@NSmudgeChampion

Hi, I'm Natasha. I'm a Bioveterinary Science student at the University of Lincoln. I was the Women's officer of my SU last year and have helped to organise campaigns and protests on issues like equal marriage, climate change and anti-fascism. I think Ryan would make a brilliant co-chair because of his experience working on the executive and fighting for young members in the party.

@RyanMercerLD

Hi! I'm Ryan. I'm a graduate of Leicester University, now working for an education charity in London. I've been Liberal Youth's Policy Officer for the past year, helping to ensure the party's policies and manifesto are the best for young people. I think Natasha will be a fantastic co-chair as she has the passion and skills as a campaigner on issues that we need to become a real movement for young people.

FOUR KEY PRIORITIES FOR LIBERAL YOUTH

1. Diversity - We want to make diversity an aim for all Liberal Youth's activities, we cannot rest while women and ethnic minorities are underrepresented at our events and in our campaigns.

2. Organisation - By arranging the events, campaigns and communications calendarsfurther in advance to give you more notice of activities and by putting more money into development, we can make it much easier for you to get involved with LY.

3. Voice - Liberal Youth has been able to influence policy with a seat on FPC. We want to push for LY to be on other party committees to ensure that the voice of young members is heard at every level.

4. Movement - Tim Farron wants the Lib Dems to be become a movement. LY must be at the forefront, putting our stamp on every campaign, ensuring young members are shaping and leading the Lib Dem fightback!
