

Amna Ahmad

For Vice President

As a party committed to equality, it is vital that we apply our values and make real change now. I will provide the positive vision and leadership we need to make that happen.

As a former Lib Dem Parliamentary candidate, I have seen prejudice close-up, in British politics and, sadly, within our party. And I know that I'm not the only one.

My experience led me to take time out to reflect and then, at Harvard, I learnt from world leaders on race equality, collaborative working and leadership. I want to translate my experience and learning into change for our party in the UK. Working at every level from the smallest local party to the leadership in parliament, we must implement the Alderdice Review recommendations.

It is time for change. We need to attract ethnic minority talent, and show - not just say - that our party is a place of equality and opportunity for all.

All about Amna Ahmad

Amna was born in Lahore, Pakistan, and grew up on a council estate in London. She was in foster care for a short time. She studied at Oxford and most recently, Harvard.

She joined the party due to her opposition to the Iraq War and since then, she has run for council, London Assembly and as a target Parliamentary seat candidate in 2017. That year she was appointed the Lib Dems' Shadow Refugee Minister and debated Nick Ferrari on LBC about the policy to allow in Syrian child refugees.

She is a regular contributor to BBC Asian Network and has appeared in The Guardian, the Evening Standard, ITV News and the BBC, amongst others.

Professionally, she works in advocacy with a focus on healthcare policy.

Fun fact: Barack Obama follows Amna on Twitter! You can too at: @amnajahmad

We are voting 1 for Amna Ahmad

Baroness Sal Brinton
Former Lib Dem President

Amna is my number one choice for Lib Dem Vice President and I urge members to vote for her. I created the VP role when I was President and Amna is well placed to build our diverse party of the future. Amna will deliver – she gets things done, and she has my support.

Tom Brake

Lib Dem MP 1997-2019

I worked with Amna in Sutton and saw first hand her ability to bring different groups together on policy and political issues. This experience will be critical to being a successful VP and that's why I'm endorsing Amna in this election.

Josh Babarinde OBE
PPC for Eastbourne
Former vice-chair of RDC

As a target seat PPC, I know how important it is to campaign locally and win. As a former council and Parliamentary candidate, Amna will bring that frontline experience to the role and that's why I support her. Vote Amna for VP.

Sarah Green MP
MP for Chesham & Amersham

Amna was a hardworking Lib Dem Parliamentary candidate. She has a clear vision for how to build ethnic minority community support for our party. Her campaigning background coupled with her professional experience makes her the right choice. I wholeheartedly endorse Amna to be our Vice-President.

Sarah Cheung Johnson
Cambridgeshire councillor

Liberal values and tackling racial inequality are two sides of the same coin. I know that Amna is passionate about these issues too and that's why I'm endorsing her to be the next VP for Ethnic Minorities. Vote Amna for VP.

Contact Amna Ahmad

Email amnaforvp@gmail.com : Facebook group: Amna for VP

- A collaborative, positive working style to take the party from debate to action
- Implementing the Alderdice Review recommendations at every level of the Liberal Democrats
- Help local parties and SAOs engage and campaign with diverse communities to win elections in the country

