To ensure the delivery of a programme of doorstep and telephone voter contact.
4. To ensure the delivery of an agreed literature programme.
5. To assist in the production of literature: setting (using specialist software); photos; printing; folding.
6. To assist in recruiting, training, developing and retaining volunteers.
7. Enter data and/or organise volunteers to enter data in the online database.
8. To line-manage any supporting staff (none anticipated) and interns.
9. To assist the Campaign Committee in strategic planning and campaign organisation and oversee the production of literature.
10. You may be required to liaise with staff and officers of the regional party (East of England) and to liaise with the council group.
11. To undertake such training as is recommended to develop and update required skills.
